THE LATEST.

The latest dispatches are to the effect that the mutineers are still in control of the fort at Sveaborg. According to reports portions of the crews of the ships firing on the forts are being kept below deck to prevent them from mutinying. There is a rumor that four of the ships of the Baltic squadron have mutinied.

Gov. A. B. Cummins won an easy victory in the Iowa Republican convention at Des Moines yesterday, being nominated on the first ballot. His friends also dictated the platform and were in such easy control that the opposition accepted the situation and the expected split did not materialize.

The Courier-Journal tourists are attracting much attention in Paris. A crowd of 1,500 people awaited them at the Hotel Du Louvre and everywhere the young women are finding kodaks leveled at them. The tourists will leave Paris Monday for Switzerland.

Sherman N. Stubb and John Anderson, the detectives who testified in the Hartje case at Pittsburg, to entering Coachman Madine's room and taking letters from his trunk, were arrested yesterday, charged with entering a building for felony and larceny.

Maj. George V. Menzies, of Mt. Vernon, was nominated for Congress by the Democrats of the First district of Indiana in convention at Petersburg yesterday. The State platform was indorsed and the use of money in corrupting voters was condemned.

The bulletin of statistics of manufacturing industries of Kentucky, issued by the Department of Commerce and Labor, shows that in 1905 the most important industry was that of flour milling. The lumber industry ranks second in the value of products.

The Democratic Congressional Convention for the Tenth district met yesterday in Pikeville, with a large crowd of delegates, State officials and politicians in attendance. After taking nine ballots last night the convention adjourned until this morning.

The names of twenty-three men who will sit on the Federal grand jury which will hear testimony, beginning next Monday, in connection with the charges against the Standard Oil Company were drawn from the jury box yesterday in Chicago.

A dispatch received in Washington yesterday by the Isthmian Canal Commission announced two additional cases of smallpox at Colon, making a total of thirty-seven cases.

Secretary Root was the guest of Dr. Muller, the Brazilian Minister of Public Works, on an ascension of Mount Corcovado yesterday. Corcovado is two miles from Rio Janeiro.

Alma Ross, the "mysterious blonde," who has figured in the Hartje divorce case at Pittsburg, yesterday gave damaging evidence against the plaintiff, Augustus Hartje.

Large sums of money are being distributed in San Francisco by the sound insurance companies which have now settled practically all of their individual losses.

According to the figures of the City Electrician, Chicago has saved $323,865 in the past eighteen years by the municipal ownership of its electric lighting plant.

The internal revenue collections in Kentucky for the fiscal year amounted to $24,469,083.68. Kentucky was the fourth State in the amount of revenue paid.

Mrs. William Thaw has finally acceded to the request of her son to dispense with the services of the law firm of Black, Olcott, Gruber and Bonynge.

The Post-office Department has issued a fraud order against G. W. Mason, of Latonia, who is charged with operating a gambling scheme.

Democrats of the Seventh Indiana congressional district may nominate John Mitchell, the labor leader, as their candidate for Congress.

NINE BALLOTS AND NO CHOICE

Big Crowd at Democratic Convention In Pikeville.

Gov. Beckham, Judge Hager and Others Speak.

Meeting Indorses Hager's Candidacy In Platform.

TO RESUME VOTING TO-DAY.

Pikeville, Ky., Aug. 1.—[Special.]—After taking nine ballots the Tenth District Democratic Convention at 11:15 o'clock to-night adjourned until 8 o'clock to-morrow morning without making a nomination. The adjournment was made on motion of Walter S. Harkins, who is managing the campaign for Frank Hopkins. The vote was close, 49½ to 47½.

The resolutions which were adopted provided that after the fifteenth ballot, the hindmost man after each ballot should be dropped. The first ballots, therefore, were practically of no importance, as it was known that no one could be nominated until after someone had been dropped. The adjournment to-night is counted a victory for Hopkins, and certainly gives him a chance in the convention to-morrow. A nomination may not be made to-morrow as further dilatory tactics may be used. It is the general opinion here that Hopkins will be nominated, although his name has not been presented to the convention. His friends are working hard for him, and they are confident they will land him a winner. The nominating speeches were limited to ten minutes each.

Judge James Benton nominated Floyd Byrd; Robert Friend nominated J. B. White; a delegate from Magoffin, who simply rose in his seat and made no speech, nominated Baird Higgins; C. W. Nesbitt nominated J. T. Cooper; Finley Fogg nominated Amos Davis, and M. J. Auxier nominated James Hatcher, of Pike, a dark horse, who never had been mentioned in the race until yesterday. On the first ballot the vote stood: Byrd, 26; Cooper, 25; Davis, 14; Higgins, 6; White, 17; Hatcher, 14. There were many changes on the other ballots, but the delegates were merely killing time.

Fogg Speaks For Harmony.

The convention was called to order at 10 o'clock by Finley Fogg, member of the State Executive Committee. He spoke briefly for harmony in the ranks of the party and urged every delegate to put aside personal preference and work solely for the interests of the party. He said the district is close and in order to elect the nominee it would be necessary for the Democrats of the district to work together without dissensions or factions. He then called for nominations for temporary chairman. T. J. Chandler, of Johnson, nominated W. B. Pinson, of Pike. This was seconded by several counties and Pinson was elected by acclamation. Walter Gardner, of Morgan county, was elected temporary secretary without opposition. M. M. Redwine, of Elliott, moved that the chair name seven members of the Committee on Resolutions and five members of the Committee on Credentials. A motion to amend was made by one of the contesting delegation from Magoffin county. His right to make a motion was contested and Finley Fogg, who was a delegate from Morgan, avoided the question by moving to amend by having the Credentials Committee composed of nine members, one to be selected by each of the seven candidates and two by the chair. The roll of the counties was called for and the amendment was defeated by a vote of 35 to 57. In allowing Breathitt and Knott to vote the chair ruled that the delegation which had the credentials signed by the county chairman was the regular one. Magoffin, where neither of the delegates had signed credentials, was not allowed to vote.

* * *

Committees Named.

The chair named the following Committee on Credentials: Charles Nesbit, of Montgomery; J. W. Sparks, of Elliott; J. R. Cline, of Pike; W. L. Craig, of Menifee, and A. J. Mayo, of Floyd. The Committee on Resolutions was named as follows: J. K. Roberts, of Lee; M. M. Redwine, of Elliott; J. D. Martin, of Knott; Earl Senff, of Montgomery; John Stevenson, of Clark; D. B. Redwine, of Breathitt, and Tom Hatcher, of Pike.

The convention then took a recess to 1 o'clock, when the committees were to meet. During the intermission a committee was appointed to invite Gov. Beckham to make a speech. He accepted, speaking in the open air. The number of candidates here was added to to-day by the arrival of Hubert Vreeland, candidate for Secretary of State; June Gayle, candidate for Treasurer, and Lillard Carter, candidate for Attorney General. Senator McCreary was not present, although he was expected. Answering charges made against him by N. B. Hays, Judge S. W. Hager spoke for a short time in front on the courthouse in the afternoon. He replied to the charge made by Gen. Hays: that large fees had been paid special attorneys by saying this was done by his predecessor in office and was in no sense his act. Regarding the selection of an architect for the new Capitol, Judge Hager said the committee wanted only a first-class man and did not want to accept plans which had been used for any other building, believing that Kentucky should have only the best in architectural design.

More Speeches.

The Committee on Credentials remained out for some time, and during the afternoon several speeches were made by candidates for State offices. Other candidates spoke at other places, or wherever there was a crowd, and the people of Pikeville heard more speechmaking this afternoon than ever before. A large number of speeches were made in the convention this afternoon by men from all over the district. Hubert Vreeland extended an invitation to the delegates to attend the Bryan reception in Louisville. The Hon. South Trimble delivered an address in the interest of his candidacy for Lieutenant Governor which was well received.

* * *

The Resolutions.

The following resolutions were agreed upon by the Committee on Resolutions:

That, We indorse the able and patriotic course of our Senators and Democratic Representatives in the present Congress.

That, We heartily indorse the wise, economical and conservative course pursued by the present Democratic State Administration in conducting the affairs of our Commonwealth, and in guarding so zealously the best interests of our taxpayers, and especially do we indorse the official record of our present State Auditor, Judge S. W. Hager, whom Eastern Kentucky offers with pride to the Democracy of the State as a candidate for Governor and as a worthy successor to our present distinguished incumbent.

The next section indorsed Bryan for President. The last clause of the resolutions was as follows:

That, On and after fifteen ballots and each successive ballot thereafter the hindmost candidate shall be dropped until a nomination is made.

* * *

Credentials Report.

The convention reconvened at 8 o'clock, but the Credentials Committee was not ready to report until 9 o'clock. There were two reports. The majority report seated the Hargis delegation in Breathitt, the anti-Byrd delegation in Knott and the Hopkins delegation in Magoffin. The minority report concurred in all the other report except on Magoffin county. It recommended the seating of the Cooper delegation in Magoffin. The report brought on a prolonged wrangle between the two delegations from Magoffin and the convention, impatient to get to work and finish, yelled for the numerous speeches to cease.

Several calls of the roll were taken and finally the motion to adopt the minority report was rejected. The counties voting to reject were: Clark, Floyd, Johnson, Knott, Lee, Martin, Menifee, Morgan, Powell and Wolfe—Total 156.

Those voting in favor of it were: Breathitt, Elliott, Montgomery and Pike—Total 31.

COURIER-JOURNAL TOURISTS IN PARIS

CROWD OF 1,500 AWAITS THEM AT HOTEL.

LOOK INTO KODAKS ON EVERY HAND.

SWITZERLAND COMES NEXT.

Paris, Aug. 1.—[Special Cable.]—Thirty-two young American women adjudged the most popular in Kentucky by the Louisville Courier-Journal voting contest, arrived Tuesday night and had their first day of sight-seeing today. The French papers, like the English, erroneously assume that the girls were chosen for beauty.

Hence, they are making comparisons with French girls not at all complimentary to the girls from Dixie.

"We are not a beauty show nor a circus, nor a collection of freaks," said Miss Sad Craig, of Jeffersonville, Ind., "and we resent being treated as such by the newspapers and people."

There are two men, Mr. G. E. Johnson and Mr. George Franklin Kast, of the Courier-Journal, with the party. They have been busier that the young women. Not one of the thirty-two had ever been to Europe before and the responsibility is felling on the men. The girls do not seem to mind it because they have been described by French newspapers as "a bevy of American beauties."

There was a crowd of between 1,000 and 1,500 excited men and women awaiting for their appearance at the Hotel Du Louvre; nor was it a polite or respectful mob. They passed open judgment on the young women. Everywhere the Kentuckians turned they found kodaks leveled at them. Once on their way the photographers followed them. Two men in a carriage never deserted them all morning and all afternoon. They photographed the young women as they descended at the Trocadero, as they stood before Napoleon's tomb, and as they left the brake to enter the Church of Notre Dame. All through their busy day the French photographers followed the Kentucky girls.

They will remain in Paris until Monday morning, then will "do" Switzerland in five days; Germany, in four; Holland, in two, and Belgium in two.

Killed By Freight Train.

Vincennes, Ind., Aug. 1.—In an unsuccessful attempt to catch a freight train here to-day, Patrick Blocat, of Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., was run over, death resulting late this afternoon at a hospital. Blocat and a companion, Charles Belknap, of the same city, were en route home when the accident occurred.

KEEP SAILORS BELOW DECK

Plan of Preventing Mutiny On Ships.

St. Petersburg Awaiting News of Sveaborg.

Rumors That Four Vessels Have Broken Away.

THE SITUATION AT CRONSTADT

St. Petersburg, Aug. 2, 12:15 A. M.—St. Petersburg is anxiously waiting news of the outcome of yesterday's battle between the mutineers and the Government forces at Sveaborg. No definite information has been received here owing to the damage done to the land telegraph wires. The advices received by the Government by wireless telegraph have not been divulged.

The utmost importance is attached to the conduct of the fleet. According to semi-official intimation, the crews of these vessels are still under the control of their officers, but private advices say that a portion of the crews have been confined below decks for fear of mutiny.

There was a rumor in circulation here to-night that four of the ships of the Baltic squadron were in complete mutiny and roaming at large in the Gulf of Finland, and that the commandant at Cronstadt had been notified to be prepared for an attack by these vessels.

It is worthy of note that a dispatch to an official agency from Helsingfors announcing the arrival of the fleet off Sveaborg and the fact that it opened fire does not mention what it opened fire against.

Vice Admiral Birileff presumably has gone to Helsingfors to assume personal command of the fleet, as it now develops that Grand Duke Alexander Michaelovich, the Emperor's brother, is not with the fleet, as previously reported, but at Gatchina with the Empress Dowager.

Revolt Nipped In Bud.

The most intense anxiety prevails with regard to a possible uprising at Cronstadt, and the general spread of the revolt through the entire naval establishment. A personal visit by a correspondent of the Associated Press to Cronstadt, however, shows that the authorities there received timely warning of the events at Sveaborg and nipped a possible revolt in the bud. They had the situation well in hand Tuesday night, and quietly placed detachments of infantry at the doors of the Marine barracks and removed the carbines from the racks in the building.

Yesterday morning the 1,500 sailors composing the seventh equipage quartered at Cronstadt, whose loyalty had been distrusted, found themselves prisoners. The correspondent saw them looking out of the windows of their barracks, and unable to communicate with the outside. The streets of Cronstadt are swarming with troops of the loyal guard regiments, and the newly arrived men of the Twenty-fourth division, who serve to overawe the disaffected elements.

The commandant at Cronstadt ordered the confiscation of newspapers from St. Petersburg in order to prevent the news of the outbreak at Sveaborg from reaching the islanders. This measure was fairly successful.

* * *

Agitators Dispersed.

A group of agitators who went over to Cronstadt in the same boat with the correspondent of the Associated Press, attempted to hold meetings and communicate news of teh Sveaborg happenings. They were dispersed, however, and fled before the leveled rifles of the soldiers. The officers of the Navy Department at Cronstadt are besieged by the wives and relatives of officers on board the ships at Helsingfors, who are frantic over the reports that the crews had arisen and killed their superiors.

As the correspondent was crossing from Cronstadt to Oranienbaum, he saw the imperial yacht Pole Star lying with steam up at the pier below the Imperial residence at Peterhof.

TRAFFIC PROHIBITED.

Large Crowds Assemble On Quays Listening To Cannonading.

Helsingfors, Aug. 2.—1:30 a. m.—Except in the vicinity of the fort, the town presents practically a normal aspect. During the evening large crowds gathered on the quays listening to the cannonade and watching the dense columns of smoke rising from the island. All traffic in the harbor has been prohibited.

After nightfall the Governor issued an order closing all public houses.

Regular traffic has been resumed with St. Petersburg. The railroad bridge between Riihimaki and Ryttylae, which was blown up by members of the Red Guard, has been repaired. Prior to the blowing up of this bridge members of the Red Guard seized the Fredericksburg station and stopped the St. Petersburg mail train.

The white flag has been hoisted on one of the islands, but it is premature to say whether the revolutionaries have surrendered or not. In any event, however, the fire from the battleship Slava and another warship undoubtedly had its effect.

The mutineers report that the Slava was struck several times by their fire.

During the afternoon a boat put out from Sveaborg and was bombarded. The occupants, who were members of the Red Guard, were taken into custody.

Last evening the Strike Committee declared a general strike to begin at 7 o'clock, having received an intimation that otherwise Helsingfors would be bombarded. Up to midnight, however, there were no evidences of this strike.

The Senate has issued special orders to all Governors to maintain public order and to strengthen the regular forces with civilians.

The revolutionaries of Finland have issued an appeal to the troops to support the people in a fight for land and liberty.

The Sveaborg mutiny first broke out Monday among a sapper battalion which had been disarmed in the fortress. The artillery joined in the revolt, and together the mutineers took possession of the forts. The commander of the fortress appealed personally to the men, but his words were unheeded. The mutiny speedily assumed an aggressive character. The commander of the sapper battalion was fired upon by his men and wounded. He was then stoned to death and thrown into the sea. A midshipman named De Livron attached to one of the torpedo boat destroyers went out and hauled down the red flag from Skatudden fortress, while the mutineers were firing on him. He received four bullets in the breast and died in a hospital during the night.

CAUSES DISMAY.

Blow From An Unexpected Quarter—Strikes Are Spreading.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 1.—At the Ministry of Marine the report that Admiral Birileff had gone to Helsingfors was confirmed. He sailed on the schoolship Asia. The Admiralty officials, however, declined to make public the nature of the advices they had received from the scene of mutiny.

Thus far no troops have been sent to Finland from Russia proper, but Gen. Saltza, the commander of the military forces in Finland, has been authorized to draw on all the garrisons in Finland if necessary. There are about 40,000 Russian troops in the Grand Duchy.

There is no exaggeration in saying that the blow coming thus suddenly from an unexpected quarter has caused dismay in the Government circles, and the feeling of alarm is increased by the bad news from the interior. The strikes are spreading rapidly. The whole of the Donetz Basin, the center of the mining and smelting industry, is in the grip of the strikers, 20,000 walking out at Usovka last night, while from the Viceroy of the Caucasus comes news that the garrison of Deshlagar, commanding the famous iron gate at Derbent, received the news of the dissolution of Parliament by rising, killing their commanding officer, installing

MRS. THAW YIELDS TO SON'S OPINION

WRITES LETTER OF DISMISSAL TO LAW FIRM.

MR. HARTRIDGE ENGAGING ADDITIONAL COUNSEL.

NOTED LAWYERS WILL AID.

New York, Aug. 1.—Yielding to the persuasion of her son, Harry Thaw, Mrs. William Thaw to-day dispensed with the services of the firm of Black, Olcott, Gruber and Bonynge, whom she had retained to conduct the defense of the young man on the charge of murdering Stanford White. Following a family counsel held last night at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Carnegie, at Roslyn, L. I., and at which Mrs. Harry Thaw was present, Mrs. William Thaw this afternoon sent the following letter to her counsel:

Messrs. Black, Olcott, Gruber and Bonynge, New York—Gentlemen: After fully considering the question, I have decided that my son's position is the right one. Will you, therefore, kindly deliver to Messrs. Hartridge and Peabody, No. 149 Broadway, all documents, letters, notes, memoranda, data and all papers you have for me and a full statement of your account.

Thanking you for your courteous attention to my wishes during the past two weeks, I remain, very truly yours,

M. C. THAW.

Former Gov. Black's firm was engaged by Harry Thaw to take charge of his defense a few days after the tragedy. A disagreement occurred between the prisoner and Mr. Olcott on the question of the line of defense to be adopted, Mr. Olcott insisting on the plea of insanity, to which Thaw was opposed. A day or two before his mother's arrival from Europe Thaw dismissed his counsel and placed his affairs in the hands of his personal attorney, Clifford W. Hartridge. Mrs. Thaw's first act on landing was to re-engage Black, Olcott, Gruber and Bonynge. Since then Mrs. Thaw has been unremitting in her efforts to persuade her son to acquiesce in her views and permit her to dictate his defense. In this she failed. This is taken to mean that his plea of "not guilty" will stand and that emotional insanity and evidence going to show justification under the "unwritten law" will be relied upon to secure acquittal.

Mr. Olcott to-night declined to make any comment on Mrs. Thaw's action.

It is understood that Mr. Hartridge does not intend to conduct the case single-handed. He has been in daily consultation for a week with several prominent criminal lawyers. A number of these lawyers have already been retained to assist in the defense and are now at work on different ends of the case. One of the most noted lawyers in the United States will conduct the trial in court.

After Senator Blackburn.

New York, Aug. 1.—Another prominent lawyer who has been approached in behalf of Thaw is Senator Blackburn, of Kentucky. The Senator, it is said, has not accepted a retainer.

CUMMINS WINS EASY VICTORY

Lead In Iowa Convention Was Overpowering.

Nominated On First Ballot by Decisive Vote.

Perkins Pledges Loyalty to His Party.

THERE WILL BE NO SPLIT.

Des Moines, Ia., Aug. 1.—Gov. A. B. Cummins was renominated to-night by the Republicans of Iowa. There were three names placed before the convention, those of the Governor, George B. Perkins and S. W. Rathburn. The ballot resulted as follows: Cummins, 933; Perkins, 603; Rathburn, 104.

The anticipated "row" in the convention did not materialize. Cummins, as he had claimed all along, controlled a majority of the delegates.

His friends were dominant in the majority of the district conventions held this morning, and consequently controlled not only the Committee on Credentials, but secured the adoption of the platform they submitted to the Committee on Resolutions. The action of the State Central Committee in putting eighty-eight of the contesting Perkins delegates on the temporary roll was not sustained by the Committee on Credentials, who reported in favor of demanding only thirteen of them.

After Gov. Cummins was renominated a committee was appointed to escort him to the platform. He made a speech, in which he said the thing nearest his heart was the Republican party.

George D. Perkins was also called out, and was received with cheers. He said that in the future, as in the past, he would be loyal to the Republican party, and re-enlisted in its service.

The majority of the other officers on the State ticket were nominated by acclamation, a ballot being necessary only for Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of State, Treasurer, Attorney General and Railroad Commissioners.

* * *

The Platform.

The Committee on Resolutions submitted the following platform, to which, it was stated, they had unanimously agreed:

The Republicans of Iowa in convention assembled declare: We find abundant cause for rejoicing in conditions prevailing. The country as a whole is unceasingly prosperous and our State is experiencing the climax of protection and prosperity. We are rightly proud of the history of our party which for so many years have determined the policies and directed the administration of our public affairs.

We commend the inspiring character, important achievements and undaunted leadership of Theodore Roosevelt. It is with exceeding pride that we contemplate the confidence reposed in him by the people of our country and the admiration which he commands from the whole world.

We rejoice in the prominence and influence of our Representatives in the Cabinet and in Congress. They have discharged the duties of the public station with honor and high credit to themselves, the State and the nation, and deserve the esteem and affection of the people whom they have so faithfully served.

We approve most heartily the work of the Iowa delegation in the recent session. It is most gratifying to know that their influence was exerted in behalf of legislation which will protect the health of our people and maintain equality of opportunity upon our commercial highways.

* * *

Cummins Indorsed.

The courageous leadership and practical administration of Gov. Cummins merits our unqualified approval, and we appreciate the honor conferred upon our party by him and other State officials who have given exceptional service to our people. In all the departments of State the highest degree of efficiency has prevailed and fidelity to public service is everywhere manifest. It is gratifying to know that with a tax levy for State purposes by no means burdensome and with generous support to all public obligations, the State is free from debt and with ample funds for current needs.

The Republican party has always stood for the enlarged participation of the individual voter in public affairs. To this end we pledge ourselves and our party in this State to the enactment of a wise and judicious primary election law which will provide for the nomination by direct vote of all candidates for office to be filled at the general election and an expression of party preference in the selection of United States Senators.

We are unalterably opposed to the domination of corporate influences in public affairs. We favor the enactment of stringent statutes to purge the politics of our State and nation from the corrupting influences of corporate power, and we pledge ourselves to the enactment of such laws as will render it unprofitable and unpopular for corporations to engage in politics or in any way contribute to present conditions.

* * *

Oppose the Free Pass.

The abolishment of the free pass on railways is a most important step in curbing the influence of corporations in political affairs, and we commend the Republican Legislature which has enacted a law to this end.

We are uncompromisingly in favor of the American system of protection. Duties on foreign imports should not be levied for revenue only, but should be so adjusted as to promote our domestic interests, enlarge our foreign markets, secure remunerative prices for the products of our factories and farms and maintain a supeior scale of wages and standard of living for American labor.

Wise and unselfish tariff laws maintained in the interest of the general welfare, equally opposed to foreign control and domestic monopoly, are essential to our commercial and industrial prosperity. We believe that all inequalities in the tariff schedules, which inevitably arise from changing industrial and commercial conditions, should be adjusted from time to time; and condemning without reserve all assaults upon the protective system, we favor such reasonable and timely changes as will keep the tariff in harmony with our industrial and commercial progress.

We favor the reciprocity inaugurated by Blaine, advocated by McKinley and Roosevelt, as recognized in Republican platforms and legislation.

The Republican party of Iowa appeals with confidence to the people of this State for approval of the wisdom of its policies and worth of its leaders. It is and always has been the party of patriotic statesmanship.

* * *

Auxiliary Sessions.

Since our last meeting the death of a most distinguished Iowan, the late David B. Henderson, has occurred. Resting with pride upon his works, we affectionately inscribe his name in the galaxy of our departed heroes and statesmen.

This convention sends cordial greetings to Iowa's beloved senior Senator, the Hon. W. B. Allison, deeply regretting the circumstances that deprive us of his genial presence and helpful counsels. The chairman of this convention is directed to transmit by wire the spirit of this resolution to Senator Allison at his home in Dubuque.

Ticket Completed.

The first ballot for Lieutenant Governor resulted Warren Carst, 917 1-3; L. B. Raymond, 722 2-3.

A committee was sent out to bring in Gov. Cummins and he made a brief speech, saying that the hope nearest his heart was the continued supremacy of the nRepublican party—that he would urge in the future, as in the past, the same sound principles of government for which the party had stood before the individual rights of man George D. Perkins was called for, and spoke for a few minutes. He said he now belonged to the "common people." Since manhood he had been interested in the Republican party, and to-night reenlisted in its service.

The ticket was completed as follows, all the nominations, except for Secretary of State, Treasurer and Railroad Commissioner being made by acclimation:

Secretary of State, W. C. Hayward; Auditor, B. F. Carroll; Treasurer, W. W. Morrow; Attorney General, H. W. Byers; Supreme Judges, E. McLean, J. C. Sherwin; Superintendent of Public Instruction, J. E. Riggs; Clerk of Supreme Court, J. C. Crockett; Reporter of Court, W. W. Cornwall; Railroad Commissioners, W. L. Eaton, J. D. Palmer. The convention then adjourned sine die.

MONEY POURING IN

For Republican Congressional Campaign Fund.

New York, Aug. 1.—Congressman Sherman, who is chairman of the Republican Congressional Committee, came down from Utica yesterday and formally got to work on the voluminous mail which has accumulated since he appealed through the newspapers to every Republican voter to contribute one dollar to the campaign fund. Mr. Sherman said that the result of the appeal was extremely gratifying.

HARTJE SMILES

WHEN POINTED OUT BY THE MYSTERIOUS BLONDE.

Detectives Who Rifled Tom Madine's Trunk Placed Under Arrest.

Pittsburg, Aug. 1.—Probably the most sensational incidents and testimony in the Hartje divorce case in the five weeks it has been running were brought out to-day when Alma Ross, the mysterious "blonde" who kept a rooming house, swore that Augustus Hartje and Josephine Wright frequently met at the Ross woman's house; that the Wright woman brought him there and introduced him, and said that the house at which she had been living was too public and too close to the Hartje warehouse. The Ross woman said that Hartje paid Josephine Wright's room rent thereafter. When the witness pointed out Hartje in the court room Hartje smiled.

Hartje several days ago swore that he did not know Josephine Wright and never visited her. The Wright woman swore that she did not know Hartje. This was when Hartje's attorneys were introducing evidence in rebuttal.

The issue as to the disputed love letters in the divorce case was defined to-day when Tom Madine, the coachman who is named as co-respondent in the case, swore that the letters which the private detective said were taken from his trunk never were in that receptacle.

Mrs. Hartje swore she wrote only two letters to Susie Wagner and denied telling Blanche Ashby what testimony she should give.

Detectives H. G. Staubb and John A. Anderson, who testified that they took the famous "love letters" from Tom Madine's trunk, were arrested at the Courthouse on information sworn out by Madine before Alderman F. M. King, charging them with entering a building with intent to commit a felony and larceny. They were later released on bonds of $2,000 each, furnished by Attorney Edward Hartje, a brother of Augustus Hartje.

The hearing of the case of Augustus Hartje, J. L. Welshons and Clifford Hooe on a charge of conspiracy growing out of the divorce case was set for to-day, but District Attorney Robb again asked a postponement, and Alderman King decided to wait until after the divorce case is concluded.

Just before the adjournment of the Hartje trial to-day Frederick Long, a newspaper man, testified that Attorney Marron, of Hartje's counsel, told him in February of a number of letters in possession of Hartje's lawyers. This was also some months before Madine's trunk was broken open. Attorney Marron became angered at Long's testimony and threatened the newspaper man with violence after court adjourned. Marron is expected to go on the stand to-morrow.

STRANGE HINT OF MURDER

Mysterious Woman Says She Killed Man.

Wild Ride Through Kentucky and Indiana.

Heavily Armed and Surrounded by Dogs.

ILL AT LAST FROM EXPOSURE.

After having ridden a sorrel pony for weeks over the wilder portions of Kentucky and Indiana, a mysterious woman, who gives her name as Jean Audley, is now an inmate of the Harrison county, Ind., poorhouse. During her tour on horseback she carried an army carbine slung over the bow of her saddle, and about her waist she had strapped two revolvers. She carried with her a full camping outfit, including coffeepot and frying pan. Her only companions were half a score of mongrel dogs of all sizes and breeds. To Andrew Stonecipher, keeper of the almshouse, she volunteered the information that her home is in the Cumberland mountains and that several months ago she killed a man near Cumberland Gap. She is about forty years old, of medium height and dark complexion.

Rode At Breakneck Speed.

Several months ago a woman answering the description of Jean Audley attracted the attention of people living in the mountainous district of Eastern Kentucky. At that time she was described as being beautiful. She rode a spirited pony at breakneck speed, taking the high jumps with an air of unconcern. She was followed by a score of dogs, and was never seen without her rifle and a brace of revolvers.

As a rule she wore her hair unconfined, and as she dashed through the rural districts, past farm houses and through small villages she attracted much attention. Stories of the strange wild woman, her pack of dogs and pony reached the newspapers, but so impossible did they appear that many editors cast them into the waste basket. Since then she has ridden from place to place until finally she became exhausted.

The mysterious woman made her first appearance in Indiana a few weeks ago. She was seen at Mauckport, Harrison county, having crossed the Ohio river from Brandenburg, Ky. She spent most of her time riding through the woods. It was seldom that she stopped at a farm house, and then only long enough to secure food for herself and pony. She prepared most of her meals over a camp fire, and seemed to shun people.

Camped In Lonely Places.

At night she would pitch her tent in some lonely spot, and on one occasion she was arrested for vagrancy. She was presented in court, paid her fine and again resumed her wild mode of living.

Last Saturday night the "beautiful maniac," as she was often referred to early in her roving career, stopped at the farm house of Charles Lang, in Harrison county, near Corydon, Ind. Her pony was ready to drop from exhaustion, and the pack of dogs that followed at the broncho's heels presented a sorry sight. The woman's hair was a mass of tangles, and her face was weatherbeaten. Her clothing was worn and tattered from contact with briars and from exposure to the weather. She requested a place to stay for the night, and Mr. Lang gave her lodging.

Early on the following morning Mr. Lang and members of his household were awakened by calls for help, echoing from a nearby field. Attiring himself Mr. Lang went out to investigate, and found the woman he had taken in the night before lying in a hay stack. She was fully dressed and apparently ill.

Faints From Illness.

At the approach of Mr. Lang she attempted to rise to her feet and walk away, but fell. Mr. Lang secured assistance from members of his household, and the woman was carried into the house and placed on a bed. She was cared for by Mrs. Lang until Monday, when Lee Hottell, Trustee of Scott township, was notified. The woman was without funds, and he ordered her removed to the Asylum for the Poor.

Mystery, that seems almost unfathomable, surrounds the woman. At times she talks freely, and again she becomes secretive, and no amount of argument will break down her reserve. It was during one of her talkative moods that she told Mr. Stonecipher that her home was in the Cumberland mountains near the boundary line between Kentucky and Tennessee, and

FRAUD ORDER

Issued Against G. W. Mason, of Latonia.

CHARGED WITH OPERATING GAMBLING SCHEME.

NAME USED SAID TO BE FICTITIOUS ONE.

INTERNAL REVENUE REPORT.

Washington, Aug. 1.—[Special.]—The Post-office Department to-day sent out a fraud order against G. W. Mason, of Latonia, Ky., charged with running a gambling scheme at 25 per cent. commission. The plan was, it is stated at the department, decided by Assistant Attorney General R. M. Webster to be a lottery. The case was looked into by Inspector Doranson, of Cincinnati, who reported that "Mason" was a fictitious name, the real culprit, as he said, being E. E. Harriman, who was arrested July 16. It is charged that he was in this business for years near Covington under different names as follows: "Dr. Cooper," "Dickson & Co.," "Grannon & Co.," and "F. W. Ellison." It is said that Harriman is held in bond for $1,000 and will have to stand trial.

Revenue Collections.

Mr. Williams, acting Commissioner of Internal Revenue, has given out a partial report for the fiscal year. As to Kentucky it states that the collections were $24,469,083.68. Illinois, Indiana and New York only had greater collections. In Kentucky the collections by districts were as follows: Second, $2,286,947.11; Fifth, $13,101,041.15; Sixth, $3,481,593.90; Seventh, $2,942,181.24; Eighth, $2,657,-320.28.

Lively Contest.

A contest is going on for a place on the Pension Examining Board at Beattyville, Ky. Until Commissioner Yerkes, of the Internal Revenue Bureau, returns from Europe a decision may not be rendered. The applicants are said to be Dr. Lucien Treadway and Dr. A. B. Hoskins. Many letters are coming in in favor of each candidate for the position.

Surprise To Alexandria.

A special from Alexandria, Va., says: "For the first time in the history of Alexandria a negro was to-day seen on the streets in the uniform of a postman delivering letters to the residents of the city. Yesterday Edward Power, who for some time has been substitute letter-carrier, tendered his resignation to Postmaster Burroughs and it was accepted. The highest on the list of those eligible to the position left vacant by the resignation of Mr. Power was a negro named Arnold, who secured the appointment. This morning he appeared on the streets in company with another letter-carrier, learning the routes."

Suter, Louisville, toilet attachment for chairs.

MAN FROM FLORIDA CHARGES PEONAGE.

Escaped From Camp When Guards Were Asleep and Went To Baltimore.

New York, Aug. 1.—Another man returned from Florida to the lower East Side yesterday with a story of peonage in Florida and another letter has been received from a man there begging aid. There are still fifty immigrants, who are known to have started for the Florida camps within the last six months, who have not been heard of since.

David Krill, who lived with his sister, Mrs. Jennie Abramowitz, came home after an absence in Florida of seven weeks. When he left this city for the turpentine camps he was in good health. When he came home yesterday his sister did not recognize him, and attempted to drive him out of her flat. His back was black and blue, and still marked with deep red scars where he said he had been whipped.

He had been taken to Jacksonville, he said, and from there to Maton. He was then carried to a camp in the woods, where there were huts and negro guards. At the end of two weeks, he said, he found that he owed the company twenty-four dollars above his promised twelve dollars a week. He was still strong and decided to escape. He ran away one night, and in the morning found that he was lost. Later in the day he was recaptured and beaten.

The next morning while he was at work in the swamp one of those with whom he had shared the company stores slipped $30 to him, which he said he had kept hidden in a boot. This man did not dare to escape, but he begged Krill to take the money and if possible get North, so as to tell of the horrors of the slave camp. That night, when he saw that the guards were asleep, Krill slipped through the lines and managed to reach a city. He worked his way as far as Baltimore, and from there walked to his sister's home in this city.

Mrs. Bernard Klut, of 292 Cherry street, received the following letter yesterday from her son, dated Mobile, Ala.: "I do not dare to give the exact place where I am. This is written at night and forwarded by a friend in greater danger than I am in. If he should be caught with it he would be killed as a hog, as others have been. I escaped and walked 100 miles in four days, when I was found and brought back and beaten."

ARRANGEMENTS MADE FOR MANEUVERS.

Camp of Instruction For the Department of the Lakes.

Fort Benjamin Harrison, Near Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 1.—With the arrival of the Twenty-seventh United States Infantry regiment from Fort Sheridan to-day, the camp of instruction for the troops of the United States Army in the Department of the Lakes, commanded by Brig. Gen. William H. Carter, was organized and final arrangements for the summer maneuvers were completed in detail.

The Michigan National Guard will arrive August 5, to remain one week. The Indiana National Guard will reach camp August 12, and will also maneuver with the regulars for ten days. The Second Illinois regiment and the Second Wisconsin regiment, National Guard, will come later.

In camp are the Twenty-seventh United States Infantry, the Twenty-eighth United States Infantry, the Third squadron of the Second United States Cavalry, the Fourteenth and Twenty-first United States Batteries, field artillery, composing the Tenth Battalion, two battalions of the Fourth United States Signal Corps and a detachment of the United States Hospital Corps.

The Michigan National Guard will consist of three regiments of infantry, one battery of artillery, one troop of cavalry, and one company each of the signal corps, the hospital corps and the engineer corps. Brig. Gen. Charles W. Harrah will be in command.

Immediately after the arrival of the Michigan troops, Brig. Gen. Carter will begin the work of instruction as fixed in the schedule prepared by the general staff. All officers, who have been assigned here for duty as umpires and instructors, will have arrived by that time.

MENZIES NAMED.

NOMINEE FOR CONGRESS IN THE FIRST INDIANA DISTRICT.

Democratic Party Pledged Not To Use One Dollar For Corrupting Purposes.

Evansville, Ind., Aug. 1.—[Special.]—The Democrats of the First congressional district met at Petersburg, Ind., at 2 o'clock this afternoon, and nominated Maj. G. V. Menzies, of Mt. Vernon, for Congress. The nomination was made by acclamation. The meeting was held in the fair grounds and it is estimated that from 10,000 to 12,000 people attended. The presiding officer of the convention was Mayor John W. Boehne, of Evansville, who said that he believed the tide had turned and the Democrats would sweep the country in the Congressional elections this fall. Maj. Menzies in accepting the nomination, scored the Republican party as being incompetent, and said that with a Democratic Congress next year the people would get the necessary relief from the trusts.

A special train for the convention left this city at 11 o'clock this morning and carried nearly 1,000 people. The resolutions declare for a clean campaign and pledge the party not to use a dollar in the campaign this fall for corrupting purposes. No reference was made in the resolutions to State or National issues.

For Joint Senator from Vanderburg, Warrick and Spencer counties, Thomas E. Chrisney, of Chrisney, Ind., was nominated and W. J. Rogers, of this city, was named as Joint Representative, from Vanderburg, Gibson and Knox counties.

The convention was the largest ever held in the First district.

ZINC AND LEAD FOUND IN WARREN.

Acre of Metal Discovered On One Farm Near Bowling Green.

[Bowling Green Times-Journal.]

S. T. Romans, who resides on a small far mnear Hadley, has discovered on his farm near Hadley, has discovered on his thought by local experts to be a fine proof of lead and zinc.

Mr. Romans has forwarded samples to Lexington and Washington, where they will be passed on by Government experts, and their opinion will be awaited with much interest. There are hundreds of acres of land containing mineral deposits in this and adjoining counties, and it has been the opinion of men who have given much thought and study to the subject that we have fortunes buried beneath the ground right at our very door. If the discovery made by Mr. Romans proves to be as rich as now anticipated, it will no doubt induce capital to come into this section to develop lands that we are sure are laden with mineral deposits.

PORT OF NEW ORLEANS

Will Become One of World's Greatest, Says Mr. Harahan.

Chicago, Aug. 1.—"New Orleans is destined to be one of the world's greatest ports. In a comparatively short time it will be the place of entry for not only the South, but the great Mississippi valley, the far West and even the Pacific coast."

This was the prediction made by J. T. Harahan, vice president of the Illinois Central railroad, who returned to-day from a two months' tour of Europe in the interest of the port of New Orleans.

Continuing, Mr. Harahan said:

"While foreigners, particularly the British, do not like our tariff, they recognize our greatness and make the best of conditions. I found in Liverpool, London, Glasgow and Paris that New Orleans was becoming known as one of our best ports, the docking facilities being particularly popular. Liverpool, London, Belfast, Glasgow, Havre, Hamburg, Venice, and in fact every port of importance now has regular lines of first-class boats in the New Orleans service."

MOVE AGAINST ICE COMBINE IN MEMPHIS.

Memphis, Tenn., Aug. 1.—J. W. Minor, a retail ice dealer, has asked the Chancery Court for a mandatory order requiring four ice companies doing business here to sell him ice. He charges that the Bohlen-Huse Ice Company, the Tennessee Ice Company, the Consumers' Ice Company and the Broadway Coal and Ice Company have unlawfully entered into an agreement as to prices. Mr. Minor says that the four companies refused to sell him ice.

EXPECT DELAY

In Cases of Murderers of Mrs. Broughton.

JOHN PRESTON SHOOTS HIS FATHER-IN-LAW.

COL. HAMILTON ROBBED AT MT. STERLING.

ARREST THE GUILTY MAN.

Barbourville, Ky., Aug. 1.—[Special.]—A delay now seems probable in the trials of Jesse Fitzpatrick and Annie Henson, the negro murderers of Mrs. Robert Broughton. The Knox county courthouse is undergoing a remodeling and is in no condition for use, and no suitable place for conducting the trials has been found. The authorities are anxious to try the defendants at the earliest possible moment, under legal restrictions, and a speedy trial is demanded by both races.

A definite order was made to-day for two companies of State guards and a gatling gun squad to be used in protecting the negroes when they are brought back from Stafford, where it was thought necessary to take them last week for safe keeping. A special term of court will begin Monday, and the trial will be carried out if a suitable place is found. The prisoners will be met at Stanford by the militia and will be under guard here to prevent their being taken by force from the jail and mobbed. The sentiment seems to be in favor of a fair trial, and the authorities are determined to give one. However, the indignation of the people may know no restraint and upon any delay in conducting the trials the miners and others may attempt to take the law into their own hands.

Next week Fitzpatrick and the Henson woman will be indicted, both as principal and accessory. The jury will be summoned about Tuesday or Wednesday and a speedy trial given. Both prisoners have made confessions.

In view of the bloodthirstiness of the crime, which has no parallel in this part of the State, the bearing of the majority of the people is regarded as admirable.

The local company of State guards will be used as a reserve and will not be placed on duty next week unless necessary.

BAPTISTS AT OWENSBORO.

Meeting In Conjunction With the Seven Hills Chautauqua Assembly.

Owensboro, Ky., Aug. 1.—[Special.]—The annual encampment of Kentucky Baptists, under the auspices of the State convention of the Baptist Young People's Union opened auspiciously in connection with the Seven Hills Chautauqua assembly to-day. Members of the Baptist denomination are here from every part of the State, and it is believed that by to-morrow more than 1,000 will be camped on the Chautauqua grounds. The feature of to-day's programme was an address by Dr. Russell H. Conwell, of Philadelphia. He was greeted by an audience of 2,500 people. Prof. W. Owen Carver, of Louisville, was the first speaker at the morning session. His subject, "The New Kentucky," was ably handled. Rev. J. S. Dill, of Bowling Green, spoke on "Loyalty to Our Country." He said there are great internal dangers in the country and enumerated undesirable foreign immigration, the liquor traffic, the spirit of commercialism, lawlessness and lack of pure religion. "Loyalty to the World" was the subject of the closing address made by Dr. R. J. Willingham, corresponding secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions of the Southern Baptist convention. Several distinguished visitors arrived to-day, among them the Rev. John W. Low, missionary to China, and Rev. George F. Hambleton, missionary to Japan. Dr. Conwell, the Rev. E. Y. Mullins and the Rev. J. N. Prestridge are on the programme for to-morrow. Dr. A. C. Dixon, of Boston, will deliver an address Friday.

Sue Late Master Commissioner.

Cadiz, Ky., Aug. 1.—[Special.]—Two important suits have been filed in the Trigg Circuit Court, which will be of much interest not only to the people of this county, but to the western part of the State. The most important of these is A. C. Burnett, Master Commissioner of this county, Mrs. V. K. Blakeley and others, plaintiffs, against John W. Kelly, late Master Commissioner of this county. The United States Fidelity and Guaranty Company, his sureties, and John W. Kelly, defendants. Mr. Kelly was Master Commissioner of this county under appointment of Judge Thomas P. Cook, Circuit Judge, from February, 1898, to last February, when Circuit Clerk A. C. Burnett was appointed to succeed him. During this time there was the Blakley estate, his trust, and the plaintiffs in this suit ask a balance of $4,865, which they claim Mr. Kelly failed to turn over to his successor, Mr. Burnett.

The other suit is the Cobb Storage Company, of Cobb, Caldwell county, plaintiffs, against Mr. N. E. Nabb, of this county. The plaintiffs sue for $300. They set up in their petition that they had rented the Turner tobacco factory at Cerulean Springs for this year, but sub-rented it to Mr. Nabb for $150 to be used as a prizing house for the handling of the association tobacco, and that in their contract Mr. Nabb was to ship all the tobacco he prized to their storage house at Cobb, to be stored. They claim that instead of doing this, Mr. Nabb has opened a storage house himself at Cerulean and is storing his own tobacco. Hence they are now suing him for the $150 rent, which they claim he has not paid, and $150 damages for not complying with his contract in shipping this tobacco to them for storage.

Danville Fair.

Danville, Ky., Aug. 1.—[Special.]—The Danville Fair opened this morning with the largest first-day attendance in the history of the association. A delegation 500 strong came from Lexington with a brass band and incidentally advertised the Bluegrass Fair to be held there. Secretary George A. Bain made a speech, which was greeted with great applause. He said that politics great applause. The Lexington delegation was headed by Mayor Thomas Combs and members of the police force, accompanied by Saxon's Military Band and the famous Lexington Drum Corps and Glee Club. Senator James B. McCreary will speak at the Fair grounds to-morrow and a great crowd is expected. This is decidedly a Mc- is expected.

Baptists' Association.

Mt. Sterling, Ky., August 1.—The 109th session of Bracken Association of Baptists began here to-day with the Rev. C. H. Bolinger, of Lewis county, as moderator, Dr. J. J. Taylor, Georgetown; the Rev. J. C. Holmes, of Augusta, and Dr. W. P. Harvey, of Louisville, conducting devotional services. The welcome address was delivered by the Rev. J. R. Hobbs and the response by Dr. Harvey. The Rev. F. P. Gates, of Mt. Olivet, delivered the association sermon. The afternoon was taken up by reports of various churches, twenty-three in number. They were shown to be in excellent condition, with a membership of over 3,000, while the Sunday-schools have 1,100 scholars on enrollment. A special service was held for Dr. Keys, an old man of the association. The Women's Missionary Board of the association will hold their meeting at the Christian church to-morrow.

Col. Hamilton Robbed.

Mt. Sterling, Ky., Aug. 1.—[Special.]—Burglars entered the room of Col. A. W. Hamilton, the racing judge, at Williams home, near Ewington, this morning, and after covering him with his own pistol the burglar secured Hamilton's pocketbook, containing about $85, split-second watch, pistol and other valuables. The burglary was one of the boldest ever accomplished here. Officers at once began work on the case and this evening they arrested three men as suspects. When searched the money and watch were recovered, but the pistol had been disposed of to Mike Holland, a saloonkeeper. Col. Hamilton went to the jail and identified one of the men as the one in his room. The men refuse to talk and have separate cells in the jail. They are believed to be professionals.

Deaths At Richmond.

Richmond, Ky., Aug. 1.—[Special.]—Joel W. Embry, one of the most widely known farmers in this section of the State, died last night at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Mat Arbuckle, near Kirksville, this county. Mr. Embry was sixty-five years of age. He had just returned from a ride on horseback over the farm when he was taken ill and died in a few minutes. His widow, who was Miss Evans, of this place, and one daughter, Mrs. Mat Arbuckle, wife of the well-known saddle horse breeder, survive.

C. L. Creekmore, aged eighty-four, one of the oldest residents of the city, died last night after a long illness. He is survived by his widow, who was a Miss Ross, of Whitley county.

Charged With Rebating.

Henderson, Ky., Aug. 1.—[Special.]—Two civil suits were filed to-day by Commonwealth Attorney S. V. Dixon and County Attorney N. Powell Taylor, one against the Commonwealth Life Insurance Company and H. C. Semple, and the other against W. B. Ware, D. W. Hilton and the Michigan Mutual Life Insurance Company, alleging that these companies through agents were guilty of rebating. This is the first civil action against an insurance company for rebating in Henderson.

Henry Ellis Dead.

Lagrange, Ky., Aug. 1.—[Special.]—Mr. Henry Ellis, a prominent farmer and stock trader of this county, died at 11:15 o'clock this morning. Mr. Ellis had been ill about six days and was thought to be on the road to recovery when heart trouble set in. He was very active in politics, being a Democrat. Mr. Ellis was fifty-seven years of age. He is survived by a widow, formerly Miss Josie Swinney, and four sons, David, Ottis, Marvin and Thomas Ellis.

Killed His Father-In-Law.

Lancaster, Ky., Aug. 1.—[Special.]—John Preston shot and killed his father-in-law, Kemper Broughton, shooting him once with a rifle through the left lung and through the hand, at King's Hill. Broughton was a Mercer county man and is survived by a wife and several children. He was forty-three years of age. Family trouble is said to be the cause of the difficulty. Preston came to town and gave himself up and is now in the Garrard county jail.

Mrs. Ellen Ray Byrne Dead.

Russellville, Ky., Aug. 1.—Mrs. Ellen Ray Byrne, widow of Dr. W. J. Byrne, died this morning. She was seventy-eight years of age and the mother of Dr. Walter Byrne and A. P. Byrne and the aunt of John S. Rhea.

MORE COMPLAINTS.

AMERICANS BADLY TREATED IN ISLE OF PINES.

Two Men Reach New Orleans With Messages For Senator Morgan, of Alabama.

New Orleans, Aug. 1.—Additional complaints about alleged ill-treatment of Americans on the Isle of Pines were received here to-day upon the landing of J. A. Miller and J. J. Symes, two American residents of the island. The fact that they are bearers of messages to Senator John T. Morgan, of Alabama, concerning the treatment of Miss Millie Brown during her recent imprisonment on the Isle of Pines, has already been announced. They are also bearers of a statement by William Taylor, an American resident of the Isle of Pines, who says that recently he stationed his two small sons in his watermelon patch to guard it against thieves. The boys fired a rifle in the air when three natives entered the patch, and Mr. Taylor appeared with a club and drove them out. For this he was arrested, being kept in jail four days before being given a hearing. The Judge who heard the charges immediately set Taylor free, but a few days later he was rearrested and imprisoned again for four hours. He was then informeed that the three natives whom he accused of having entered the melon patch "had successfully proven" that Taylor held them up and attempted to rob them on the occasion in question. Cash bail of $300 was furnished by Taylor's friends to secure his release, and at present he is waiting trial next autumn.

Mr. Symes said that in another case $600 cash bail had been furnished by Americans three years ago, and that this case has not been tried yet. He said that two weeks ago W. H. Van Voorhes, an American who had built a half ton sailboat, had been informed by the Cuban authorities after the boat's completion that he would not be allowed to use it.

WILL NOT MARRY SAYS WILLIAM COREY.

Says Stories That Miss Gilman Will Become His Wife Are Untrue.

New York, Aug. 1.—William Ellis Corey took occasion to emphatically deny the report that he intended marrying Mabelle Gilman, now that his wife has secured a divorce.

Mr. Corey, when seen shortly after the announcement of the resumption of the dividend on Steel common, was in an unusually good humor.

"Now," he said, in response to a question, "you may say for me that this story that I am to marry Miss Gilman is ridiculous, simply ridiculous. Isn't that enough to say? Ridiculous—and that is all I can say about it."

Word that Mrs. Corey had secured a divorce from her husband in Reno, Nev., was cabled to the actress, who is studying music in Paris, and it was reported that all arrangements had been made by Miss Gilman for an immediate return to the United States in the event of the suit reaching a termination favorable to Mr. Corey.

Had Mr. Corey been a prominent actor or a theatrical manager his divorce could not have caused more comment along the Rialto. Miss Gilman has been absent from the city for some months, but report has it that she will be here in time to see some of the openings of the new theatrical season.

In spite of Corey's denial friends of the actress are speculating freely as to whether she and Corey will eventually marry.

SEWER BONDS.

Phoenix National Bank Successful Bidder.

HIGHEST PRICE DURING MAYOR COMBS' TERM.

NEWS OF A WEDDING REVEALED AT LEXINGTON.

MILLION-PARSONS NUPTIALS.

Lexington, Ky., Aug. 1.—The Phoenix National Bank of this city was the successful bidder for the $25,000 issue of 4 per cent. city sewer bonds, bids for which were opened by Mayor Combs to-day. The price offered was $105.21, a premium of $5.21 on each $100. This is the highest figure paid for Lexington city bonds during Mayor Comb's administration. There were five bids. Besides the Phoenix National's, the other bids were as follows: Fayette National Bank $105.19, First National Bank $104; Security Trust and Safety Vault Company, $100.20; Seasongood & Mayer, Cincinnati, O., $101.29. All the bids except the one from Cincinnati were from Lexington institutions. This was the second issue of the $100,000 of city sewer bonds authorized by a popular vote at the general election of November 8, 1904, for the construction of a sewerage system for Lexington. The bonds are of the denomination of $1,000, drawing interest at 4 per cent. for forty years. The first issue was for $50,000, and was sold for a smaller premium than that of to-day.

Married At Lexington.

Miss Isabel Million, of Richmond, Ky., and S. M. Parsons, of Weatherford, Tex., were quietly married to-day in the parlors of the Phoenix Hotel, by the Rev. J. J. Spencer. The attendants were Mrs. Florida Parrish and Green Million, of Richmond. The couple will leave to-morrow for Atlantic City. The bride is a member of a prominent family in Madison county, and the groom is a successful young business man of Weatherford, where the couple will make their home.

Their Secret Out.

A romance which had been carefully hidden until the principals chose to reveal it was brought to light to-day, when a popular young woman who was formerly a resident of Lexington and who is now on a visit here, acknowledged that she was no longer Miss Sibyl Wilson, but since April 4, had been Mrs. Oliver C. Stauffer, and that her husband is now coming from California to Kentucky, and will arrive in Lexington in a few days. Mrs. Stauffer about six years ago entered the profession of an army nurse. She saw service in Cuba, was in Mexico, and was with the United States army for two years in the Philippines. She returned from there a year ago to San Francisco, and left that city for Lexington, about a week before the earthquake. She was married in San Francisco to Mr. Stauffer, but had not intended to announce her marriage until he arrived in Kentucky. Mr. Stauffer was in the fruit business in San Francisco, but since the earthquake he has decided to move to Cincinnati where he and his wife will soon make their home. Mrs. Stauffer is now visiting her sister, Mrs. J. A. Risgue, of this city.

Has Appendicitis.

Hugh G. McElwaine, a well-known young horseman of this city, is critically ill of appendicitis, at the home of his father-in-law, J. W. Boles, of North Broadway.

An operation was suggested, but it was found that his physical condition would not permit it, and it has been found necessary to resort to other expedients. Mr. McElwaine was formerly a resident of Bowling Green, but came to Lexington several years ago, and has been associated in the horse business with J. W. Boles, former Sheriff of Madison county, whose daughter he married.

Contract For Building.

W. E. Barron, of this city, has let the contract for the erection of a new building on the lot at 164 East Main street, opposite the post-office. The structure will be on the site of the old building occupied for many years, and until very recently, by J. Hub Prather's book store and newspaper agency. The proposed building will be 17x53 feet, and will be three stories high, and constructed of brick. The first floor will be occupied by Fred Spotswood as a book store, and the upper floors will be used for office rooms.

Lexington Notes.

Mrs. Minnie D. Cutter died this morning at the home of her brother, J. W. Drake, four miles from Lexington on the Stone road. She is survived by a daughter, Dorothy, who is nine years old.

Articles of incorporation of the Bluegrass Fair Association were filed yesterday afternoon; the capital stock is fixed at $25,000, divided into 2,500 shares at $10 each. The incorporators are thirty-one business men and companies, who subscribed 425 shares which represents the paid up stock in the corporation at the time of filing. The largest subscriber is the Lexington Brewing Company, which takes 100 shares.

CONCORDIA SINGING SOCIETY JUBILEE.

Will Hold Big Celebration At Phoenix Hill Beginning Sunday.

The Concordia Singing Society is completing arrangements for its golden jubilee, which will be a three-days' celebration, beginning Sunday, and continuing until Tuesday. The big day of the three is to be Monday, when two performances will be held at Phoenix Hill Park, one in the afternoon and the other at night. A group picture of the society, in the center of which is Urban Stengel, veteran member, has been placed on exhibition. He is surrounded by the sixty-four of his fellow singers who will participate with him in the celebration.

AGAINST ROOF

Man Crushed to Death In Elevator Shaft.

FRANK M. HONNAKER KILLED AT GALT HOUSE.

WAS OILING MACHINERY ON TOP OF LIFT.

WOMAN TRIES TO WARN HIM.

A shriek of agony startled the guests and employes of the Galt House as it echoed in the elevator shaft and reverberated through the spacious corridors, shortly after 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon. It was the last sound made by Frank M. Honnaker, assistant engineer of the hotel, who was crushed to death in a horrible manner between the top of the east passenger elevator and the roof of the building. The cry issued from his lips just before the huge life struck the iron rafters of the roof, grinding him to a lifeless pulp.

Mr. Honnaker was engaged in oiling the lifting apparatus on the top of the elevator as it rose slowly from the basement under the guidance of Walter Robinson, the elevator man. As the car neared the fifth story, a woman guest of the hotel stood near the entrance to the elevator shaft on that floor. Believing that Mr. Honnaker was unconscious of the danger that threatened him, she called out, telling him to shift to the other side of the elevator. He apparently did not heed the warning, for a moment later the lift struck the roof and he was killed. Mr. Honnaker, according to the hotel management, easily could have saved himself, owing to the construction of the roof of the elevator shaft, one-half of which directly over the shaft is open.

Mr. Honnaker, however, was on the wrong side of the elevator, and his body struck the enclosed portion of the roof. It was said at the hotel that he had oiled the elevators many times in the same manner during the two years that he had been employed there, and never had an accident before.

Upon hearing Mr. Honnaker's cry, B. G. Polk, clerk of the hotel, ran to the fifth story, and with the assistance of Robinson, the elevator man, extricated the body from its position at the top of the elevator. He determined that life was extinct, and telephoned to Press Hamilton, the Deputy Coroner, who gave the body in charge of Barrett Bros., the undertakers.

Mr. Honnaker was fifty years old, and lived at 1054 Fifth street. He is survived by a wife and his father, George Honnaker, seventy-two years old, the oldest engineer in the employ of the Louisville and Nashville railroad. The father has been a railroad engineer forty-eight years. Frank M. Honnaker had no children.

An inquest into the death will be held Saturday morning at 10 o'clock by Magistrate Frank Hoffman, acting Coroner.

SMITH AND ABNER HAVE A FIGHT.

Quarreled Over Curt Jett's Connection With the Marcum Case.

Jackson, Ky., Aug. 1.—[Special.]—When John Smith and John Abner were returned to the jail here at noon, an altercation arose between them in regard to Curt Jett's connection with the Marcum case. The dispute quickly resulted in an exchange of blows and a lively fight ensued. A fellow-prisoner called the jailer, who succeeded in separating the men after they had bruised each other's faces considerably with their fists. Besides saying that it was the first fight they had either had for a long time when they had no weapons except their fists, neither of them would say anything about the trouble between them.

PERMANENT OFFICERS FOR OLD GUARD BRYAN CLUB.

Permanent officers of the Old Guard Bryan Club of 1906, which will have a prominent part in the entertainment of William Jennings Bryan when he is in Louisville, were chosen at a meeting of the club held yesterday. Temporary officers had acted until yesterday. The Galt House was selected as the permanent headquarters of the club. The permanent officers were chosen as follows:

President, Allen R. Carter; first vice president, A. T. Burgevin; second vice president, T. P. Satterwhite, Jr.; third vice president, J. M. Chatterson; fourth vice president, Harry T. Weaver; fifth vice president, Wallace A. McKay; secretary, Clem W. Huggins; assistant secretary, Frank Coyle; treasurer, A. R. Cooper; sergeant-at-arms, Peter Cosgrove.

SALOON LICENSE INCREASED TO $1,000.

Nashville, Tenn., Aug. 1.—[Special.]—By a vote of seven to one, the Board of Mayor and Aldermen of Columbia have increased the saloon license from $250 to $1,000 a year. The change is effective January 1 next, and no saloon license can be taken out now beyond that time. The entire amount must also be paid in advance. There are now fifteen saloons in Columbia.

HANGED HIMSELF NEAR FIANCEE'S HOME.

Baltimore, Aug. 1.—Finding himself short of funds on what is said to have been the eve of his wedding, Edward Hankleman, aged twenty-two, hanged himself in a carriage shop within 200 yards of the home of his fiancee at Evergreen, near Roland Park. About $3 was found in his pocketbook.

S.S.S. DRIVES OUT RHEUMATISM

The aches and pains of Rheumatism are only symptoms which may be scattered or relieved with liniments, plasters, blisters, etc., or quieted with opiates. As soon as the treatment is left off, however, or there is any exposure to dampness, or an attack of indigestion, the nagging pains, sore muscles and tender places on the flesh return, and the sufferer finds that he has merely checked the symptoms, while the real cause remains in the system. The cause of Rheumatism is a too acid condition of the blood, brought on by indigestion, chronic constipation, weak Kidneys, and a general sluggish condition of the system. Waste matter collects in the system each day which nature intends shall be carried off, but when it is left because of a sluggish condition of the system it sours and forms uric and other acids. These are taken up by the blood and carried to all parts of the body to produce the pains and aches of Rheumatism. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism by going down into the blood and driving out the cause and making this life stream rich, pure and healthy. When the blood has been purified and built up by S. S. S. the pains and aches pass away, the muscles become soft and elastic, and Rheumatism driven from the system. Book on Rheumatism and medical advice free. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

WASHINGTON NOTES.

The monthly comparative statement of the Government receipts and expenditures shows that for the month of July, 1906, the total receipts were $52,298,852 and the expenditures $65,813,721, leaving a deficit for the month of $13,514,869, as against a deficit in August, 1905, of $13,855,663.

After a further conference yesterday, the railroad officials who have been discussing with the Interstate Commerce Commission the interpretation and enforcement of the new railroad rate law, adjourned their meeting.

Gen. Lee, commander of the American forces on the Island of Leyte, has telegraphed that he has 500 regular troops, besides a number of scouts and constabulary, ready to begin a movement to round up the rebellious Pulajanes.

President Roosevelt has appointed Fred Morris Dearing, of Missouri, as Second Secretary of the American Legation at Havana, Cuba.

Secretary Wilson left yesterday to pay a surprise visit of inspection to several slaughtering and packing-houses in the East.

The monthly statement of the public debt shows that at the close of business July 31, 1906, the debt, less cash in the Treasury, amounted to $973,896,[illegible] which is an increase for the month of $[illegible],241,114.

Prof. A. H. Thompson, of the United States Geological Survey, died Tuesday night, aged sixty-seven years. He was a noted geographer.

A protest against the return to the Philippines of Capt. D. J. Baker of the Twenty-sixth Infantry, an assistant director of the Philippine Constabulary, was published yesterday by a Filipino newspaper. Capt. Baker is now on leave of absence in the United States.

The State Department has r[illegible]d the following dispatch from Ambassador Thompson at the City of Mexico: "You will please cause the Associated Press to say that the numerous statements in American papers relative to an uprising of Mexicans against foreigners in Mexico, September 16, is without foundation so far as is discoverable in Mexico, where seemingly all said of such an uprising comes from reading American papers received in this city."

Wednesday's statement of Treasury balances in the general fund exclusive of the $150,000,000 gold reserve shows: Available cash balance, $169,963,942; gold coin and bullion, $105,641,964; gold certificates, $34,671,490.

President Roosevelt has ordered that the instruction of jiu jitsu, the Japanese are of self-defense, be continued at the United States Naval Academy for another year.

LORD SHALTO

FALLS INTO CLUTCHES OF ZEALOUS OFFICIALS.

They Thought He Was a Bigamist Who Is Wanted In Many States.

Portland, Me., Aug. 1.—Instead of having in custody an American bigamist known as "Lord Douglas," wanted by the authorities of many States, as was first supposed, the Portland police, it is thought, have detained Lord Sholto Douglas, third son of the late Marquis of Queensberry.

Several days ago a Portland detective was required by the police of Asheville, N. C., to arrest a man who rented a cottage on the shore of Sebago Lake in May. The officer went to the lake yesterday and detained a man known at the lake resorts as S. G. Douglas. The Asheville police were notified of the detention of the man, but the local authorities suspected from the first that a mistake had been made and they refrained from making public the occurrence.

The suspect regarded the arrest humorously, and told the officers who called on him that he was Lord Sholto George Douglas. With him were two persons who, he said, were Lady Douglas and their son. So convincing was his story that the local police notified the Asheville police to-day that in their opinion the man was what he claimed to be and advised his release.

A firm of bankers in Portland stated to-day that the man detained at Sebago is really Lord Sholto Douglas.

To-night the police sent a cablegram to Scotland Yards, London, asking for information. If the reply, which is expected to-morrow is favorable to the man under detention, he will be released.

MANGLED BY TRAINS.

BODY OF MAN FOUND ON I. C. TRACKS.

Well Dressed and Shirt Bears Name of F. T. Stevenson.

The body of an unknown man, supposed to be F. T. Stevenson, was found lying on the tracks of the Illinois Central railroad, in their yards at Thirteenth and Rowan streets, shortly after 10 o'clock last night, by a fireman. On examination, it was found that the man had been cut almost in two at the waist, and it is thought that three locomotives and thirteen cars, which passed that spot a few minutes before, had passed over him.

James Hart, the engineer of yard locomotive No. 178, and Charles Kluesner, the fireman, were the first to see the body. They were following freight train No. 1564, with thirteen cars attached, and as they were passing the spot one of them noticed the body. It was too late to stop, according to several of the switchmen, and after the engine had passed over the body it was stopped and the remains were taken up.

Magistrate Edward O'Connor, Acting Coroner, was called, and he gave permission for the body to be removed to the undertaking establishment of Dougherty & McElliott, at Thirteenth and Market streets. After an examination of the clothing the name "F. T. Stevenson" and the marks "F. M., 1448," were found on the shirt.

He was apparently about twenty-four years of age, and well dressed. He wore a black coat, light trousers, low-cut brown shoes, and a stiff black hat. A small sum of money was found in his clothes, but there were no papers that might lead to his identification.

It is said that he was aboard the I. C. train, bound for Memphis, that left the Seventh-street station a few minutes earlier, and that he fell off and was run over by that train. Freight train No. 1564 followed a minute later, and behind it was engine No. 178, and it is supposed that all three of the locomotives ran over him.

A number of people viewed the body, but no one was able to identify it. The name F. T. Stevenson does not appear in the Louisville directory, and it is said that he may have been a visitor to the city who was returning home.

BUFFALO

DECIDED UPON AS PLACE FOR DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

No Test Vote But the Followers of Hearst Are Jubilant.

New York, Aug. 1.—The Democratic State Committee to-day voted to hold the next State convention at Buffalo, September 25. Before the meeting of the State Committee, W. J. Conners, of Buffalo, said that the meeting of the Independence League here yesterday would not affect William R. Hearst's chances for the gubernatorial nomination by the regular State convention. "We will go ahead and nominate Mr. Hearst anyhow," said Mr. Conners. "The whole Buffalo delegation to the State convention will be instructed for Hearst. Nothing can prevent Hearst's nomination."

Norman E. Mack, of Buffalo, member of the Democratic National Committee from this State, spoke in the same way.

There was no test vote of any kind at the committee meetings. The Hearst men, however, were jubilant over the selection of Buffalo as the place for holding the convention. The programme for the meeting was arranged at a conference attended by Norman E. Mack, State Senator Patrick H. McCarren, Chas. F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, and Cord Meyer, chairman of the State Committee. Senator McCarren said:

"While it is a fact that we have agreed to hold the convention in Buffalo, yet it must not be construed to mean that I have changed in any manner with regard to Mr. Hearst and his political party. Don't make any mistake about that."

Mr. Murphy, who was standing beside Senator McCarren, said: "Nevertheless, we are going to meet in Buffalo."

DR. J. E. HAYS BUYS OUCHTERLONY RESIDENCE.

Handsome Fourth Avenue Home Sold For $13,000.

The handsome home of the late Dr. J. A. Ouchterlony at 1045 Fourth avenue has been purchased by Dr. John Edwin Hays, at a cost of $13,000. The property was sold by R. E. Miller.

Built during the eighties by the late John Mason Brown, the house is said to have cost $30,000. It is a magnificent three-story white-stone-front structure, occupying a lot sixty by two hundred feet.

SCENE OF RECENT TERRIFIC EXPLOSION AT VINCENNES, IND.

Remains of boiler-house after the explosion of the third of a battery of eight boilers at the Vincennes (Ind.) Paper Mills last Monday. The building is a wreck, and represents a loss of $25,000. Other losses in surrounding territory swell the total to something over $50,000. The explosion killed two men outright, and injured twenty-one more or less seriously.

The majority report seating the Hopkins delegation was then adopted, and the call of the counties for nominations was begun.

TO RECEIVE REPORT OF SUBCOMMITTEE.

Chairman McQuown Will Issue a Call For a Meeting About September 10.

Frankfort, Ky., Aug. 1.—Chairman Lewis McQuown, of the Democratic State Central and Executive Committees, will within the next day or two issue a call for a meeting of the Executive Committee, to be held about August 10, for the purpose of receiving the report of the subcommittee as to details and expense of holding the primary election this fall to nominate candidates for State offices.

Judge McQuown said to-night the papers were in error in publishing that the State Executive Committee would meet in Louisville on August 6 next, that he had not fixed that day for a meeting. Committeeman G. W. Roark, of the subcommittee, who came here last night for a conference with Chairman McQuown and Secretary Ayres relative to the report to be made by the subcommittee to the Executive Committee, returned to his home to-day. He will return here on Monday of next week, when the report of the subcommittee will probably be prepared. Sufficient information has not yet been received for the compiling of the report of the subcommittee.

Judge McQuown has accepted an invitation to serve on the Reception Committtee for the Bryan demonstration in New York City, and will leave here about August 15 for New York. He will be accompanied by Mrs. McQuown.

TAKES THE OATH.

Judge Lassing Begins His Work On the Bench In September.

Frankfort, Ky., Aug. 1.—[Special.]—Judge John M. Lassing, of Boone county, whom Gov. Beckham several weeks ago appointed to succeed Judge Thomas H. Paynter upon the bench of the Court of Appeals, took the oath of office to-day and qualified as Judge Paynter's successor. The oath was administered by Deputy Appellate Court Clerk Rodman Keenon in the office of the Clerk. Judge Lassing will take his seat upon the bench at the opening of the September term of the Court of Appeals, and will serve until his successor is elected and qualifies. Retiring Judge Paynter to-day opened an office here for the practice of the law. Judge Paynter will make his residence here while serving his six-year term in the United States Senate, which will begin on March 4 next.

Mr. Helm Speaks.

Lawrenceburg, Ky., Aug. 1.—[Special.]—The Hon. Harvey Helm, of Stanford, candidate for Congress in this district, spoke to large and enthusiastic crowds at Alton and Tyrone in this county to-day. He will speak at Shiloh and Johnsonville Thursday, and Glensboro and VanBuren Friday.

NAMES OF JURORS DRAWN IN CHICAGO.

Secret Service Operatives Will Investigate Men's History and Report To Judge.

Chicago, Aug. 1.—The names of twenty-eight men who will sit on the Federal grand jury which will hear testimony next Monday in connection with the charges against the Standard Oil Company and a number of railroads operating in Chicago, were drawn from the jury box in the United States District Court to-day. The names were placed in the hands of Marshal Luman T. Hoy, and the men will be summoned by telegraph. As soon as the names had been drawn they were made known to the secret service operatives in Chicago, who will investigate the history of each man. If it is found that any of the men are undesirable as grand jurors they will be excused by Judge Bethea on Monday. Attorney John S. Miller, counsel for the Standard Oil Company, has already taken up the case. He has ordered a certified copy of the order summoning the grand jury and will watch the action of the Government throughout the various stages of the case.

"I do not want to go into details," he remarked, "but I can say that the replies containing one dollar for the fund have already reached well up into four figures. To-day alone were received more than 200 replies, so we have every reason to be satisfied with the results of this new departure in soliciting campaign contributions. Among to-day's contributions were some from Kansas, Kentucky, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Missouri and from every one of the Eastern States and New England.

"We have figured that probably not more than ten Republicans in 100 will see the appeal. If one out of every ten Republicans, however, sends us a dollar we will have enough to meet the expenses of our campaign. According to the vote for Roosevelt, there are 7,600,000 Republicans in the country. One dollar from 1 per cent. of these would give us $76,000."

BADLY INJURED IN COLLISION

W. R. TISCHENDORF KNOCKED FROM HIS BUGGY.

STRUCK BY AUTO DRIVEN BY C. F. QUAST

AT FOURTH AND CHESTNUT.

W. R. Tischendorf, of 1706 West Chestnut street, was severely injured yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock at Fourth avenue and Chestnut street, when his buggy was struck by a large automobile driven by C. F. Quast. He was thrown out and sustained a fracture of his skull and collarbone.

According to witnesses of the accident, Mr. Quast was going out Fourth avenue, while Mr. Tischendorf was driving up Chestnut street. Mr. Quast was driving his machine beside a southbound Fourth-avenue car and failed to see the buggy. As the corner was reached Mr. Quast attempted to forge ahead of the car, and in doing so drove directly into the vehicle of Mr. Tischendorf. He attempted to check his machine, but was unable to do so in time.

The wheels were smashed, and Mr. Tischendorf was pitched out, falling upon his head and shoulders. The automobile was stopped immediately and Mr. Quast did all in his power to aid the injured man. He wanted to remove him to his home, but he was taken instead to the office of Drs. Fort and Zimmerman, at 405 West Chestnut street.

An examination showed that he had sustained a fracture of the collarbone and what appeared to be a scalp wound. His injuries were dressed and he was removed to his home. Later it was found that he had a slight fracture of the skull. He was said to be slightly improved last night, and it is not thought that his injuries will result fatally.

Mr. Quast said that he was escorting a party of friends to the Union Station, and was not going at a very rapid rate of speed. He said that he was unable to see the buggy until he was immediately upon it. He called at the Tischendorf residence last night and expressed his deepest sympathy with the injured man. He seemed inconsolable over the affair.

Mr. Quast is employed by the Quast Shoe Manufacturing Company as a traveling salesman, while Mr. Tischendorf is a member of the Tischendorf & Chreste Lumber Company.

MAY NOMINATE JOHN MITCHELL FOR CONGRESS.

Democrats of Seventh Indiana District Favorable To His Candidacy.

Laporte, Ind., Aug. 1.—[Special.]—If plans of Democratic leaders do not miscarry, John Mitchell, the labor leader, will be a prominent figure in the congressional fight in this State this fall. It is proposed to make him the party candidate for Congressman in the Seventh Indiana district, which embraces the city of Indianapolis, and which is now represented by Jesse Overstreet, Republican, who has been renominated.

Mr. Mitchell's prospects of election, if he accepts the nomination, will be enhanced by the independent candidacy of Judge McCrary, Republican, who is fighting boss rule in his party.

MISS CHAMBERLAIN GETS GOOD POSITION.

Miss Mary E. Chamberlain, formerly supervisor of drawing of the public schools of Louisville, has been appointed the director of art at the State Normal College, at DeKalb, Ill. The vacancy made by her resignation as supervisor of drawing was filled by Miss Lena Hillerich.

Miss Chamberlain was in Louisville one year, during which she made a large circle of acquaintances who are congratulating her because of her new appointment. She came here from Saginaw, Mich., where she had six years of experience in drawing.

In Sassiety.

"Oh, I am so happy, Clarice!"

"What has happened, Geraldine?"

"I've just discovered that Harold is having me watched by five detectives. Not another woman in my set is being watched by more than two!"

STRANGE HINTS OF MURDER

that she had killed a man several months ago at Cumberland Gap.

The woman will be kept at the asylum in Harrison county several days awaiting developments, and in case she fails to improve an effort will be made on the part of the authorities to have her adjudged insane and confined in the Southwestern Hospital for the Insane at Evansville, Ind.

* * *

Fever From Exposure.

After she had been found ill in the strawstack, a Dr. McDaniels was called by Mr. Lang to examine the woman. He gave as his opinion that she was suffering from malarial fever, brought on by exposure to the weather. Her pony is being cared for by the superintendent of the Harrison county poor asylum. The dogs which followed the strange woman from Kentucky to Indiana are also being fed by the asylum superintendent.

So many and varied are the weird stories told by the "beautiful maniac," that it is difficult to place credence in any of them. When asked how she happened to have so many dogs with her, she explained that she had been employed by a Colorado ranchman to collect the mongrels.

* * *

Completely Exhausted.

When the woman appeared at Charles Lang's farmhouse last Saturday night, she was in a state of almost utter exhaustion. Her steed had been ridden until he resembled the spirit of the horse seen in Eastern Kentucky. The woman's trappings had been exposed to the weather until they were almost worthless. Her revolvers had lost their glitter, and it is doubtful if she could have used them had she been called upon to do so. The cooking utensils that she carried with her were rusty and battered.

The farm of Charles Lang, where the woman was forced to cease her wanderings because of illness, is about thirty-five miles southwest of New Albany.

* * *

Kept Close Watch.

No one dared approach the strange woman. On several occasions during her wanderings in Kentucky, attempts were made to approach her camp fire at night. Always on the alert, at the first sound of a footfall she would spring to her feet, seize her rifle and demand that the person approaching halt. No one dared disobey the order, that seemed to indicate a determination to defend herself at any cost. Attempts were made to surprise her while she was asleep in camp, but in every instance she was awakened by the barking of her dogs. The superstitious fear caused by the woman had as much to do with her success in baffling the curious and keeping them at a distance, it is believed, as did the ugly-looking deapons she always carried.

* * *

Had Plenty of Money.

Jean Audley was not always a pauper. When she started on her journeying she was well provided with money, and as long as it lasted she paid her bills. She made frequent visits to village stores, where she purchased food for herself and dogs, and feed for her broncho. Where she secured her money is as much a mystery as that which attaches to her identity. All sorts of wild conjectures are indulged concerning the woman. If her story to the effect that she killed a man is true, the probability is that she became so stung by remorse that she sold her home in the mountains, mounted her pony, and sought to drown misery in endless roaming.

INDORSE W. J. BRYAN FOR PRESIDENT.

Charleston, W. Va., Aug. 1.—The Third District Democratic Convention here to-day nominated George C. Byrne, former editor of the Charleston Gazette, for Congress without opposition. Resolutions declare Bryan for President and tariff for revenue with incidental protection.

Eminent Doctors Praise its Ingredients.

We refer to that boon to weak, nervous, suffering women known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

Dr. John Fyfe one of the Editorial Staff of THE ECLECTIC MEDICAL REVIEW says of Unicorn root (Helonias Dioica) which is one of the chief ingredients of the "Favorite Prescription":

"A remedy which invariably acts as a uterine invigorator * * * makes for normal activity of the entire reproductive system." He continues "in Helonias we have a medicament which more fully answers the above purposes than any other drug with which I am acquainted. In the treatment of diseases peculiar to women it is seldom that a case is seen which does not present some indication for this remedial agent." Dr. Fyfe further says: "The following are among the leading indications for Helonias (Unicorn root). Pain or aching in the back, with leucorrhœa; atonic (weak) conditions of the reproductive organs of women, mental depression and irritability, associated with chronic diseases of the reproductive organs of women, constant sensation of heat in the region of the kidneys; menorrhagia (flooding), due to a weakened condition of the reproductive system; amenorrhœa (suppressed or absent monthly periods), arising from or accompanying an abnormal condition of the digestive organs and anæmic (thin blood) habit; dragging sensations in the extreme lower part of the abdomen."

If more or less of the above symptoms are present, no invalid woman can do better than take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, one of the leading ingredients of which is Unicorn root, or Helonias, and the medical properties of which it most faithfully represents.

Of Golden Seal root, another prominent ingredient of "Favorite Prescription," Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Medical College, Chicago, says:

"It is an important remedy in disorders of the womb. In all catarrhal conditions * * * and general enfeeblement, it is useful."

Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., late of Cincinnati, says of Golden Seal root:

"In relation to its general effects on the system, there is no medicine in use about which there is such general unanimity of opinion. It is universally regarded as the tonic useful in all debilitated states."

Prof. Bartholow, M. D., of Jefferson Medical College, says of Golden Seal:

"Valuable in uterine hemorrhage, menorrhagia (flooding) and congestive dysmenorrhœa (painful menstruation)."

themselves in complete control of the city and placing their sentinels before the Post, Telegraph and other Government buildings. The revolutionists are wildly jubilant. Although the mutiny at Sveaborg occurred unexpectedly, the revolutionists instantly decided that they must take advantage of it and try to immediately precipitate the general engagement between the Government and the people for which they have been preparing. They express the most supreme confidence that the military supports of the Government will break where they are least expected; and that the Government will find, when the test comes, that the army is divided against itself, and that units supposed to be loyal will fight on the side of the people.

The Workmen's councils here and at Moscow have already issued warnings to the workmen's organizations throughout the country to hold themselves in readiness to strike, and the revolutionary military committee is acting with energy. They declare that the crews of the warships at St. Petersburg are ready, and that if the Constadt squadron mutinies, all the ships in the Baltic will soon be in their hands. The imperial palace at Peterhof is under the guns of the Cronstad fortress Revolutionary emissaries have been dispatched to the ports of Reval, Riga and Libau, and if they are succesful the capital will be immediately hemmed in by revolutionists.

The proletariat organizations of Finland yesterday issued orders to begin a strike throughout the Grand Duchy at noon to-day. The proclamation only effects the men employed at the electric light, gas and waterworks in the cities.

The Rech in an editorial to-day does not conceal its gratification at the quick march of events, saying:

"Before the Government could even induce a few men enjoying a measure of public confidence to countersign its promises of liberal reforms the first blow has fallen, not delivered by the peasants or workingmen, but by the army, whose loyalty the Premier was vaunting."

The Rech thinks that a civil war is at hand.

The Liberals in general believe that the Government will now be forced to discard all pretense of reform and that a military dictatorship is immediately ahead.

Admiral Birileff, the Minister of Marine, is reported to be on the point of starting for Helsingfors.

HERZENSTEIN'S FUNERAL.

Feared That It Will Be Marked By Bloodshed.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 2.—The Liberals are planning imposing demonstrations here and at Moscow for the funeral of the murdered ex-Deputy Herzenstein. Owing to the temper of the people these demonstrations may result in collisions and bloodshed such as marked the interment of Prince Troubetskoy. The Liberals have applied for permission to transport Herzenstein's body in state through St. Petersburg from the Finnish to the Moscow railroad stations. This has not yet been granted.

The Constitutional Democrats ascribe the murder of Herzenstein "to the counter-terrorist league," otherwise known as the "Black Hundreds," with the alleged intention of exacting from the Liberal ranks life for a life of the victims of the terrorists. Herzenstein is said to have been selected in vengeance for the death of Gen. Koslov, of the headquarters staff, who was murdered in the plaza at Peterhof on July 21.

Two persons suspected of complicity in the murder and a gendarme of Terloki, who reputedly has been seen in their company, have been arrested.

Premier Stolypin proceeded by yacht yesterday to Peterhof, where he laid before the Emperor for his signature the formal ukases appointing Count Heyden, Prince Lvoff and Alexander Guchkoff to portfolios in the reorganized Cabinet. The announcement of the Emperor's decision is not expected before Friday and fears are entertained that the revolt at Sveaborg may influence him unfavorably in the matter.

OVER VOLCANO MEN CROSS THE OCEAN.

Fishing Smack Loaded With Explosives Has Uneventful Voyage.

The Danish schooner Bonavista, 100 tons burden, commanded by her owner, Capt. Christensen, is lying in Gravesend Bay with a red flag flying from her foremast, says the N. Y. Sun. She has on board some odd tons of smokeless powder, and a few hundred cases of detonators. She got here yesterday morning from Hamburg after a passage of forty-nine days, during which the captain says neither he nor the crew lost any sleep over the cargo.

"Of course," admitted the skipper yesterday, "something might have happened, but so long as it didn't, what is the difference?"

The Bonavista had a pretty long run of it, for head winds blew her off her course in foggy weather and when the skipper got a shot at the sun he found that he was pretty near a thousand miles from where he ought to be. And not only that, but he was directly in the path of ocean liners. They fortunately were not among those present.

The schooner will remain in Gravesend Bay until her cargo has been discharged. She isn't regularly in the powder carrying trade—she is a fisherman; but fishing got dull and her skipper decided to take the first cargo that offered.

"Not so very bad," said he. "The cases are very carefully packed and there is straw about them."

The skipper said that he was near to big steamers several times on the voyage and that he had to keep his foghorn going pretty regularly. When the powder is all out of the Bonavista she will go a-fishing again.

MRS. EMMA L. LOSEY DIES OF SENILITY.

Mrs. Emma Louise Losey, seventy-five years of age, died of senility yesterday morning at 7 o'clock at her residence, 1318 Twenty-second street, after a long illness. She was the widow of the late Jacob Losey, who was for many years the formen at the Louisville Steam Forge Works, and who died several years ago. She was born in Newark, N. J., and lived in Milwaukee and in Saginaw, Mich., before coming to Louisville, twenty-five years ago. She is survived by one daughter, Miss Anna M. Losey, and a son, Louis B. Losey. The funeral services will be held at the residence this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, and the burial will be in Cave Hill cemetery.

Annual vs. Deferred Dividends from Advertising

All this talk about the cumulative effect of advertising is pretty much the same argument the insurance man put up when he sold us our deferred dividend policy.

IT'S an excuse to put off the day of final settlement in both cases.

We'll take our dividends annually, Mr. Insurance Man.

And, Mr. Advertiser, if this year's advertising didn't earn dividends you're on the five, ten or twenty year accumulative plan—may have to lapse before dividend time.

You may win out after your advertising "expert" gets through experimenting.

But we would like an opportunity to tell you in an interview how to get Annual Dividends from your Advertising. We would like to explain to you what we do to make advertising sell goods from the start, without the advertiser having to wait 5, 10 or 20 years for a dividend.

By doing this for our present clients—both large and small—we have built up the largest business of its kind in America.

One of our representatives is in your city every few days looking after the interests of some of our present clients. That is why we are advertising in this newspaper—to you—NOW.

A letter addressed to us, signifying that you will grant us an interview in your office, will not obligate you in any way.

We are solving commercial problems every day, and this is an offer to discuss such problems (small and large) as between business men. If the discussion does not develop the reasonable certainty that YOUR volume of business and percentage of net profit can be increased by Lord & Thomas advertising, there it will end.

Will you write us today?

We are issuing a series of small books (cloth bound) covering advertising in all its phases, which we send free to interested advertisers.

FIRST CONTESTS

TO BE HELD AT BOONE SQUARE TO-DAY.

Events Mark Opening of Field Exercises At Public Playgrounds.

Beginning at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon the first of the public playground exhibitions will be held at Boone Square, Nineteenth and Rowan streets, in point of attendance the city's largest playground. The exhibition is to be under the auspices of Benjamin D. Satetrkhite, Supervisor of Public Playgrounds, and will be open to the public. The judges that have been selected to preside over the different contests are: Joseph Swain, of Boone Square; Guy L. Shipts, of Columbus, O., and Henry Grant. Those who are to act as judges in the contests in which only girls are to take part are Miss Frances Ingram, of Neighborhood House; Miss Jessie Davidson and Miss Madge E. Nabe. A special invitation has been extended members of the Board of Park Commissioners and city officials to attend the opening exhibition.

The exhibition to-day will be the first of a series under the management of the superintendent of public playgrounds. Exhibitions will be given at Triangle Park, Central Park and Baxter-avenue Park. On September 1 the chief exhibition of the series will be held at Central Prak.

JOHN J. VOGLER KILLED WITHOUT PROVOCATION.

Members of the family of John J. Vogler, who was a son of Frederick Vogler, 2035 Baxter avenue, Louisville, and who was killed near Kinsley, Kas., last Saturday night, have received a letter from an official of the county in which the alleged murder was committed. According to the explanation of the killing given in the letter, it was without the slightest provocation.

Vogler was employed on a Kansas farm. At supper Saturday evening, so the letter says, William Merritt, another employe, picked a quarrel with Vogler. He is said to have become so abusive that he was put out of the room by the owner. As he left, it was written, Merritt muttered something about how he would "get him." The letter went on to say that as Vogler went outside after the meal he was attacked by Merritt and stabbed to death. Merritt is in jail charged with murder.

The body of John Vogler reached Louisville last night. The funeral services will be held this afternoon at the residence of the family on Baxter avenue. The burial will be in Cave Hill cemetery.

Two Men Killed By Train.

Indianapolis, Aug. 1.—While returning to their homes this evening from Beech Grove, four miles east of this city, where they had been working on construction work, D. F. Sterling and Taylor Gapplitt were run down by a train. Sterling was instantly killed and Gapplitt died to-night at a hospital.

THE REV. T. J. HORNE CALLED TO KENTUCKY.

The Rev. Henry McLaughlin, pastor of the Stuart Robinson Memorial Presbyterian church, returned from Taylorsville yesterday, where he conducted a week's meeting at the Presbyterian church of that place. The trustees of the church and those of the Harrod's Creek Presbyterian church, he said, have extended a call to the Rev. T. J. Horne, of Orange, Tex., to alternate in the pastorate of the churches. Dr. Horne, during Homecoming Week, was a guest of Col. Bennett H. Young, of this city, and during that time preached at both of the churches.

FRENCH BARK ASHORE, BUT CREW ARE SAVED.

Falmouth, Aug. 2.—News was received here at midnight that the French bark Socca, Capt. Lecoire, 2,160 tons, which left Stettin on July 15 for San Francisco, had gone ashore off Cadgwith, midway between the dreaded Manaole rocks and the Lizard. Tugs and life boats were sent out and the crew of the bark were saved.

WEIGHTS FOR SARATOGA.

Handicapper Vosburgh Adjusts Imposts For Big Race Next Monday.

W. S. Vosburgh announced the weights for the Saratoga Handicap, one mile and a quarter, to be run at the Spa next Monday. Mr. Vosburgh makes B. Brady's Oiseau, who has not been to the races since he won the Second Special at Gravesend last fall, top weight. But the Ornus four-year-old will hardly start before the autumn meeting at the Bay, or perhaps just before the session at the Springs come to an end. The handicapper places Go-Between next to Oiseau, with 123 pounds, which shows in what esteem Mr. Vosburgh holds the Meddler horse. The Saratoga weights are as follows:

Oiseau	126	Santa Catalina	105
Go-Between	123	Timber	105
Caughnawaga	119	Dolly Spanker	105
Wild Mint	118	The Quail	105

H. J. TAYLOR TO BE BURIED THIS AFTERNOON.

Highly Educated Man Who Died of Bright's Disease At City Hospital.

The funeral services of H. J. Taylor, who died at the City Hospital Tuesday morning as a result of Bright's disease, will be held at 9 o'clock this morning at the undertaking establishment of Thomas Keenan. The burial will be in St. Stephen cemetery.

Mr. Taylor was a highly educated man, being a graduate of Harvard and Dublin universities. For many years he taught mathematics and philosophy in several Eastern colleges and high schools. Ten years ago he was seized with an attack of acute Bright's disease and began to travel for the benefit of his health.

HORSE KILLED AND WOMAN HURT BY TRAIN.

Mrs. James Ruby, of St. Matthews, Victim of Accident On Westport Road.

In an accident on the Westport road, about a quarter of a mile from St. Matthews, Mrs. James Ruby, living at St. Matthews, sustained several bad injuries. She was driving and was attempting to cross the railroad crossing at Westport road, when a rapidly approaching passenger train of the Louisville and Nashville railroad struck the horse she was driving and hurled her from the seat. The horse was killed instantly, but Mrs. Ruby escaped serious injury, merely being bruised badly about the body, with no internal injuries.

BELLBOYS FINED BY JUDGE OF POLICE COURT.

William Baird, Paul Adair and Lee Suter, seventeen, sixteen and fifteen years old, respectively, charged with grand larceny, were arraigned in the Police Court yesterday morning. Baird was fined $15 and placed under a bond of $300 to keep the peace for ninety days, while the others were remanded to jail to be presented to the Juvenile Court, which meets to-morrow. They were arrested several days ago by Detectives Harding and Armstrong at the Willard Hotel, where they were employed as bellboys. They were said to have been making a practice of opening valises of the guests that had been left in their charge and to have abstracted money and clothing from them.

"Business."

Wednesday Evening, August 1.—The New York stock market opened with a general rise, largely the result of confidence inspired by the Steel common dividend declaration. There was enormous profits taking, but the close was remarkably steady and indicated further activity to-day.

Money on call was easy with a ruling rate of 2¼. The closing bid was 2 with offerings at 2¼. Time loans were dull and unchanged for short dates. Sterling exchange tended to weakness.

There was a firm tone to the Chicago wheat market. Final quotations of September option showed a loss of ¼, but it had no outward meaning. Corn was down ⅝c and oats were off ¼c or ⅜c.

Cotton opened in New York only fairly steady and closed with some show of dullness. Prices fluctuated within a range of 2 or 3 points.

The Chicago cattle, hog and sheep markets were steady.

"Down East."

From the good old city of Lowell, in the grand old Commonwealth of Massachusetts, comes the following letter, addressed:

[To the Editor of the Courier-Journal.]

"I am not quite certain that the city at the top of this letter and the man at the bottom will touch any green spot in your memory, but I hope they may serve to call the writer to your mind, since he comes asking a favor.

"I am interested, in a friendly and proper way, in the candidacy of Winston Churchill for Governor of the State of New Hampshire, a candidacy which has in it the mingled elements of a crusade and a forlorn hope; yet to the man of heart, imagination and good red blood the forlorn hope always makes an appeal. On the other side stand the machine, corporate wealth and intrenched pharisaism, and these own, control and direct the press of the State. We need the pressure of external public opinion to cheer us on and to make an impression on this railroad-ruled, corporation-ridden community; and surely if the public opinion of the world can move the hopelessly stupid land of Muscovy, the words of the American press can pierce the hide of New Hampshire prejudice. Our fight—I say our because I have taken up arms against New Hampshire's sea of troubles—is really one phase of the widespread national unrest, part and parcel of the American protest against government by the rich, the vulgar and parvenu elements of the land for the plunder and exploitation of the rest of us; and we are entitled to the sympathy of all good men and true.

"Winston Churchill is a clean, manly, high-minded, amiable American gentleman, an Annapolis man, simple, direct and democratic, devoid of snobbery and priggishness, with a head of normal size and a heart full of courage and strength to make the State his home is in what the men who made the republic intended it should be. We may lose the fight, but defeat is not always inglorious. From Thermopylae to the Alamo and Appomatox the victory has often been with the vanquished—the victory which endures and counts when the bones of the dead are dust.

"Is it asking too much in this heated season, during your annual pilgrimage in search of light and misleading, to suggest that you give our struggle a trumpet blast in the Courier-Journal? We need the cheer of all good men; your words carry weight. With the best wishes for your continued vigor and health, believe me to be J. S."

We confess that this beats us. It gets away with us, as it were. What can a Kentuckian and a Kentucky Democrat, so-called, say that would be likely to reach and reverberate among the granite hills of New Hampshire to the good of any candidate for office?

We doubt not that Winston Churchill is all his friend says he is. He bears a name familiar to us hereabouts. The Churchills of Kentucky have ever been good people. They made the "crossing" among the earliest. Some of them, we dare say, got over into Missouri, and from these the successful novelist and embryo statesman is doubtless sprung. His migration to New England still further illustrates the spirit of the blood, the enterprise of the family, and, here's to the tribe, and all the way from the half-American, who is flipping his Jack—though not from the bottom—in old England, to the full-grown American who is running for Governor of New Hampshire! Vote for him? Certainly. Why not? Down with the Octopus equally in Boston and Maine and in Kentucky and California and Kingdom Come! What's a little matter of politics as between Reformers?

Yet, softly, seriously, the matter is more pregnant to the mind of our correspondent than it can be to the mind of the Courier-Journal. In Kentucky we have had, and happily we have passed, our sore travail. The Railways are still the servants, not the masters, of the State. Even the old He-goat of them all, the Louisville and Nashville, remains a common carrier. We know only by hearsay the conditions in New Hampshire. They may be as bad as they are described to be. But, they are local, and the interposition of an outsider might do more harm than good. The Courier-Journal spoke up for its old enemy, William E. Chandler. It did its best to save him, knowing him, for all his party sins, an upright and a brave man, and an honor both to his State and the Senate of the United States. To no purpose. Can Winston Churchill do what Bill Chandler failed to do?

That remains to be seen. We hope so. It is a long lane that has no turning; but Heaven often works with the heaviest artillery, and it must be owned that the guns of the Boston and Maine are large-bore and carry gold-ball cartridges primed with greenback wadding and sped by popular custom deeply laid in interest and prejudice. Time was when the granite hills themselves would have risen in mutiny. It may be that time is gone. The people seem given over to the commercial spirit of the age. Free passes possess them merely. They are bought and sold with their own money.

If the Courier-Journal had a vote in New Hampshire it would give it to Winston Churchill. Alas, it has no vote! It can only look on and take what God wills!

Rally Round the Flag, Boys!

The New York Tribune pooh-poohs the Tariff as a paramount issue in American politics. Wrong. It thinks that the South, having gone into manufacturing and tasted of Protectionism, likes the draught and cannot be induced to put the chalice aside. Wrong again. It ascribes Free Trade, as it calls it, to Sectional prejudice and hate. Wrongest of all.

The Protective Tariff is the father and mother of the Trust and of Trustism. It stands a living object lesson in Criminal Wealth. It begat the Religion of Commerce. To it, primarily, our political demoralization—the boss and bossism, graft and the grafter, the lowering of all the standards of our public life—may be directly traced. High Tariff was the progenitor of High Finance. The Robber Baron in his Pennsylvania Castle set the pace for the Trust Magnate in his iron-clad Corporation.

The evil results of forty years of dishonest accretion spring from Tariff impositions, levying tribute upon the whole people to enrich a few favored monopolists. The Bandit fortunes which threaten the life of our free institutions spring from the Tariff. The deepening contrasts of life in the centers of population, breeding discontent and sowing dragon's teeth, spring from the Tariff. Protectionism is the Gospel of graft. It is a lie out of whole cloth and very rotten cloth—a lie pure and simple—having no genesis except fraud, no terminal except Popular spoliation and National disgrace.

Its history is replete with double-dealing and evasion, tergiversation and corruption, exclusive privileges for the self-elect, taxation and the bag to hold for the masses who hew the wood and draw the water.

There can be so such thing as Free Trade as long as we must collect three or four hundred millions through the Custom Houses. The only safe and sound rule of procedure, in the levying of these import duties, is laid in the simple principle that the Government has no right of taxation, either in equity or law, except for its own support. That is the Democratic gospel—the doctrine alike of justice and the Constitution.

Daniel Webster began his career a New England Free Trader; John C. Calhoun a South Carolina Protectionist. Later along they exchanged places. Did this sectionalize the Tariff? Was Robert J. Walker, a Southerner, hating the North? Was David A. Wells? Was Frank Hurd? Was William R. Morrison? Were Professor Sumner and the late Professor Perry? Is John G. Carlisle, or the Editor of the Courier-Journal?

Go to, thou bounty-fed son-of-a-sawmill, organ of greed, grab and partyism, go to and read the history of thy country!

The New Institution of American Slavery is laid in the Protective Tariff. Every schedule of that Tariff is a sinkhole of iniquity. Every classification of that Tariff is a delusion and a snare. Hell yawns and Satan smacks his lips whenever that Robber Tariff is mentioned, wherever a Robber Baron shows his face. African slavery was bad enough in its day. It lives again in that Thieving Tariff. It has transferred its spirit of caste, its disdain of restraint, its sectionalism, lust and lash to the lords of the North and East, supported by a few would-be lords of the South, who do not want the pillage to stop until they, too, have grown rich and mighty, like Mr. Rockefeller and Mr. Carnegie, off subsidy wrung from the people.

So, down with the Thieving Tariff, say we! Down with it! Off with the Roosevelt mask of bogus Reform! Up with the standard of Unterrified Democracy, bringing with it the demand, written in letters of Gold and Silver, yea, and of paper convertible into coin on demand, that All Taxation, Internal and External, shall be for the support of the Government Economically Administered! And, come along, Mr. Bryan—right along home—to tell us once more a thrice-told tale that still has music in it, alike to the confusion of the Capitol and the White House at Washington and the Tall Tower in New York! And, our response shall be

"We'll rally round the flag, boys,
Rally once again,
Shouting the battle-cry of freedom!"

Kentucky's Leading Products.

While Kentucky has so many departments of industry and production in which she holds a prominent position, it will be a matter of surprise to not a few to learn that flour ranks first in the list of the State's productions. Standing in the lead of all the States in the yield of tobacco and hemp and being well to the front in the matter of distilled spirits and coal, a recent bulletin from the Department of Commerce and Labor gave the following interesting statistics in regard to the manufacture of flour for the years 1900 and 1905. The census of the latter year recently compiled shows 338 establishments, as compared with 341 in 1900. Within the same period capital thus invested increased $2,953,862, or 67.3 per cent.; the number of wage-earners 323, or 30.8 per cent.; the wages $53,008, or 11.15 per cent., and the value of the products $4,990,743, or 38.03 per cent. This shows a healthy increase in this important industry, which is not only beneficial as being profitable to those engaged in it, but to the farmers of Kentucky in the building up of a home market for their grain. For many years their wheat was dependent upon the Chicago and other Northern markets, while now a better return is realized through the demand of the home manufacturers and the saving of freight. The product of the Kentucky mills finds its chief market in the South, while for some grades there is a demand in the foreign market, shipments for which are rendered possible by the all-rail route to Newport News by way of the Louisville and Nashville and Norfolk and Western railroads, with a low schedule of rates and through bills of lading.

Second to flour in point of value is the lumber industry, as shown by the census, both of 1900 and 1905. In the latter year there was a decrease of forty-seven in the number of establishments, while the capital increased $4,552,874, or 62.8 per cent., and the value of output $1,200,467, or 9 per cent. While there was an increase of but forty-seven in the number of wage-earners, the aggregate of wages shows an increase of $750,434, or 24.9 per cent. The lumber industry exhibits the same encouraging features noted in regard to flour. The lumber which enters into the various manufactures produced here is almost exclusively from the forests of the State, which still have an area of 45 per cent. of the total number of square miles in the State. The exception is chiefly yellow pine from the South and mahogany from Honduras, the latter being brought to Louisville on a large scale in the log and sawed here. In point of variety and excellence the hard woods of Kentucky, especially hickory and oak, which enter largely into the manufacture of wagons, plows and agricultural implements, are of unsurpassed quality and large area.

In point of value the manufacture of tobacco in Kentucky shows a decrease in 1905, as compared with 1900, the State ranking third instead of second, Missouri being first and North Carolina second. This has resulted from the absorption by the trusts of several factories and the transfer of the business to one or the other of the two States named. Notwithstanding this the industry is a prosperous one in Kentucky, with promise of an increase. The value of the products of tobacco here in 1900 was $14,948,192, and in 1905, $13,117,000. The remaining industry in which Kentucky holds a high position is the production of distilled spirits. In point of quality she still maintains the leading position, but as regards quantity she ranks fourth in 1905 as in 1900. The number of establishments in this interval increased from 177 to 188, which does not indicate the number of distilleries, as there may be several of the latter in the same establishment or plant. The capital increased $5,494,136, or 44.7 per cent., and the value of products 14.5 per cent. An act of the last Legislature, imposing a storage tax on certain low-grade whiskies, may possibly tend to a decrease in the output of the future, but to improve the quality.

The Maintenance of Law.

The circumstances attending the trial and execution of the negro Mathis, convicted by his own confession, as by other satisfactory evidence, and executed at Mayfield, have some features which are to be regretted. The fact, however, that Kentucky was saved the mortification of a lynching by an indignant multitude, bent upon avenging the innocent victim of the crime, is matter for special congratulation. It would have comported more with the dignity of the law if the proceedings had been less hasty, but as no other result could have been reached, however prolonged the trial, the course pursued by the court will meet the general approval of the law-abiding element. It is the certainty of justice which commands respect for the law and the courts which administer it, and if error has been committed it should be condoned as far less open to condemnation than the too tardy administration of the criminal law.

Next to the brutality of the offense as inciting the vindictive passions of the members of a community who feel that without swift punishment for such crime their own families may fall victims to a similar fate, the delay attendant upon trial for criminal offenses and the ultimate failure of conviction, are strong provocations of such popular uprisings as were shown in this case. Long-drawn-out trials followed by appeal with repeated re-trials, do much to weaken the popular confidence in the law as a remedy for crime. This is unfortunate, and the better men in every community should combat such view, counsel moderation, and under no circumstances sanction mob law. There is no middle ground. Conceding the justification of resorting to mob law in any case is to yield the whole question and leave it to the discretion of the individual to determine when it shall be used.

Such admonition and its observance are timely, just now, when there is a somewhat similar case pending in Knox county, whence the negro charged with an aggravated murder after probable assault was removed to avoid danger of public vengeance. Fiends capable of the unspeakable crime for which Malthis was hung, under the form of law, will be restrained by fear of its vengeance, when they would not hesitate to take the chance of escaping a lynching. Let, therefore, all good citizens lend their personal influence to the maintenance of the law and oppose any infraction of it by a resort to mob violence in any form.

The President's Interest.

Senator Dick, of Ohio, after an interview with Mr. Roosevelt at Oyster Bay, said that the President is greatly interested in the result of the congressional elections. He feels, says the Senator, that he has inaugurated policies that he is hopeful of concluding successfully, and this can only be accomplished by the help of a Republican majority in the Sixtieth Congress.

It might be said, in commenting on this utterance, that Mr. Roosevelt needs no help in accomplishing what he desires. He has developed an indomitable optimism in his manner of taking what he can get. No man has better mastered the art, when far away from the lips that he loves, of making love to the lips that are near. When his favorite policies have been changed, mutilated, reversed by a hostile Congress, he has come up smiling, and said that he could not notice any change. The fact that black had been made white, and white had been made black, left in his opinion everything just the same. He flung his defiance boldly to Congress, because he found that it could not possibly make any changes in his bills which amounted to anything. In every enactment he recognized the loved features of the measure he had proposed—disguised, indeed, so that strangers would not know it as the same, but in which the eye, made acute by affection, still traced the lineaments which had won his heart in happier times. In this ability to recognize his own measures in bills apparently utterly contrary to his views lay the secret of the close union between a radical President posing as the deadly foe to monopoly and a Congress that called itself ultra conservative, and known to be the abject slave of caste and privilege. This Congress was quite powerless to pass any bill which the President did not recognize as his own, as the incarnation of radicalism and anti-monopoly. It is clear enough that such a President does not need any particular description of Congress, since he can make any measures his own by his phenomenal clairvoyance.

There is, therefore, much to be said in opposition to the view that Mr. Roosevelt needs a Republican majority in the Sixtieth Congress to carry out his views. The Democrats in the Fifty-ninth Congress thought for a long time that he had come over to them, and had adopted some of the important planks of their platform. They charged that while they were in swimming in the anti-monopoly pool, Mr. Roosevelt had stolen their clothes. But this charge was not confined to Democrats. There were many of the President's own party that regarded his ideas as essentially hostile to the monopoly schemes to which their party has long been irrevocably committed. Without the monopolists, the men who make laws under the shelter of which they may extort money, without corporations which have no reason for existence except robbing under the forms of law, the Republican party is nothing, a mere inert and voiceless body without a soul, fit only as food for worms. Hence the support of the President for some time came mostly from Democrats. His darling measure of regulating the railroads by a commission of his own choosing, without interference by the courts, was committed for some time to the care of a Democrat, and that by a vote of a committee on which his own party had a large majority. Then party friends mangled the measure beyond recognition from anybody except the father of it, but he accepted it as substantially what he wanted.

Of course the Republican party desires to carry the Congressional elections next fall. Believing it a good policy, it desires to avail itself of the act of the President. But at the same time it feels that it has made a record in Congress by which it will be judged by a large number of voters. The list of the favorite measures of the President that have been ignored is a long one, and need not be here repeated. Others have received attention, but have been mangled out of recognition. Still others have received their best support from Democrats. As a man, Mr. Roosevelt desires to see a Republican Congress, but it remains true if he is to carry out the policies which he has inaugurated, a Democratic majority would be far better for him. It would mark a disapprobation of the ruthlessness with which all his better policies have been slaughtered chiefly by his own party friends.

It is admitted that the Fifty-ninth Congress did some good things; every Congress does as much. But it was also the most profligate Congress we ever had. It disregarded or killed most of the important recommendations of its President. To say that the same party that did this must be again intrusted with power in the interest of Mr. Roosevelt is a false pretense that shows its falsity on its face. Congress has made heavier the burdens of the people, and, ashamed of its own misdoings, is now seeking to excuse its misdoings by involving the popularity of a President whose measures it killed or ignored. In taking this course, it goes to the utmost limit of hypocrisy, convinced that, if hypocrisy fail, there is no salvation for it.

Fight Slander With Truth.

In her article setting forth the actual conditions existing among the operatives of Southern cotton mills—which article was printed in the Courier-Journal last Sunday—Miss Gertrude Beeks not only did the cotton mills a voluntary and valuable service but she pointed the way to a relief of Southern labor problems. Her service lay in proving that the employes lived well, were given good treatment by the employers, and were not like the "dumb, driven cattle" which conscienceless scribblers had led many to believe them. Her way to relief lay in the acquisition of desirable immigrants, the great majority of whom are diverted into other sections by the deliberate misrepresentations and malignant falsehoods which describe Southern industrial conditions as being tyrannical, miserable and abominable.

Now, Miss Beeks is no partisan, unless she be a partisan of the workingman as against the boss. As secretary of the Welfare Department of the National Civic Association she is charged with the official task of searching out hardships inflicted upon the humble and of exposing them; of finding evils and righting them. The word of so humane and careful an investigator carries peculiar weight. She made the rounds of Southern cotton mills. She discovers they have been slandered. She raps the malicious libeler vigorously. She explains that the South's scarcity of labor is due in large measure to the activities of this person. She says, "Get more immigrants." And to her way of thinking the immigrants would find conditions in the South favorable and the South itself hospitable.

The sincere and powerful paper of Miss Beeks should be spread broadcast. The slanderer has been waging his campaign in foreign lands, the very source of immigration. Usually he is the aggressive and zealous, but dishonest, representative of railroad interests and other interests concerned in securing traffic in other sections of the United States and in building up communities in those sections. So in the foreign lands should be circulated Miss Beeks' refutation of the libels.

And besides the testimony of Miss Beeks, the commercial organizations, the railroads, the industrial operators and all other institutions and individuals devoted to the welfare of Southern conditions should exert themselves faithfully in the dissemination of the beneficent truth.

Eternal vigilance is the price of industrial and moral prosperity. A wholesome jealousy is needful for a good reputation. Therefore, the slanderers must be put down. They must be overthrown for the sake of reputation, moral and industrial prosperity. A good name is to be valued for itself, but in this instance it possesses a material value also. With a good name the South can get immigrants of the right sort. With immigrants of the right sort our labor situation will be improved. With the labor situation improved, our industrial and moral prosperity will gain impetus.

The scarcity of labor is one of the perplexities of the day. From East, West, North and South come daily cries for laborers. There is plenty of work, croakers to the contrary notwithstanding, for the willing. The immigrant willing to work is the right sort. The South demands him. The cotton mills, the cotton plantations, the mines and the builders need him by the thousands. Let the libeler be confounded by the truth, such as that told by Miss Beeks, and they'll get him.

"Of late the movement for starting schools in this country has almost amounted to a mania. We find them springing up on all sides, and there is scarcely a Korean of wealth or position who has not become patron of an educational establishment of some kind or other. It is to be feared that some of the enthusiasm which is at present being manifested will wear off in the course of time and that some of the schools will perish either from want of pupils or from want of funds. The movement is, however, undoubtedly a strong one, as all enlightened Koreans fully appreciate the fact that until at least primary education becomes general throughout their country they cannot hope to emerge, once and for all, from their present oppressed condition."—[Korea Daily News.

CURRENT COMMENT.

Shaw Looked Wise.

When the President of the United States compliments the Secretary of the Treasury on "what you have accomplished with the Panama bonds," and adds that "the country is fortunate in your success," it is high time, in the interests of common sense, to prick the bubble of nonsense.

What did Secretary Shaw do? He didn't fix the terms of the bonds; Congress did that. Did he advertise them? Did he "boom" them? Did he form a syndicate to underwrite them? Did he induce some influential financier to set the ball rolling by taking a big block of them? Did he do anything?—[Philadelphia Record.

What Will It Be?

Now that the Kentucky Home-coming celebration is over, the Louisville Courier-Journal makes another appeal to the people of the State to remedy the neglect of the Legislature in failing to provide for a Kentucky exhibit at Jamestown. Says our contemporary: "In contemplating the near approach of such an historic event, with which Kentucky has, by descent, relations closer than any other State, it is mortifying to reflect that from the failure of the Legislature to make an appropriation she will have no official representation." It will be no less mortifying to Virginia than to Kentucky not to have the old mother's first-born participate in the great commemoration of Virginia's birth and the birth of the republic.—[Richmond News-Leader.

Suffering From Thirst.

A friend of our'n in Nashville has writ us that there air a defect in the act abolishing the charter of Bolivar and doing away with the sale of licker in this here town. Wouldn't that make you tired? To think that fer five years we have been setting here with a thirst on us that was illegal, and saturated with a sobriety that was unconstitutional. Six years ago we had some flourishing saloons in this place, and a gent could get a drink whenever he could pay for it or stave off the barkeep. Now, where air the saloons of yesterday? All gone, undermined by the crafty heel of time, and without authority of law. We have about decided that we will sue this here bum town fer five years' damages to our thirst, and fer 1,000 unrealized jags.—[Hardeman Free Press.

Prejudice Not Sectional.

For what did Lincoln emancipate, for what did Thaddeus Stevens enfranchise (and put black feet on white necks for a brief drunken period in the Southern States), if a row is to result in every Northern town whenever the colored brother ventures to establish himself in the same block with the white? That is the question which seeks an answer in the presence of recurring dispatches from various sections of the North, telling of the indignation, the uproar, the depreciation of property and the ruin of neighborhoods caused by the "Afro-American" invasion.

The latest agitation has been caused by the "Afro-American Realty Company's" purchase of an apartment house on West One Hundred and Fifty-first street, New York, and the display of a signboard announcing "apartments to let for colored tenants." According to the Sun, people in that block are expressing themselves very vigorously. This was not all. An excited crowd gathered in front of the house, and the inevitable "rope" made its appearance. But there was nothing to take vengeance on but the signboard, and that was torn down and smashed.

Lincoln knew his Illinois neighbors well enough to foresee something of all this, and in his earlier periods he contended that the two races could never live together in either social or political equality. As late as 1862 he told a deputation of negroes that the colonization of their race outside of this country was the only solution of the problem. Still later, however, when he perceived in what direction the Northern current had set, he changed his mind, throwing cold water on his own excellent plan and even attributing malice toward the colored brother on the part of some of those who still regarded it with favor.

Humanly speaking, it seems a great pity that Lincoln did not live and stick to his original plan, which was indeed the only complete solution — from the white man's point of view. In that case the course of political history in the United States would have been entirely changed. But man only proposes — the best-laid plans, and apparently the wisest of plans, are often thrust aside to make way for the great current of events, of which no man can see the beginning or the end.—[Macon Telegraph.

Roosevelt As a Platform.

Perhaps it is the natural result of centralization that the Republican Congressional Committee has sent out a notification that the acts and the personality of the President must be kept well to the front during the congressional campaign. Personal government is to be pressed as far as it will go. A Republican House is to be chosen because it will do what the President tells it to. As the Republicans have been steadily stealing power from the States and conferring it upon the Federal Government, so it is natural for them to strip power from Congress and increase the prerogatives of the President to the extent even of making him the central figure in a congressional campaign.

Or it may be due to the profound belief of the President, in which weak Senators and Representatives, most of whom have favors to seek, encourage him, that he is enormously popular. That this is a delusion can be shown by figures. His large plurality two years ago was due to the divisions in their party which kept a million or two Democrats from voting. Mr. Roosevelt did not get the full vote of his party. He did not get an increase over Mr. McKinley's vote, which the normal increase of population would have given him.

But the President cannot be the platform in a congressional campaign. The people are going to vote for Congressmen who will execute what seems to them to be a wise and necessary public policy. The President may issue instructions from Sagamore Hill to "stand pat," but they are paying no attention to him in Iowa. There are indications in several other States that they will pay no attention to him. If the people realize that the tariff ought to be reduced, both as a measure of relief to themselves and as a means of opening foreign markets to them, and if they are opposed to the Roosevelt variations of the Monroe doctrine and to the President's unauthorized meddling with the affairs of Santo Domingo, they will choose members of Congress who will carry out their ideas, whether they like the President personally or not. Very likely the President thinks he is the whole Government, or ought to be; he has given many indications of thinking that. But the people have Congressmen to elect, and they will choose them with regard to the work Congress has to do.—[Philadelphia Record.

Louisville is also to give Mr. Bryan a grand reception and entertain him in old Kentucky style. Knowing what that style is, how generous, how enticing, how dangerous to the susceptible and genial temperament, the V.-P. warns the great Commoner not to be beguiled by the immunity and impunity with which his hosts will imbibe "grass in their liquor." The julep is innocuous to the long practitioner, but to the neophyte it is deadly as delicious. Beware, oh, beware, Hon. W. J. B.! Dimes Disappearing.

Where are all the dimes? More than $4,000,000 of them were drawn out of the United States Treasury in two days last week and the demand is still strong. The New York banks report heavy drafts of dimes, until now the aggregate of such coins in that great financial center is only about $150,000, while Baltimore banks have only about $5,000 of them. One Treasury official attributes the scarcity to the vacation season. He says that annually women and children, and some men also, procure dime savings banks which they proceed to fill leisurely with odd change in anticipation of the midsummer holiday. With tens of thousands of persons putting away the little coins daily, it doesn't take a great while for the effect to be felt. If that theory is correct, the scarcity will be relieved before long, as the little savings banks are being broken open with a succession of cracks like reeds in a hot fire.—[Savannah News.

Too Many Heads Spoil Doors.

It appears that not only are the bronze doors of the new Capitol building at Harrisburg ornamented with the heads of Pennsylvania politicians, but that the fresco artist was moved with a similar spirit, and has perpetuated, or perpetrated, the heads of the contractors, the former State Treasurer, the Auditor General and a number of other living politicians in the fresco work of the Capitol. By the diligent use of the chisel and the paint brush most of these dignitaries will be eclipsed before the dedication of the building in October, and Pennsylvanians of the future will be compelled to go elsewhere to find memorials of the greatness of the politicians who happened to be in power when the new Capitol was built.—[New York Tribune.

ON THE FUNNY BONE

A Modern Instance.

He started life a working man
And labored hard each day.
His little wife was quick to plan
And helped him on his way.

His little wife did wash and scrub;
And when her beauty fled
She little cared, so long as hub
Was forging right ahead.

His hoarded treasure grew and grew.
He handled it with care
And soon became, as all men knew,
A multimillionaire.

And then his lawyers came and told
His wife that she must go.
They handed her some bonds and gold
And left her to her woe.

For he was tired (to reach the pith)
Of this poor faded pearl
And wanted to replace her with
A painted chorus girl.

This fellow's case is not so rare;
His is a growing clan.
To-day he's but a millionaire—
He used to be a man.

[From Judge.]

It's a pretty good world after all, my friend;
It's a pretty good world after all.
Spring, summer, winter and fall, my friend,
It's a pretty good world after all.
Suppose the skies are a trifle gray;
Suppose that night is longer than day;
Suppose that things don't come your way—
It's a pretty good world after all.

It's a pretty good world after all, my friend;
It's a pretty good world after all.
Sing ho! for the jolly old ball, my friend—
It's a pretty good world after all.
There's less of the false than of the true.
What is the use of feeling blue?
Fortune is going to smile on you—
It's a pretty good world after all.

It's a pretty good world after all, my friend;
It's a pretty good world after all.
If you've read this you may recall, my friend,
It's a pretty good world after all.
I guess I've said it about enough,
But they say that the people like that stuff,
And when magazines buy that line of guff
It's a pretty good world after all.

LARGE CROWD ENJOYS DAY AT THE FERRY.

Louisville dairymen enjoyed an outing yesterday afternoon and last night at Fontaine Ferry Park. It was a merry and a large crowd at the resort, with the theater proving a particularly strong drawing card on account of the excellent bill given this week. One of the best athletic acts of the season is given by the Belford troupe, seven tumblers, who introduce many original stunts. The second in the week's series of skating contests was held last night. Couples are entered in these contests, and the final one will be held to-morrow evening, when the couple receiving the highest total for the three evenings will be awarded the prize. A pair of nickel-plated roller skates will be given both members of the winning couple.

Bluegrass Newspaper Man On Duty In Far East.

[Manila American.]

Kentucky is supplying her quota to the ranks of the "exiles" who are doing outpost duty on the "farthest" American frontier. The latest re-enforcement from the Bluegrass is Ernest W. Helm, formerly managing editor of the Lexington Herald, who arrived on the Rubi to serve in the capacity of lieutenant of constabulary. Lieut. Helm comes highly recommended by the press of Kentucky, with which he was so prominently identified. The Lexington Herald, of which he was managing editor, says anent his coming: "For over ten years Mr. Helm has been connected with the Lexington Herald. NEW OFFICERS

Elected by New Albany School Trustees.

CHARLES DAY CHOSEN AS PRESIDENT.

GEORGE MOSER, TREASURER; E. S. GWIN, SECRETARY.

NEW MEMBER TAKES SEAT.

The Board of Trustees of the New Albany public schools met yesterday morning at the office of Supt. Charles A. Prosser, in the High School building, and effected an organization for the ensuing year. A law enacted by the last Legislature of Indiana required that school boards meet the first five days in August to organize. George Moser, who was elected by the New Albany Common Council last June, took his seat, succeeding George Borgerding, who retires by the expiration of his term.

Officers were elected by the new board as follows: President, Charles Day; treasurer, George Moser; secretary, Earl S. Gwin. These officers have filed their bonds as follows: Treasurer, $100,000; president and secretary, $35,000 each. The bonds will be submitted to the Board of County Commissioners at the meeting of that body next week for approval.

Succesful Ball Player.

Roscoe Miller, a former resident of New Albany, who has been on the pitching staff of the Des Moines Club in the Western League, has been sold to the Cleveland Club in the American League, $2,500 having been paid for his release, and he will join that team the middle of this month. J. Fred Maas, of New Albany, received a letter yesterday from Mr. Miller, in which he stated that during the present season he had won twenty-two games, lost four and officiated in one tie game, giving him an average of .846. He was formerly with the Detroits and Pittsburgs, and last spring signed with the Seattle Club in the Pacific Coast League. The climate there did not agree with him, and securing his release, he signed with the Des Moines. That club is now leader in the Western League, mainly due to Miller's skilful pitching.

Squirrel Season Opens.

The open season for squirrels began in Indiana yesterday morning, and will continue until February 1, except that between October 1 and November 10, no game may be shot excepting water fowl, even the killing of rabbits being prohibited. Farmers report squirrels in great abundance, and a score of New Albany sportsmen left yesterday for the southern part of Harrison county, where game is unusually plentiful this season. It is said in that section that the little animals are so plentiful as to be a nuisance, and farmers complain that they have wrought much destruction on the growing corn.

ITEMS OF INTEREST IN NEW ALBANY.

—James M. McIntosh, of Connersville, National Bank Examiner, was here yesterday, and made the semi-annual examination of the Second National Bank.

—New Albany Camp, Modern Woodmen of America, at a meeting to-night will initiate a class of fifteen. Another class of fifty or more will be initiated in October.

—Mr. and Mrs. Sheridan Everest and their sister, Miss Carrie Beers, who have been spending a few weeks with New Albany relatives, left yesterday for their home in South Dakota.

—A big yield of wheat crop in Southern Indiana has greatly encouraged the farmers, and the indications are that the greatest acreage in the history of the State will be sown in that cereal in the fall.

—Hereafter employes of the Louisville and Southern Indiana Traction Company will receive their orders from J. C. Henderson, assistant to the president, Samuel Insull, a bulletin to that effect having been posted.

—During the month of July 105 arrests were made by the police. Of these, 31 were for intoxication, 25 for assault and battery, 4 for assault and battery with intent to kill, 15 for provoke, and the others for minor offenses.

—The internal revenue collections for July at the office of the deputy collector in this city were: Beer, $2,380; cigars, $593.70; tobacco, $161.34. Total, $3,135.40. During the month there were eighty-three wholesale liquor dealers' stamps issued.

—Benjamin F. Cline has been elected a member of the New Albany Township Advisory Board to fill a vacancy. The terms of the present members will expire January 1, 1907, and their successors will be chosen at the general election in November.

—A permit has been issued by City Clerk Eugene Brisby to Harvey Borden to erect a cottage on Elm street, between Jay and Silver, at a cost of $1,000. Andrew Connell has also been granted a permit to repair a cottage on West Spring street, between Spring and Elm, to cost $300.

—A fine mare valued at $250, owned by Dr. Frank Bayliff, entangled one of her hind legs in a halter in her stall at the stable of her owner, on East Spring street. In her struggles she fell against the manger and fractured her skull, the injury causing her death yesterday morning.

—The X Y Z Paint Supply Company, of Princeton, will remove its plant to this city. Several New Albany men are on the Board of Directors of the company, and much of its stock is held here. The company is engaged in the manufacture of paints, especially for railroad uses, and the institution will give employment to a number of men.

—Mrs. J. H. Dorst, an old resident of the city, fell at her home, West Second and Market streets, in an attack of vertigo, and sustained injuries. She is the widow of John H. Dorst, at one time a member of the New Albany Common Council, and the stepmother of Col. Joseph H. Dorst, who distinguished himself during the Spanish-American War.

—The Rev. U. S. Clutton, of this city, and the Rev. W. E. Hunter, of Borden, have arranged to conduct all-day Sunday-school institutes in the Baptist churches of Washington county as follows: At Mill Creek, August 14; Rush Creek, August 15; Blue River, August 16. At the evening services stereopticon views will be used to illustrate the talks.

—With the close of July the membership of the Y. M. C. A. has increased to 501, and the members are so much encouraged over their success during the last few months that they are determined to run the list up to 600 by January 1, 1907. The association now has the largest list of members for a number of years, and is enjoying a gratifying condition of prosperity.

—The body of Walter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Christian Hauswald, of Greenville township, who died at the Deaconess Hospital, Louisville, yesterday, will be brought here this morning and taken to the home of his parents, north of the city. His death was due to typhoid fever, from which he had been suffering for several weeks. He was twenty-three years old and unmarried.

—George Morga, charged with assault and battery, and Palmer Morga, his son, for provoke, appeared in the City Court yesterday morning and their cases were dismissed, the prosecuting witness, James T. Hand, of Louisville, having failed to appear. Hand was married to Morga's daughter, and he had the father-in-law and brother-in-law arrested. They said that they had neither assaulted nor provoked him.

NOTES OF THE NEWS IN JEFFERSONVILLE.

—Capt. Clegg yesterday swore out a warrant for the arrest of Eugene Russell, who is charged with allowing a horse to run at large on Sparks avenue.

—Numerous persons from this city who have engaged tents at Glenwood Park for the Chautauqua assembly, which begins to-morrow, will begin moving to-day to remain on the grounds until August 13.

—Washington Bibbs, colored, was before Magistrate B. J. Ferguson yesterday morning on a paternity charge filed by Mary Taylor, which was settled by the defendant marrying the prosecuting witness.

—John Koetter, administrator of the estate of Bernard Bussman, filed his final report yesterday, which will be acted upon at the September term of court. He shows he collected $476.38 and still has on hand $368.68.

—Patrick Gavin, who conducts a saloon at Market and Spring streets, was fined $50 and costs in the City Court yesterday morning on the charge of selling liquor on Sunday. He filed a bond for an appeal to the Circuit Court.

—After making a record of reaching 1,125, the count at the Indiana Reformatory has begun to decrease, and last night it was 1,119, four men who were recommended for parole at the June meeting having been released during the day.

—Judge Schwaninger yesterday morning dismissed the charge of trespass that was filed against Bettie Lee by Minnie Everett. The accused claimed she had gone to a house that her husband paid rent for and was put out by the prosecuting witness.

—The condition of Peter Dillon, a former member of the Board of County Commissioners, who is at the Deaconess Hospital, is become critical. He is suffering from Bright's disease, which has reached a point where uraemic poisoning has set in.

—The Prohibition party meeting that was announced for yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock failed to materialize, although A. L. Crim and C. E. Newlin, who were to deliver the addresses, were in the city for a time. They spoke at Sellersburg last night.

—James Leach and more than a dozen others, who are interested as heirs in an estate, have conveyed to William Dreyer, in the office of George W. Stoner, Recorder of Clark county, 145 acres of land in grants 130, 121, 147 and 148 for a consideration of $1,850.

—The monthly session of the Board of Managers of the Indiana Reformatory was completed in a few hours yesterday, the better part of the time being taken up as a parole court, and sixteen inmates, of an eligible list of forty, were recommended for release.

—The Jeffersonville Township Advisory Board, at its annual meeting, will be asked to appropriate $9,800 for various purposes, which will make the tax rate seventy cents on the $100 valuation of property. The largest amount asked for is $1,800 for school purposes.

—A conference was held between W. G. Young and Charles Strauch, members of the City Council, and R. W. Walt, of the traction company, relative to the request to make Mulberry street and Court avenue a stopping place for the interurban cars, but no definite decision was reached.

—Plans for the new Knights of Pythias armory that is to be erected on the old site on Pearl street have been submitted to Company No. 9, Uniform Rank, by Clarence Howard for approval. The estimated cost of the building is $13,000, and it is to cover a ground space of 75x150 feet.

—Idella Rose, colored, who conducts a restaurant at 521 Spring street, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Capt. Clegg on a complaint made by Jack Ryan, of the garbage department, on the charge of throwing trash in Kentucky avenue. She will be given a hearing this morning.

—Mayor H. A. Burtt issued a proclamation yesterday declaring Friday afternoon a half holiday on account of the opening of the third annual assembly of the Jeffersonville and New Albany Chautauqua Association at Glenwood Park. The merchants are requested to close their places of business.

LIGHT FICTION FROM LIBRARY FAVORITE VACATION READING

Few Desire to Peruse History and Fiction In Hot Weather, But Summer Privilege Proves Popular.

In spite of the warm weather and the disinclination of the ordinary citizen to peruse works of history and science during the "dog days" the attaches of the Louisville Free Public Library find plenty to do at this season of the year. According to Librarian William F. Yust the demand for reading matter is unusually heavy for midsummer, and the library staff, which is greatly diminished owing to vacation time, is compelled to labor overtime in order that the routine work at the library may be carried on smoothly and without hitch.

The librarian's report for July shows an unusually large attendance of readers at the various branches of the institution. There has been a large demand for vacation reading, works of light fiction predominating among the 14,070 volumes loaned at the main branch to cardholders during the month. The summer privilege arrangement by which patrons of the library are not limited to the number of volumes that they may take from the library on a single presentation of their cards, has proved decidedly popular. The arrangement permits cardholders to secure several volumes at one time, and if a limit is placed on the number of volumes taken out, it is done according to the judgment of the library authorities. Patrons securing books under the summer privilege arrangement have until September 1 to return them to the library. The arrangement went into effect June 1, giving readers three full months in which they were permitted to keep the volumes in their possession. The arrangement applies to all volumes in the library with the exception of recent works of fiction, which are loaned for a period of seven days, and which are to be returned subject to the call of the librarian within a shorter time if the demand for the volumes warrants such action.

Librarian Yust said yesterday that the summer arrangement had worked very satisfactorily thus far, but that the privilege had been abused in some instances by persons having summer homes within a short distance of the city, who have borrowed large numbers of books and kept them from the library for a longer time than they properly should. The arrangement was perfected mainly for the purpose of assisting students and others having a vacation during the summer months to study works of science and other educational volumes.

The attendance at the main library during July was 25,974. All of the reports from the branches had not been received by Librarian Yust yesterday. The colored branch reported an attendance of 2,276 and 1,743 books issued to cardholders during the month. There are now 1,802 cardholders at the colored branch, of which 165 were added during the month.

BEGGAR GLAD TO LEAVE LOUISVILLE AFTER EXAMINATION

Finds That Dr. Hawes Is Not An "Easy Mark" For "Hard Luck Stories."

Through the timely intervention of Dr. E. Hawes, agent of the western district of the Louisville Charity Organization, the charitably-disposed public of Louisville escaped being imposed upon by William H. Moore, who was posing yesterday afternoon as a man in destitute circumstances. Moore went to the Charity Organization yesterday and asked for money enough to defray the expense of a night's lodging. He told a "hard-luck" story of how he fell from a smokestack in Indianapolis several months ago and sustained injuries of the spine; of how all his hard-earned money was expended in paying doctors' bills.

He said that he wished to go back to his home in Brookhaven, Miss., and in order to do so he had come to Louisville, at the advice of his friends, expecting to obtain a position, even though he was crippled. In fact, he said that he had come here with hardly a cent in his pocket and, now that he was here, he hardly had a pocket that would hold a cent.

Unable to obtain employment, he had resorted to begging, but benevolent givers were few in Louisville, and so he had gone to request the aid of the Charity Organization as a last resource.

Dr. Hawes attempted to verify these statements by means of a cross-examination, when the man became so restless under the questions that he turned to the door and started to leave. Dr. Hawes threatened him with a lodging in jail if he refused to answer his questions, and Moore, thoroughly frightened, readily seated himself and replied to the questions. Dr. Hawes soon became convinced that the man was an impostor and he frightened him so badly that Moore begged to be allowed to leave, promising that he would leave Louisville at once.

FIELD DAY FOR NEW MEMBERS

PLANNED BY COMMITTEE OF COMMERCIAL CLUB.

AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION INVITED TO LOUISVILLE

FOR SESSION OF 1907.

Twenty-nine new members were added to the Commercial Club at the meeting of the directors yesterday afternoon, and it was announced that a field day for the acquiring of additional members would be observed by the Membership Committee of the club some time this fall. The whole of that day, which is to be appointed later, will be devoted by the entire membership of the committee to the soliciting of new members. In squads of three or four they will set out prepared for a canvass of the whole city. It is expected that the canvass will be productive.

The action of S. B. Lynd, vice president of the club, in offering the services of the organization to the Board of Control of the State Fair, was formally approved. A committee was appointed to push the project to purchase part of the Caldwell property for park purposes.

Of the twenty-nine members added to the club, seventeen were obtained by J. C. Van Pelt, alone, and eight by him and one other. The five reinstatements were obtained by Mr. Van Pelt. The new members are recruited from all businesses and professions. Smith T. Bailey is chairman of the committee.

The committee appointed to work on the plan to give the city a new park in the southeastern section, consists of Pinkney Varble, Judge James P. Gregory and W. H. Bradbury. The resolution which resulted in the appointment of the committee was introduced by W. C. Williams.

Action approving the offer of Mr. Lynd that the club should take charge of the exploitation of the State Fair was taken. All the directors indorsed the offer and expressed their pleasure that the offer had been accepted.

AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION

Invited To Meet In Louisville For Its Annual Sessions Next Summer.

The directors of the Board of Trade yesterday adopted a resolution inviting the American Bar Association to hold its annual convention for 1907 in Louisville. A suitable letter of invitation will be prepared for delivery to the headquarters. Similar action to that taken by the Board of Trade will be taken by the Kentucky Bar Association. The Commercial Club, at the meeting of its board of directors yesterday, took up the question of seconding the invitation, but did not act finally on a resolution to that effect introduced by R. A. McDowell. The resolution will be approved at the next meeting, it is expected.

ANNUAL REUNION OF MORGAN'S MEN

WILL BE HELD AT PARK HILL AUGUST 14-15.

VETERAN CAVALRYMEN WILL GATHER.

IS NO FIXED PROGRAMME.

Park Hill, near Carlisle, in Nicholas county, will be the scene of the reunion of the men, who fought under Morgan in the Civil War, August 14 and 15. At that time the Gen. John H. Morgan's Association of Confederate Veterans will meet there for the fourth or fifth time in as many years. The two-days' session of the association made up of men who rode with the Confederate cavalry leader will be informal. No set programme, except the election of officers, has been arranged. Addresses will be made by visiting members of the association, and the usual exchange of reminiscences will take place about the camp fires at night. Gen. Basil W. Duke is president of the association.

The place chosen for the reunion offers exceptional advantages for an assembly of that kind. On occasions of the reunions of the United Confederate Veterans, the men who were with Morgan find it difficult to see each other. Confederate veterans and friends of those who will assemble at Park Hill have been invited, but they will be few compared to the crowds the veterans have to strive against at the larger assemblies.

Horace Taylor, who was a member of Morgan's cavalry, is at the head of a Baptist convention something in the nature of chautauqua, which is held at Park Hill every summer. He makes arrangements for the assembling of his old comrades after the other Baptists have gone. Most of those who attend the annual reunions are residents of the central part of Kentucky. They have found it convenient and pleasant to assemble at that place.

Excursion tickets will be sold to Park Hill from Berea, Lexington, Stanford, Cincinnati, Maysville, Louisville and intermediate points at one and one-third fare. Tickets will be sold August 13, 14 and 15, and will be limited to August 16. The certificate plan will be in effect for those who are unable to procure round trip tickets.

COUPLE FAIL TO OBTAIN MARRIAGE LICENSE.

Albert J. Cary and Ethel Risinger, who eloped to Jeffersonville yesterday from Crothchel, Jefferson county, Ky., for the purpose of getting married, returned later in the day without accomplishing their purpose and sad of heart. They first went to the home of Magistrate B. T. Nixon. Cary said he was twenty-three years old, and that his fiancee was twenty. They were told that it would be impossible for them to get a license without an affidavit that they were of age, and they said they knew no one in Jeffersonville. George W. Badger, Circuit Clerk, was told of the conditions and waited for the couple to arrive.

They finally made their appearance in company with a Jeffersonville man, whose name was not made public and he was called aside by Mr. Badger, who warned him that if he was not positive of the girl's age, he was in a fair way to get into trouble by making an affidavit and this ended the efforts of the pair to get a license for the time being, but they said they would return another time with some one from Kentucky who knew them. Cary said he was born February 27, 1883 and is a laborer. Miss Risinger gave the date of her birth as June 1, 1887. She is the daughter of a farmer.

BOY MISSING AND MOTHER FEARS SUICIDE.

Isadore Morris, aged sixteen years, disappeared from his home, 271 East Market street, two weeks ago and has caused his mother, Mrs. Sophia Morris, much anxiety because of the many threats to commit suicide that she said he had made previous to his disappearance. He was employed as doorboy at The Seelbach, had been sick for some time, and, because apparently he grew no better, he became despondent. When he left home his face was swollen as a result of his cheek having been lanced.

According to his mother, he often spoke of going to either Denver, New Orleans, St. Louis or New York. If he is living still his mother announced her readiness and willingness to supply his wants, if he is in need, or to send him a railroad ticket if he is willing to return home.

FLORIDA ICE TRUST PROMISES TO BE GOOD.

Jacksonville, Fla., Aug. 1.—Prosecution of the alleged ice trust came to an end to-day by the ice manufacturers entering into an agreement with the prosecuting attorney whereby they promise to at once dissolve the Jacksonville Ice Delivery Company, the alleged combination of manufacturers in restraint of trade, and the giving of a written guarantee that they will sell ice to consumers at greatly reduced prices, the minimum being twenty-five cents for 100 pounds.

THOUGHT THAT NEGRO WAS DROWNED.

Gallipolis, O., Aug. 1.—When the steamer Henry M. Stanley was two miles from here early to-day a negro entered the cabin of a Cincinnati passenger and attempted to assault her. He was discovered and driven over the side of the boat by the captain. As no trace could afterward be found of him, it is believed that he was drowned.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT FOR MISS JOHNSTON.

Albert Sidney Johnston Chapter, U. D. C., Honor Her Memory.

The resolutions which follow were adopted by the members of Albert Sidney Johnston Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, yesterday, Miss Henrietta Preston Johnston, who died at St. Joseph's Infirmary Sunday night, was an honorary member of the chapter and daughter of Gen. Albert Sidney Johnston, after whom the chapter was named. The resolutions follow:

Whereas, The Ruler of all Things has in His wisdom taken from this earth the soul of our beloved friend and sister, Henrietta Preston Johnston; and,

Whereas, Her death is felt as an especial bereavement by the Albert Sidney Johnston Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, we, the members of that chapter, desire to testify to the regard we entertained for her in life and our sorrow that she has been removed from our midst; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we lament her loss as that of a true, high-souled woman, who in all her days was loyal to every duty and obligation, and whose friendship blessed and honored those to whom it was given. Through many years, devoted to noblest purpose and useful effort, she furnished an example beautiful and admirable — of piety, charity, affectionate solicitude for those she loved, and sincere, unselfish consideration for all who came within her sphere of life. All who knew her will revere her memory, and we, the members of the chapter named, for her heroic father, will love and cherish it with peculiar care.

FEAR RESULTS.

New York Republicans a Bit Dubious

REGARDING STAND-PAT CAMPAIGN ON TARIFF.

LEADERS TO TRY OLD-TIME SCARING PROCESS.

THE PRESIDENT'S ATTITUDE.

New York, Aug. 1.—[Special.]—Much dissatisfaction is being manifested in Republican circles over the announcement that the party programme in the coming Congressional Campaign is to be stand pat. Many fear the result of such a policy. They urge that the great mass of voters don't want the Republican party to stand pat; that it cannot do so with any hope of victory. For the policy and message of President Roosevelt, and the bitter contests of Cummins in Iowa, and La Follette in Wisconsin have so brought to the attention of the public, the need of legislation on the tariff, and for the further regulation of trusts and railroads, and other corporations that the Republican party cannot afford to ignore these issues in the approaching campaign.

Much regret is especially due to the determination to stand pat on the tariff. New York Republicans believe that if there ever was an issue upon which it was expedient for a party to take an advanced position, the tariff is one at the present day. This policy of shackling it to the old-time policy of extreme protection, in the face of a strong sentiment inside of the Republican party for revision is an act of folly. New York wants to know what the answer of Massachusetts will be, whether it will take the form of electing a Democrat, Governor, next November, the same as it did in 1904. There is the Middle West also, where the sentiment for a change is also strong. Will its voters stand pat at the coming Congressional election? Many Republicans believe that as a result, the party stands a great chance of losing control of the next House.

The stand-patters here, however, are preparing to attack those who favor a change by the same old methods, those of 1888, 1890 and 1892. In brief, they are going to try to convert the revisionists by the old-time scaring process. They ask those who cry so loudly for revision, whether they are aware what their cry means, the effect of changes in the tariff on the business world, and the workingman. It is the old picture they are preparing to paint, of factories closing down, or running on half time, and wages cut down owing to the uncertainty of what a new tariff law will be like. That this cry may be effective in some quarters goes without saying. The stand-patters, therefore urge that no change should ever be made in the tariff, unless a continuance of its rates mean disaster to our business interests and this they claim is not the case with us at the present time.

It is true, of course, that such a situation did prevail in prior years. That was what helped to elect a Democratic House in 1890 and a Republican one in 1894. Our business interests at the time were not strong enough to withstand the uncertainty attendant upon the enactment of a new revenue law. But all this is of the past. With increased resources developed and unlimited capital, the revisionists do not accept with any degree of seriousness the gloomy predictions of the stand-patters.

There is an interesting controversy taking place among Republicans as to whether President Roosevelt surrendered to the stand-patters in acceding to the present line of campaign. Ever since his message of 1904 it has been taken for granted that he favors a change in the schedule. This was one cause, and not a minor one, of his popularity in the Middle West. The progressives are now asking themselves whether the President has absolutely surrendered or for reasons of expediency given in to the stand-pat programme, but with the ultimate intention of bringing up the tariff as a subject for legislation after election. His acquiescence in the present policy of the campaign managers has been a great disappointment to many who hoped the party would have a straight fight on the issue this fall.

Russell Sage's Will.

For some days people waited with interest for further developments in the stories of a contest over the will of the late Russell Sage. It is very doubtful whether any heir will risk the bequest of $25,000 to do so. The chances of success would not warrant it. For it is very difficult to break a will in New York State on the ground of undue influence. The court usually goes to great lengths in sustaining it, and the undue influence to break a will must be of such a nature as that the testator was absolutely not permitted to make his own bequests. As a case in point, wills have been admitted to probate after contests where married men have made heavy bequests to their mistresses and practically nothing at all to their legitimate families. The A. T. Stewart contest was one of the greatest in point of public interest that New York ever had. Gen. Benjamin F. Butler, Elihu Root, Joseph H. Choate, the late Edward C. James and other leaders of the bar took part. The will was sustained and the estate came into the hands of the late Henry G. Hilton, who treated it as his personal property. The parcel on Thirty-second and Thirty-third streets fronting on Park avenue, which A. T. Stewart intended should be a home for working girls, was turned into a hotel, and similar bequests were also nullified by the executor.

Unions In Disrepute.

Just at the present time, when organized labor is about to enter politics, it is to be regretted that some of the unions have fallen into such disrepute in New York. There is the Housesmiths and Bridgemen's. The was the organization which Sam Parks bossed. Despite the fact that it was proven that he only ordered strikes where builders would not be blackmailed by him and that he even allowed his union to work where scabs were employed so long as he was "fixed," the Housesmiths and Bridgemen stuck to him. When Parks died, it was thought that this union would change for the better. But such a hope appears to be an idle one. The members were recently guilty of a most brutal murder of two special policemen employed on the iron structure being built on the old Hotel Plaza site and union influence is trying to save the culprits. Another union has tried to get rid of some men in a rival one by use of dynamite. These things do organized labor no good.

Lost Children.

Police Commissioner Bingham, who has sought to make changes in the existing order of things ever since he came to headquarters, recently abolished the Bureau of Lost Children, which was established by Police Commissioner Charles F. McLean, now a Justice of the Supreme Court, in 1892. Under the new rule, lost children will be kept at the various precinct station houses in charge of the matrons, and if no parents appear to claim them by

OWENS RUMPUS MAY CAUSE A. A.'S EXPULSION

CHICAGO, Ill., Aug. 1.—[Special.]—Directors of the American Association today cleared Umpire Clarence B. Owens of betting on baseball games and then turned its batteries on the Minneapolis Baseball Club. The censure of the persons back of the charges against Owens was veiled in legal phraseology, but contained enough of covert threats to make the franchise of the present owners of the Minneapolis Club insecure. In a resolution unanimously adopted, President O'Brien, of the Association, was directed to proceed immediately to locate the guilty party or parties, and to report to the board.

In passing on the charges against the umpire, the directors voted "that the said charges were falsely and maliciously made for the purpose of injuring said Clarence Owens."

Then in the resolution which followed, after mentioning the fact that charges had been filed by a person or persons interested in the Minneapolis Baseball Club, President O'Brien was directed to proceed against those guilty so that "adequate punishment could be meted out."

President Johnson, of the American League and member of the National Committee, said that body would take no action at present, but that in case the guilty parties should escape it might be possible that the whole American Association might be expelled from the National Association.

9 o'clock in the evening, they will be turned over to the Gerry Society. Under the old system in vogue for many years, it was customary for the lost children to be brought to the Bureau at headquarters every evening about 9 o'clock, and many stories are told over the joys of parents waiting there on the finding of their offsprings safe and sound.

New York Women.

Much amusement has been caused through the statement of the Gaekwar of Baroda, that our women were disappointing to him. The criticism itself has not been responsible for the smile, rather the manner in which the yellow press has rushed to the defense of our fair sex. Indeed, one is so far lacking in gallantry as to print the portraits of two of our American beauties beside that of the Gaekwar's very plain-looking wife. The New York woman may not be the most beautiful in the country, but she certainly knows how to dress in a manner that makes her the most attractive and fascinating to the eye. One but needs to promenade Fifth avenue of an autumn or winter's day, or go to the better class restaurants and theaters to appreciate the fact.

EDWARD LISSNER.

ACCEPTS THE CALL.

THE REV. DR. J. WALTON GRAYBILL COMES TO LOUISVILLE.

Will Become Pastor of the Westminster Presbyterian Church.

The Board of Trustees of the Westminster Presbyterian church have been notified by the Rev. Dr. J. Walton Graybill that he will accept their call to the pulpit of the church, taking the place of the Rev. J. W. Tyler, who resigned from the pastorate in June.

Dr. Graybill, until recently, held an important position in a college in Southern California, and since then has taught at Murfreesboro, Tenn. Mrs. Graybill was a Shelbyville girl and both she and Dr. Graybill have many friends in this section of Kentucky. Dr. Graybill is a native of Virginia. He will assume the pastorate of the church early in the fall.

THE BACHELOR'S CHILD.

He tosses her above his head,
He romps until his face is red,
He holds her arm's length just to see
The wonder of her witchery;
He talks in language soft and slow
That only little babies know,
He pauses now and then to gaze
Far off as if 'twere in a maze,
And then with sudden sigh and start
He presses her unto his heart.

He sits her highness on his knees
And hums her nursery melodies,
He shakes her rattle, jingles bells,
And, oh, such wondrous stories tells;
He lifts her little face to lay
Its softness on his own, and play
Her dimples were the deeps wherein
A thousand drops of dew had been
And with his lips upon the brink
He'd lean to them to kiss and drink.

He lets her sink upon his breast,
He sings her little lays of rest,
And when her little eyes are closed
And all her baby grace reposed,
He sits beside her little cot
Thinking of things so long forgot,
So far adown the long ago
Wherefrom the tender echoes flow
Of songs he heard, of gay love-rhyme,
On lips whose roses fade betime.

Be still—the shadows fill his room!
A wrinkled, lonely bachelor's doom
To yearn for things that passed him by,
To hold the memory of a sigh,
To glimpse the shadow of a face
Once sunbright with its girlish grace,
To toss in play and sing to sleep,
When all the lonely shadows creep
And o'er his heart a figure gleams—
The little baby of his dreams!

RIVER, BUSINESS AND WEATHER.

The river was falling last evening, with 4 feet 5 inches in the canal, 2 feet 3 inches on the falls, and 9 feet at the foot of the locks. Business good. Weather clear and cloudy.

DRIFTWOOD.

The beautiful Indiana will make a low-rate round-trip excursion to Cincinnati, leaving Saturday evening at 5 o'clock.... The Falls City for Kentucky river to-morrow afternoon....The Tarascon will leave for Evansville to-morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock....The Jeff ferryboats are busy now....A big party from Indiana will go to Cincinnati Saturday evening on the Indiana on her low-rate excursion trip....The fine Morning Star will leave for Evansville this afternoon at 4 o'clock. She was detained by a heavy business.... The Harry Brown and tow arrived from below and went on up the river....It is wonderful how popular the Saturday excursions to Cincinnati have become. The boats are fast and fine; the rate low, and the crowds increase as the season advances....The Indiana is the best side-wheel all-around business boat Ed Howard ever built. She has one of the handsomest cabins on the river....All the fishing camps on the Ohio above here are occupied, and the campers are having a good time this month....A Mobile dispatch says: "In the Tombigbee and Alabama rivers the highest stage of water prevails now that has been recorded at this season of the year since 1872. There has been a rise of 26 feet, which is unusual at this season. Rain has fallen continuously for weeks in the upper river districts, and boats arriving here to-day report the Alabama river still rising. Much uneasiness is felt in the lowlands. All the lowlands have been inundated, and considerable corn has been damaged. The rains have caused a heavy growth of grass in the cotton fields, and this crop is not without its threatened troubles. Many cattle have been drowned."....The Paducah Drydocks Company will repair thirty-six barges for the Ayer-Lord Tie Company....Boats at Evansville have no trouble getting full crews of coons for deckhands and roustabouts....The New Orleans Item says: "The steamboat men are all feeling happy over the prospect of big crops the coming season. The cotton crop is said to be the most promising for many years. The recent rains have had but little effect other than to give the plant size. It, of course, caused more or less grass and vines to grow, but caused little or no shedding of blooms and form. Should the crop meet with no untoward accident, it will be the largest for years."....The big tug, R. W. Wilmot, left New Orleans a few days ago with a tow for Tampa and Key West....One of the greatest speed contests between old-time Louisville and New Orleans steamers was the race between the Baltic and Diana, from New Orleans to Louisville, in May, 1858. The Baltic was commanded by the late Capt. Frank Carter, while the Diana was looked after by Capt. E. T. Sturgeon. The race had been arranged for many months before it took place, and the result was that fabulous sums were won and lost on its result in all parts of the world. The Baltic won the contest in 4 days 21 hours and 27 minutes, while the Diana's time was 4 days 22 hours and 11 minutes....The Falls City, for Kentucky river to-morrow, will have a crowd of round-trip people. These are fine trips, and are enjoyed by hundreds....The Evansville packets are busy as bees and making good time. The river has retained a good stage, and they are having no trouble on account of a scarcity of water....Capt. Thomas R. Botts died at his home in Bellevue, Ky., Tuesday. He was eighty-seven years of age....The Courier is running in the Cincinnati and Ashland trade....The new Evansville and Green river packet Evansville passed down for Evansville yesterday. She was formerly the Park City, but was entirely rebuilt on the marine ways at Madison. She is a well-built, handsome boat, and will be a very popular one.

RIVER TELEGRAMS.

Pittsburg, Pa., August 1.—[Special.]—Navigation in the Monongahela river at lock 5 will be suspended for a month beginning August 7. Extensive repairs have to be made to the dam and lock, and United States Engineer W. L. Sibert will close the lock Tuesday and begin the work. There is but one lock at No. 5, and it will be necessary to transfer freight and passengers. It is said that Capt. Fred Dippold intends to build, or buy, a small boat for use in connection with his business for the Monongahela River Consolidated Coal and Coke Company and that the Misses Dippold, who were recently granted pilot licenses, will run the boat. Capt. Harry Fairchild was given command to-day of the Ironsides owned by the River Coal Company. Pilots were sent to Louisville to-day to bring the Harry Brown up the river. There was 3.1 feet of water at Davis Island dam this evening and the river was falling.

Wheeling, W. Va., Aug. 1.—River 4 feet 1 inch, and falling. Departed: Bessie Smith, Parkersburg; Kanawha, Charleston.

Cincinnati, O., Aug. 1.—The Ohio river was 13.1 feet and rising to-day. The packets due arriving to-day were Henry M. Stanley, from Pomeroy; Courier, from Maysville; Greenland from above, and Indiana from Louisville. The departures of packets to-day were Courier, for Pomeroy and Charleston; Greenland, for Maysville, and City of Cincinnati for Louisville. The Greenwood is still laid up above undergoing repairs. Warmer and showers.

Evansville, Ind., Aug. 1.—River 9.7 feet, and falling. Clear and hot.

Cairo, Ill., Aug. 1.—River 20.3 feet, and falling. Fair and warm. Arrived: Ferd Herold, St. Louis, 12 m. Departed: Stacker Lee, St. Louis, 3 p. m.; Ferd Herold, Memphis, 2 p. m.

Memphis, Tenn., August 1.—[Special.]—River on stand; 14.9. Sallie Lee departed for Cairo. Towboat Sprague from the Ohio river with tow nine coal passed down for New Orleans. Government steamer Leota arrived from Louisville with dredge boat Betan in tow.

WINN AND HACKMEISTER FAIL TO AGREE ON DATES FOR LOUISVILLE

LATONIA SELECTIONS.

First Race—Posing, Prince of Pless, Esterre.
Second Race—Beautiful Mayo, Sir Vagrant, Gromobol.
Third Race — Field Lark, Mint Box Oasis.
Fourth Race — Ethel Day, Meadowbreeze, John English.
Fifth Race—Camille, Bottles, Morales.
Sixth Race — Capitano, Royal Legend, Oddoletta.
The one best bet, Ethel Day, fourth race.

LATONIA, Ky., Aug. 1.—The division of dates for the fall meetings to be held at Louisville still occupies the center of the spot light, and is still undecided. Manager Matt Winn, of the New Louisville Jockey Club, arrived here at noon to-day and was in consultation with Joseph Rhinock and John Hackmeister, the latter representing Louis Cella and Douglas Park, while Rhinock is generally admitted to be the power behind the throne at Latonia. Mr. Winn said:

"The meeting was quite decorous, and I fully believe that an amicable adjustment will be arranged in the very near future. I again outlined my position to Messrs. Hackmeister and Rhinock and reiterated that there was nothing doing in the 'pooling' line. Churchill Downs has run in the past, and must run in the future, independently and on its past good record of cleanliness. I submitted the proposition that in view of the fact that the fair would now be held at Churchill Downs, it was favorable to me that Douglas Park open on Labor Day, run two weeks, then lay off the week of the fair and continue until the first of October, when the running would be taken up at Churchill Downs, for, say, fifteen or twenty days. This is all that the city will stand. Mr. Hackmeister took the matter under advisement with Mr. Cella, who is in New York, and with the object of receiving an answer in the next twenty-four hours I have remained over. This is my last suggestion in the matter; I must protect my fellow-associates, and intend to, irrespective of any faction or factions to the bitter end. Should Cella not agree to these terms, why we will go right on and make our own arrangements, which, I know from past experience, will fully meet with the approval of every citizen of Louisville.

* * *

Twenty-day Proposition.

"I put my proposition to Mr. Hackmeister about the twenty-day plan, and he hesitated. He adroitly and diplomatically talked peace and good will as to racing in Louisville, but when it came to talking business as to dates he would invariably sidetrack. It looked as if he had been told by his chief, Mr. Cella, not to agree to anything less than the original forty days, which they had selected to run at Douglas Park over a fortnight ago. Of course, Mr. Hackmeister would not sign an agreement with me for twenty days when Mr. Cella had instructed him that it would be forty days and no less.

"I have the good of the racing game in Louisville and Kentucky at heart, and, with my experience, I am satisfied that forty days even would be overdoing it to some extent. More than that, it would cause a feeling here like that which existed in Missouri and Illinois previous to the closing of the sport in those States. Those facts staring one in the face, and I, having the welfare of the stockholders and owners of Churchill Downs in view, solicited Mr. Hackmeister's good offices in bringing about a logical settlement of a proposition which threatens the future of racing in its very home, and where, throughout the length and breadth of the land, people who admire honest running of horses turn their eyes.

Will Race At Any Event.

"No matter what conclusion Mr. Cella reaches, Churchill Downs, the bulwark of racing in the West, the one spot known to people who admire the game for what Kentucky has made it, will have a meeting this fall of at least three weeks' duration. Of course, the meeting will be in October, following the State Fair. On behalf of the New Louisville Jockey Club Churchill Downs has been turned over to the management of that enterprise and all of the men interested in Churchill Downs will devote their time and energy in making the fair more than a success. The business men of Louisville knew where to look when they needed assistance. They got it without any begging and we were more than pleased to be of service to the fair promoters. We know that it is going to be a great event. It will have no heartier supporters than the New Louisville Jockey Club. I shall take personal supervision of the racing programme at the fair. These races will be given just as if they were being run during a regular meeting at the Downs, and everybody knows what this means. It means class, and racing without class is a slow mule race in a back township in Poorland county."

* * *

Horsemen Stand By Winn.

While here many horsemen congratulated Mr. Winn on the stand which he has taken in the matter and assured him of their loyalty and a willingness to stick to him and his association through thick and thin. In refusing to entertain the question of "pooling" the two tracks, Mr. Winn has seemingly made a ten-strike, both with the horsemen and turf followers, who all agree that it would be detrimental to the turf interests in the West.

Secretary Dillon was advised this afternoon that Jockey W. Buchanan had been granted a license and to allow him to accept mounts.

The fifth race this afternoon was declared off on account of withdrawals. Elastic, the main contender, ran away two miles in his morning work and pulled up so lame that it is expected that he will be permanently thrown out of training.

Leo Bright Wins Opener.

The day's opener, at one mile, a condition affair, for three-year-olds and up, with the selling clause appended, brought together a very mediocre lot of platers, of which Leo Bright was most fancied by the wise fish. This proved excellent dope, for, under a most capable ride at the hands of Austin, the Ward trick came away in the run home, winning going away by a good open length. Of the balance of the "dogs" that paraded, Injunction, which was uncovered by Mose Goldblatt, was the next in demand, being well supported at sixes. The race proved a most open one. Sea Mate essayed to set the pace, which he did for three-quarters; then chucked it up to Prince of Pless. The latter trick was raced off his feet trying to overhaul the leader in the first half, with the consequence that he had nothing left when the real racing began. The fight for the place was a bitter

Leo Bright, well ridden, laid away from the early pace, and, moving up strong turning for home, raced down the leaders in the final furlong, winning with plenty to spare. My Gem, outrun in the early stages, closed stoutly on her own courage. Sea Mate had the foot in the early stages but failed to stick. Alma Gardia, well ridden, could never get up. Injunction met with considerable interference, but for which he might have been closer up. St. Sever, poorly ridden, stopped after going a half. Yachting Girl was as good as left.

535—SECOND RACE—Five furlongs. Purse $400. For two-year-old fillies; selling. Start good; won driving; second and third same. Winner, E. Corrigan's b. f. 2, by Scintillant II.—Lucerne. Trained by W. Whalen. Value to winner, $300. Fractional time: :24 3-5, :49, 1:02 1-5.

Margie, showing sudden improvement, forced a fast pace and, standing a long drive gamely, wore down and outgamed Decklaw in the last sixteenth. The latter had keen speed and looked all over the winner entering the final furlong, but tired unexpectedly. Aline Crockett, probably best, had a very rough trip, but closed strong when she got clear sailing. Gabble ran forwardly for the entire trip, but hung a trifle in the final drive. Sea Sand had a very rough trip; will probably show improvement from this effort. Lady Vimont ran a nice even race from a poor beginning. Coco had a flash of speed for a half and then stopped; may have been short.

536—THIRD RACE—One mile; purse $400; for three-year-olds and upward; selling. Start good. Won driving; place same. Winner T. P. Hayes' br. g., 3, by Tithonus—Valerianna; trained by owner. Value to winner $300. Fractional time: :24 2-5, :49 2-5, 1:16 2-5, 1:42.

*Lost rider.

The winner avoided the early pace, and closing with a well-timed rattle turning for home, won well in hand. Oberon, very badly mussed about and weakly handled at the end, was easily second best. Search Me, pinched off rounding the first turn, closed strong. Labor, hard ridden all of the final quarter, had no excuse. Dr. Burch led on sufferance; quit all over when collared. Lady Charade stumbled at start, losing rider.

537—FOURTH RACE—Steeplechase, Club House course; purse $400; for three-year-olds and upward; handicap. Start good. Won easily; second and third same. Winner J. S. Bratton's b. g. 8, by Ben Brush—Innerdale; trained by R. Stickney. Value to winner $300. Time, 3:30.

The winner, running forwardly and fencing cleanly raced down Subador going to the ninth, and drawing away in the run home on the flat won with something to spare. Subador had the foot of the party through the field, but was weakly handled on the flat. Class Leader trailed along in the rear during the early stages and closed fast in the run home, and outgamed Frank Mc. Faraday, Jr., looks on the verge of a break down. Snowdrift lost rider at the fourth while leading. Naran ran out at the third.

The original race declared off and the following substituted:

538—FIFTH RACE—Six furlongs; purse $400; for three-year-olds and up; selling. Start bad. Won easily; second and third driving. Winner, J. C. Ferris, Jr.'s b. f. 3, by The Roman—Rival; trained by R. Cassaday. Value to winner, $300. Fractional time: :24, :48 2-5, 1:14 1-5.

The winner, running to her best form and favored by clear sailing, flashed into a long lead in the first half, winning in a common canter. Zinda, outrun in the early stages, closed fast in the run home, outgaming Airship. The latter was a trifle shy on speed and can do better. Early Hours closed strong from a poor beginning. Collonade was outrun at all stages. Miss Anxious quit all over when the real racing commenced, and is a very poor betting proposition. Carthage had no speed. Can do better than this.

539—SIXTH RACE—One mile; purse $400; for four-year-olds and up; selling. Start good. Won driving; second and third same. Winner, E. J. Gildersleeve's ch. m., 5, by Balgowan—Miss Baker; trained by J. S. Merchant. Value to winner, $300. Fractional time: :23 3-5, :48 4-5, 1:14 1-5, 1:41 1-5.

The winner, running to her best form, was best. Ran in close pursuit to the head of the stretch, where she assumed command, winning with plenty to spare. Bullfinch, pinched off rounding the first turn, ran all round his field turning for home, and had clear sailing and no excuses. Ida Davis ran well for three-quarters, then quit. Docile ran her race. Intense can do better.

one. My Gem, a long shot in the betting, got the decision, while Sea Mate got the short end.

Killing Nipped In the Bud.

A killing of considerable proportions was only nipped by the shortest of margins in the second, which was, at five furlongs. In this Decklaw, a very likely looking filly, by Bedeck — Lulu W., was supposed to be the "oil in the can." The books opened the Brosius filly at 10 to 1, but the price proved only a stall, as they quickly rubbed to fives, at which figure the bulk of the money wagered was set in. Margie, Edward Corrigan's smart Scintillant II filly, always ruled favorite, and her price was forced by the Master of Hawthorne from the opener of twos to 8 to 5. The race proved to be between these two, with a big gap always separating them from the balance of the field. They broke head and head when the rubber was released, but rounding the far turn Decklaw flashed away into a lead of three lengths, which advantage she turned for home with, and, seemingly running well within herself, looked to be an easy winner. Nicol was hard at work on Margie and, persevering with her, she overhauled the good thing in the final furlong and, outgaming her when forced to a drive, won going away. It was one of Nicol's best endeavors and well merited the round of applause that greeted him when he returned to the judges' stand to dismount.

Larone Wins For Tom Hayes.

The third, which was over the mile journey, was somewhat marred by an accident to one of the choices, Lady Charade, which stumbled at the start, unseating her rider, C. Morris, who narrowly escaped being seriously injured as the two or three of the field passed over him. However, after Jake Holtman had given him a good shaking he came to none the worse for his experience. In the speculating market the play was about evenly divided among Larone, which opened a 9 to 5 favorite, Labor at 9 to 2 and Lady Charade, which was played exclusively by the paddock contingent. The plunge on the latter trick was mainly responsible for the price about Larone receding until 5 to 2 went begging. Oberon, too, had a good stable following, but this was mainly placed for the place and show. Larone, capably handled by Austin, was returned the winner. Laying within striking distance all the way, Austin sent his mount up with a rattle turning for home, winning well in hand. Oberon, which experienced considerable bad racing luck, closed very fast and outgamed Search Me for the place.

Dalesman Grabs the Steeple.

The steeplechase over the clubhouse course was carded as the day's attraction, and, although it brought forth a very poor lot of "leppers," it was productive of a very fair contest. The winner was returned in Dalesman, which was backed from 6s to 9 to 2. Subador, the favorite at 2 to 1, was second, and Class Leader in a drive got the short end from Frank Mc. Snowdrift, which had been well supported, fell at the fourth jump and Naran ran out at the second. After the accident to Snowdrift Subador assumed command and, opening up a commanding lead, looked all over the winner coming out of the field, but in the run home on the flat Dalesman collared him and won rather cleverly by a length and a half. The finish that Rice put up on Subador was a very weak endeavor and many thought that the judges would ask him to explain. Class Leader, running in improved form, trailed along in the rear for a turn of the field and, moving up with a rattle going to the ninth obstacle, closed strongest of all.

Oak Grove Upsets Talent.

The fifth which was substituted for the original race which was declared off on account of withdrawals, was one of those affairs that could be termed a "good thing" race and incidentally the best betting event of the day. Of the melons to be cut, Collonade, Mint Boy, Airship and Early Hours were the most fancied. Mint Boy being played from 5s to 8 to 5. Early Hours from 20 to 1 to 10s, Airship from 8s to 6s, while the price about Collonade which carried the big commissions receded from an opener of 6 to 5 to 5 to 2. All dope calculations, however, were knocked into a cocked hat when the long shot Oak Grove raced everything in the field dizzy and winning in a common canter with the lucrative odds of 30 to 1 about her chances. Owner Ferris was about the most surprised man on the track, and it was stated on the best authority that he had bet on Mint Boy. If this be true this is the second time that Ferris has done this and been whipsawed by his own nags. Malleable was the other trick to beat Mint Boy when he was a good thing on an other occasion, and only goes to show that owners sometimes underate their charges. Zinda, another long shot, annexed the place in a drive from Airship which had experienced a lot of interference.

Amberita Proves a Surprise.

The sixth, which was the closing race of the day, continued the long list of surprises which characterized the day's sport. This event was won by Amberita about which the fancy price of 10 to 1 was freely quoted. Half a length back of her came Bullfinch the 9 to 5 favorite, and a head back of him Shining Star, the lukewarm second choice at 2 to 1. What speculation there was on the race was about equally divided between the first and second choices. The winner ran in close pursuit to the head of the stretch where she drew away winning cleverly.

GALLANT DAN WINS SUNSHINE

With Jockey Koerner as Pilot, Defeats Good Field In Brighton Feature.

HEAVY RAIN MARS SPORT.

"Diamond Jim" Brady Gives $25,000 For F. A. Forsythe's Good Colt Fountainbleu.

TALENT GETS AN EVEN BREAK.

NEW YORK, August 1.—The heavy rain which began before the races at Brighton Beach to-day made the track a sea of mud and "mudders" of the pronounced type were in demand. The card was practically ruined by the withdrawals. Fountainblue, owned by F. A. Forsythe, a two-year-old colt by Oddfellow—Ferroe, was withdrawn from the Sunshine Stakes as he was sold to James Brady for $25,000.

Gallant Dan took the lead at the start in the Sunshine and, holding his advantage to the end, won handily by one and a half lengths from Frank Gill, with Penarris, an added starter, third. George S. Davis, favorite, and the only other starter, ran a poor race.

Gallant Dan was admirably rated by Jockey Charlie Koerner, the Kentucky rider who has to some extent taken the place of Miller in public favor since the departure of the latter for Saratoga. Koerner also rode Aneta Lady, winner of the opening dash, in great style after the Hastings filly had been backed from an opening of 5 down to 3 to 1. He also got the place on the two-year-old Hawk Fish in the closing event at odds around 8, 4 and 2. Easterners are beginning to take notice of Koerner's saddle abilities.

Tommy Griffin, the wily turfman, cut loose one of his melons in the closing event when he put over a grand looking filly by Plaudit—The Hayden, called Eudora. This was her second essay at the game.

Maj. Tom McDowell and his friends attempted a killing in the opening dash when they backed his Batten filly Banner for a bunch. She ran a disappointing race, though, and finished out of the money.

WEXFORD WINS FEATURE.

Defeats Good Field of Horses At Fort Erie.

Fort Erie Race Track, Aug. 1.—A big mid-week crowd was over from Buffalo to-day to see a card of six races. Betting was lively. The feature was the riding of Jockey Hogg, who captured the first two races on 7 to 2 and 12 to 1 choices, and finished second on another 12-to-1 shot.

The feature race proved easy for the Woolthorpe colt, Wexford, which ruled a favorite in the betting at odds on. Exclamation was heavily backed on account of Jockey Hogg having a leg on him, but failed to show. Peter Paul and Crowshade set all the pace. Peter Paul lasted long enough to get the place. Crowshade died away in the stretch run.

Jockey Willie Hogg, who has a penchant for capturing the opening event, piloted Olive Leaf to victory at 7 to 2 in a mile race. At that he only finished a nose in front of Lutie Mac, while Paul Deering, a 25-to-1 shot, was third. Olive Leaf had to go some in the final fifty yards. Ancient Witch, Olive Leaf and Chancellor Wallworth were on nearly even terms to the stretch turn.

Jockey Hogg turned the trick in the second, when he put over Chanida, which came from nowhere in the stretch, and, under Hogg's handling, got up in time to defeat the favorite, Bell the Cat, a half length on the post. Chief Deputy, which was as good as 30 to 1 in the betting, beat the barrier and looked to be a winner all over. At the head of the stretch he weakened, however, and third was the best he could do. Oak Leaf was prominent in the running, but proved to be a bit shy when it came to the finishing.

The third race for some of the best sprinters at the track, at three-quarters of a mile, developed into a hot contest between La Londe, Shine On and Governor Orman. Shine On was made the favorite, but the best he could do was second. La Londe got off on her toes and was never headed, winning pulled up by three lengths. Gov. Orman, which was also well up, finished in the third hole. It was strictly a three-horse race, as none of the rest of the field had a chance after the lifting of the barrier.

First Race—One mile:
Olive Leaf, 105 (Hogg), 7 to 2.........1
Lutie Mac, 103 (S. Schilling), 5 to 1.........2
Paul Deering, 105 (Persinger), 25 to 1.........3
Time, 1:41 4-5. Ancient Witch, Toots, Vestryman, Topsail, Marimbo, Wickford and Chancellor Walworth also ran.

Second Race—One mile and a sixteenth:
Chanida, 101 (Hogg), 12 to 1.........1
Bell the Cat, 106 (Dealy), 11 to 5.........2
Chief Deputy, 103 (A. Martin), 25 to 1.........3
Time, 1:48 1-5. Oak Leaf, Berry Waddell, Steel Trap, Madchen, Fra Filipo, Bendigo and Henry Ach also ran.

Third Race—Six furlongs:
La Londe, 102 (Wishard), 4 to 1.........1
Shine On, 100 (Kunz), 2 to 1.........2
Gov. Orman, 102 (W. Fischer), 11 to 5.........3
Time, 1:13. Andria, Stoner Hill, Loupania, Redwood II. and Sheen also ran.

Fourth Race—One mile and a sixteenth:
Wexford, 114 (Dealy), 4 to 5.........1
Peter Paul, 109 (Schaller), 15 to 1.........2
Bon Mot, 92 (Schilling), 7 to 1.........3
Time, 1:47 2-5. Crowshade and Exclamation also ran.

Fifth Race—Five and one-half furlongs:
Glimmer, 107 (J. Kelly), 11 to 5.........1
Mary Custis, 103 (Hogg), 12 to 1.........2
Pedro, 103 (W. Fischer), 8 to 1.........3
Time, 1:08 1-5. Francis Ermine, Josephine E., Ecclesiastic, Miss Lida, Moontide, St. Clair and Minot also ran.

Sixth Race—Mile and one-sixteenth:
Reticent, 104 (Schilling), 3 to 1.........1
Lady Jocelyn, 107 (Wishard), 6 to 1.........2
Miss Hawley, 98 (Lee), 5 to 2.........3
Time, 1:28 1-5. Townes, Margie Gaffney, Joe Levy, Vanity, Bassanio, George Vivian and Jungle Imp also ran.

Jockey Maher's Good Season.

Jockey Maher is having about his best season in England. Of his riding, the London Sportsman of July 20, says:

"D. Maher has now won the Eclipse Stakes three times, his previous successes having been secured by the aid of Cheers and Darley Dale, two of the worst horses that ever won the mammoth stake. The present bids fair to be known as Maher's year, as amongst other great races the famous American horseman has carried off the Kempton Jubilee Stakes, Woodcote Stakes, The Derby, Oaks, Manchester Cup and Ascot Gold Cup."

Maher was third in the list of winning jockeys on the British turf up to and including July 14, as tabled below:

Rank. Jockeys.	Mounts.	Wins.

Hawkins' Stable At Lexington.

Lexington, Ky., Aug. 1.—[Special.]—J. S. Hawkins arrived here last night from Fort Erie, with his stable of race horses, which will be quartered for about a month at the Kentucky Association track, where Mr. Hawkins will rest up his string and break his yearlings. Among the horses in the stable are Hyperion, Henry Watterson, Wing Ting, Flip, Nun's Veiling, Alline Cummings, Margaret Mars and Old Domino.

BARDSTOWN WINS GAME.

Defeats Springfields Before 1,000 People By Score of 6 To 3.

Springfield, Ky., Aug. 1.—[Special.]—More excitement and interest was never witnessed in a baseball game in Central Kentucky than the contest here to-day between the Bardstown and Springfield teams. The game was won by Bardstown by the score of 6 to 3. Over 1,000 ball-mad people saw the battle.

Bardstown sent over 200 rooters with its team on a special train. They were confident in the prowess of their pitcher, Young Fulton, who only allowed the Springfields five hits. The Springfield team was made up mostly of nonresidents, four of the players being regulars on the Reccius team, of Louisville. All the others but one were from other towns. The game was exciting throughout, and not until the last man was out did the crowd leave.

This was the second game of the series between Bardstown and Springfield. The first game resulted in a victory for Bardstown by the score of 8 to 0.

Matinee Trots At Lexington.

Lexington, Ky., Aug. 1.—[Special.]—Arrangements have been made for a one-day meet of the Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders' Association, August 6. The programme will consist of five events, the entries to which will close at 12 m. Thursday, and for record horses at 12 m. Saturday. President R. C. Elliott, of the association, will preside, and the races will be conducted under the National Trotting Association rules. No admission will be charged, and a large crowd of spectators is expected.

MRS. MARTHA SMITH DIES AT EASTWOOD.

Mrs. Martha Smith, widow of Frank B. Smith, died at her home at Eastwood, Jefferson county, yesterday. She is survived by three children, Thomas B. Smith and Mrs. Annie E. Duncan, of Eastwood, and Abner J. Smith, of Bay Minette, Ala. Two sisters, Mrs. Margaret Adams, of Louisville, and Mrs. Mary Irwin, of New Albany, and one brother, Capt. M. Hansbrough, of Hodgenville, also survive her. Mrs. Smith was born November 22, 1824. Funeral services will be held at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning at the Eastwood Methodist church, of which she was a member.

PUT STOP TO POOL SELLING

Newburg Officials Warn Off Gamblers On Cleveland Harness Races.

GAY BINGEN WINS FEATURE.

Alfalfa Takes First Money In Class For 2:12 Pacers With Prince Hal Second.

BILLY COLE GETS 2:15 PACE.

CLEVELAND, O., August 1.—The crowd was smaller for the third day's events at the Grand Circuit meeting than on the previous days, as it was considered the off day of the meeting. The banner event on the card was the sweepstakes for three-year-old trotters. Some high class colts were started. The race was only two heats.

The authorities in Newburg stopped pool selling in that hamlet this morning after the betting on the colt race had been started. Ed Custer sold for $25, Noma $17, Gay Bingen $10 and the field $6. James Brady's son of Pingen, 2:06¼ had a walk-away in this race.

W. L. Snow's imperial Allerton won the first and third heats in the 2:17 class trotting, The Phantom taking the middle heat.

In the 2:12 class pacing, Alfalfa showed up very well and won the second and third heats in easy style. Prince Hal won the first heat and finished second in the next two.

Billy Cole won the 2:15 class pacing in straight heats never being headed in the second and third heats. Sir Dair nosed Tommy Murphy's Cesto Boy out of second place right at the wire in the third heat, one of the best finishes of the day. Summaries:

BOTH GAMES TO COLONELS

They Take Double-Header From Hoosiers In Easy Fashion.

FIRST 6 TO 2, SECOND 11 TO 0.

Puttmann Holds the Indianapolis Batters Safe During the Opening Contest.

ELLIOTT ALSO INVINCIBLE.

NO particular harm will ever come to the Colonels' percentage column when the results are such as those in the two games played with the Hoosiers yesterday afternoon at Eclipse Park. Louisville took both games of the double-header from Indianapolis, the score being, first, 6 to 2, and, second, 11 to 0.

Once the Colonels broke into the run column it was all off. The Hoosiers were never able to head them. It looked in the first game as though the visitors had a chance, but the lead they took was temporary. The Colonels simply came after them and took the lead away, and there is not much else to tell, except in the details of the scores. A fact that speaks volumes by way of explanation is that the Colonels piled up an even thirty hits in the two games, while the Hoosiers were accumulating eleven.

* * *

The First Game.

Puttmann and Fisher did the twirling in the first game. Neither side could score until the fourth inning. In this round, for Louisville, Hallman led off with a single, stole second, went to third on Holmes' bad throw to Marcan, and scored on Woodruff's single.

The Hoosiers hung up two in their half of the fourth. James was first up, and received one of Puttmann's benders in his slats. Kahoe, next up, hit for three bases, scoring James. With two strikes on Marcan, James started to steal home. Marcan bunted to the pitcher and Kahoe crossed the plate in safety.

The Colonels tied things up in the fifth. Stovall hit safe to center, was sacrificed to second by Kenna, and came home on Shaw's pretty single to right. Shaw tried to go to second on the throw in, but was tagged by Marcan on Holmes' throw.

The Colonels cinched matters in the sixth. Sullivan singled, and went to third on Stovall's safety to right. Both scored on Kenna's triple to center. Kellum made a good run for the ball, but it got away from him and netted Kenna three sacks. Kenna came home on Shaw's long fly to right field. This made the score 5 to 2 for Louisville.

One run was added in the eighth. Stovall singled, and Kenna did likewise. Stovall then stole third, and came home on Shaw's safety. This ended the run-getting, giving the game to the Colonels by a score of 6 to 2.

The Second Game.

The story of the second game is quickly and easily told. It was simply a case of nothing but ginger on one side and all heart gone on the other. It was as easy a victory as the Colonels ever won, once they got going. There were singles, doubles and triples until the air was thick with them, and Elliott could easily have stretched his three-bagger into a home run if he had run. But he chose to take it easy, with the game beyond all dispute.

Elliott pitched a magnificent game. He had everything in stock that he needed, and the Hoosiers were at his mercy at all stages. Hickey got all that was coming to him. He simply got punctured and wilted.

Memphis Wins Double-Header.

Memphis, Aug. 1. — Liebhardt, for the fourth time for this season and the third time with Shreveport as the opposing team, pitched and won a double-header to-day. In the first of to-day's games Liebhardt's pitching was the feature, he holding the game safe at all stages. In the second game Beeker pitched a magnificent game. Memphis, however, won out in the ninth inning on a base on balls, a single, a bunt and Owens' hit. The locals played without an error in either game. Scores:

UMPIRE OWENS IS GUILTLESS

Charges Against American Association Indicator Fal Flat---Traducers To Be Punished.

CHICAGO, Aug. 1. — The charges against Clarence B. Owens, an umpire in the American Baseball Association, to the effect that he had placed bets on the result of games in which he officiated as umpire, was quickly disposed of to-day at a meeting of the board of directors, attended by representatives of the Louisville, Columbus, St. Paul, Indianapolis and Milwaukee teams. Owens' exoneration was complete.

Resolutions were adopted as follows, without a dissenting vote:

"That the charges were wholly and entirely false, maliciously made for the purpose of injuring Owens.

"That President O'Brien, of the American Baseball Association, investigate and determine the persons responsible for the charges, and that the individual or individuals be punished."

Owens appeared in his own behalf, denying absolutely the charges. The evidence against Owens consisted of three affidavits to the effect that Owens had put up $200 with certain persons, to be placed upon games which he should designate. In rebuttal, Mr. Owens' attorney, M. H. Boutelle, called as a witness a man named Robinson, who stated that he had been approached in a hotel in Minneapolis and offered $20 if he would make a similar affidavit against Owens. Robinson is a conductor, employed by the Northern Pacific railroad. Attorney Boutelle further declared that he was prepared to show that each of the affidavits offered in evidence was secured by the payment of money, and that one, if not all, of them was made under a fictitious name. There was no evidence against Owens other than the affidavits offered.

"It is now up to me make a thorough investigation," said President O'Brien. "I have no idea where it will lead to, but I will start immediately. We cannot stand for this sort of talk, as it does injury to everyone. An attempt was made to take Owens' bread and butter away from him and ruin his otherwise good reputation as an umpire."

German Trotter Doped.

Vienna, Aug. 1.—Louis Winan's trotter, Wigwag, holder of the European record, died suddenly at Baden, near here, yesterday after an attack of colic. Wigwag was engaged to take part in a big championship race to-day, and his death has caused a sensation, accompanied by suspicions of poisoning.

WOMAN PUNISHED.

SENTENCED TO JAIL ON SHOPLIFTING CHARGE.

Said To Have Placed Shirt Waist In Her Handbag—Other Allegations Incomplete.

Mrs. Annie Curran, middle-aged and of refined appearance, who is thought to be a kleptomaniac, was arraigned in Police Court yesterday morning on the charge of shoplifting, and was sentenced to serve thirty days in jail. The specific charge against her was that of petit larceny. She was arrested last Friday afternoon by Lieut. Burke and Patrolman Sigel in the store of Aronson & Co., on Fourth avenue. Lieut. Burke was standing nearby when the theft was committed. On complaint of the manager the woman was taken into custody.

The manager of the firm testified that she had been seen to take a shirt waist and place it in her handbag. Lee Lewis, of the firm of John C. Lewis & Co., said that he could identify the goods which, it was said, she had taken from his store, but he was unable to state whether it was stolen or not. She is alleged to have tried to take a chafing dish and several pairs of stockings from his store.

Robert J. Hagan, prosecuting attorney, in asking for sentence, said that Mrs. Curran had been presented in the Police Court several times on the same charges, but under different names. After her last offense, he said, she had been released upon signing a pledge that she would mend her ways.

WALTER HAUSWALD DIES IN HOSPITAL.

Walter Hauswald, twenty-three years of age, died of typhoid fever at the Deaconess Hospital at 5 o'clock yesterday morning after an illness of three weeks. Mr. Hauswald had been living in this city for five years, and had been employed by H. M. Engelman as a hardwood floor layer and a foreman. He was born in Galena, Ind., where his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Hauswald, and two sisters and two brothers reside. His body was removed to the residence of John Hancock, of 1509 Southgate street, with whom he boarded, and will be taken to Galena this morning for interment.

FLOURING

Mills Most Important Industry of Kentucky.

LUMBERING SECOND IN VALUE OF PRODUCTS.

DECREASE IN IMPORTANCE OF TOBACCO MANUFACTURE.

PRODUCTION OF LIQUORS.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 1.—The bulletin of statistics for the manufacturing industries of Kentucky for the censuses of 1900 and 1905, issued by the Department of Commerce and Labor, show some interesting facts.

The number of establishments in the State increased 86, or 2.4 per cent. The total capital increased $59,286,656, or 67.4 per cent., and the value of products $33,245,308, or 26.3 per cent.; while the average number of wage earners increased 8,059, or 15.6 per cent., and the total wages $5,984,432, or 32.4 per cent.

The reports of the twelfth census show 9,560 establishments in the State, with 62,962 wage earners, and products valued at $154,166,365. Of these establishments 3,648—employing 51,735 wage earners and manufacturing products valued at $126,508,660—are comparable with the class of establishments included in the census of 1905, when the number of establishments reported was 3,734, the number of wage earners 59,794, and the value of products $159,753,968.

Much of the industrial importance of the State is the result of its great agricultural and mineral resources; its facilities for transportation by land and water; and its proximity to coal fields that furnish an abundant and cheap supply of fuel. The extensive areas of grain cultivated within the State furnish a great part of the supplies for the flour and grist mills and for the famous Kentucky distilleries, while much of the material used in the slaughtering and meat packing establishments comes from the numerous stock farms, and large quantities of the oak bark employed in the tanneries are obtained from the forests. Only a part of the immense tobacco crop is used in the factories of the State, the greater part being shipped to outside markets.

The most important industry is that of the flouring mills. There were 388 establishments in 1905, as compared with 341 in 1900. Capital increased $2,953,862, or 67.3 per cent; the number of wage-earners, 323, or 30.8 per cent.; the wages, $53,008, or 11.5 per cent.; and the value of products, $4,990,743, or 38.3 per cent.

The lumber industry ranks second in the value of products both in 1900 and in 1905. Between the two censuses there was a decrease of 47 in the number of establishments, while the capital increased $4,552,874, or 62.8 per cent., and the value of products, $1,200,467, or 9 per cent. There was an increase of only 47 in the number of wage-earners, while wages increased $750,434, or 24.9 per cent.

In spite of the high rank of the tobacco industry in the State between the censuses of 1900 and 1905, there was a decrease in the importance of the tobacco manufactures in Kentucky in comparison with the industry of the United States. The value of that branch of the industry embracing the manufacture of chewing and smoking tobacco and snuff formed 88 per cent. of the total value for the combined industry in 1905, and the position of the State in tobacco manufactures, therefore, may be measured by the value of these products. In 1900 the value of the products of this industry in Kentucky was $14,948,192, and the State ranked second to Missouri, for which the value was $25,101,446. In 1905 Kentucky ranked third, the values for the three leading States being as follows: Missouri, $27,836,422; North Carolina, $25,488,721, and Kentucky, $13,117,000.

Considered separately, the production of distilled liquors ranked fourth both in 1900 and 1905. Between the censuses of 1900 and 1905 the number of establishments increased from 177 to 188, but these figures must not be taken as representing the number of distilleries in the State, since the report of one establishment may represent two or more distilleries. The capital increased $5,494,136, or 44.7 per cent. and the value of products, $1,418,122, or 14.5 per cent. The number of wage earners increased 316, or 28.4 per cent., but the wages decreased $5,331, or 1 per cent.

The manufacture of malt liquors ranked fourteenth in 1905 and twelfth in 1900. Although there was a decrease of six in the number of establishments, the capital increased $1,768,823, or 34.5 per cent.; the number of wage earners, 156, or 26.4 per cent.; the wages $144,026, or 44 per cent., and the value of products $487,051, or 15.3 per cent.

SAYS CITY OWNERSHIP PAYS.

Chicago's Official Electrician Figures Out Big Saving In Light Cost.

Chicago, Aug. 1.—By the municipal ownership of its street lighting Chicago has saved $323,805 in the eighteen years of its existence, in addition to owning a plant valued at $3,500,000, and in 1905 saved $352,547 over what would have been the cost if the electric street lamps were rented. City Electrician William Carroll issued the ninth annual report of the electrical department yesterday, in which he gives the figures in reply to the critics of the department who declare that the municipal lighting has been an expensive failure.

Mr. Carroll figures that the cost of rented service since 1888 would aggregate $5,332,113, to which he adds interest at 4 per cent., making a total of $6,687,910. The city has expended $4,748,890 for construction and operation of the municipal plant, which, with the interest computed at 4 per cent., or $1,463,055, would give a total of $6,212,846.

This, Mr. Carroll declares, shows an actual saving in cash to the city of $475,068. From this, however, he deducts $85,784 as lost taxes for the first thirteen years of operation and an additional loss of $65,474 in taxes for the last five years, leaving a clear saving to the city of $323,805.

LOUISVILLE BUSINESS MEN

Interested In the Growth and Prospects of Somerset.

Somerset, Ky., Aug. 1.—[Special.]—Among prominent business men of Louisville who have interests in Somerset and are awake to the outcome of investments in this progressive region of the State are: Judge Matt O'Doherty, M. O. Curd, Charles J. O'Doherty and W. Godfrey Hunter. These gentlemen were on the ground this week examining the business prospects for the future. They were surprised at the magnitude of the C. S. railroad enterprise in course of construction, which will cost in the neighborhood of $1,000,000, and will bring to the city of Somerset an increase of several thousand desirable population. Three hundred buildings will be erected in Somerset during the present year, and 365 buildings were built during 1904-05.

Articles of Incorporation.

Frankfort, Ky., Aug. 1.—[Special.]—Articles of incorporation were filed in Department of Secretary of State today as follows:

The Ticknor Stave Company, of Jefferson county. It has $10,000 capital stock, and the incorporators are A. R. and C. H. Ticknor, of Bridgeport, Ala., and Frank J. Fulton, of Louisville.

The Princeton Creamery Company, of Caldwell county. It has $5,000 capital stock, and the incorporators are Loton McGragor, J. D. Leech, J. F. Morgan and Mrs. Mamie Milligan, all of Princeton.

The Grayson Light Company, of Carter county. It has $5,000 capital stock, and the incorporators are H. L. Woods, of Olive Hill; E. C. Maggard, of Morehead; Winfield Scott and J. W. Strother, of Grayson.

Strikers' Demands Granted.

San Francisco, Aug. 1.—The Southern Pacific Company yesterday granted the demands of the freight handlers in the yards at Oakland, who went on strike last week for more pay, but returned to work after the company had promised to consider their wishes. The company agreed that men employed for more than sixty days would be paid twenty-five cents per hour and all new men twenty-two and one-half cents until they worked sixty days.

Investigating Lumber Trust.

San Francisco, Aug. 1.—United States District Attorney Robert T. Devlin has begun an investigation of the alleged combination of lumber dealers, and if he finds that the facts warrant prosecution will take action. The local grand jury recently began an inquiry into the methods by which lumber rates were raised. Much data and considerable evidence had been gathered, when it was learned that such affairs were beyond the authority of the body.

Receiver Appointed.

Memphis, Tenn., Aug. 1.—T. B. Caldwell has been named as receiver for the firm of Armstrong & Co., commission brokers, who suspended some days ago. The receiver was appointed in answer to a petition filed by Percy H. Davies, a member of the firm, who alleged that the personal transactions of W. H. Armstrong involved the firm and caused its suspension, as a member of the Memphis and New Orleans Cotton Exchanges.

Call For Harvest Hands.

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 1.—The annual call for harvest hands is beginning to be raised in Minnesota and North and South Dakota, and this season there are indications that the need will be more urgent than ever. Within the next sixty days 20,000 to 30,000 men will be in demand at Minnesota and North Dakota points tributary to the Great Northern system. Reports of crops range 10 to 75 per cent. better than last year.

New Copper Company.

St. Paul, Minn., August 1. — Incorporation papers of the Cananea Central Copper Company of Duluth were filed with the Secretary of State to-day. The capital stock is $10,000,000. The directors of the new company are W. C. Greene, Cananea, Mexico; J. D. Ryan, Butte, Mont.; James Hoaston, Calumet, Mich., and C. A. Duncan, G. A. Tomlinson, J. B. Cotton, W. A. Olcott, T. F. Cole and C. A. Congdon, all of Duluth.

Twenty-four-Hour Bank Open.

Chicago, Aug. 1.—An innovation in banking methods of Chicago was inaugurated to-day when a twenty-four-hour bank opened for business. With the exception of Sundays and holidays the bank will be open at all times during the day and night. The work will be divided among three shifts of employes. The bank includes both commercial and savings departments.

Tobacco Dividend.

New York, Aug. 1.—Directors of the American Tobacco Company to-day declared a quarterly dividend of 2½ per cent. on the common stock and an extra dividend of 5 per cent. also on the common stock.

WORKHOUSE TERM FOR NEGLECTING CHILDREN.

Peyton Madison, Who Mistreated Family, Must Serve Six Months—Wife's Sentence Suspended.

A six-months' term in the Workhouse was imposed upon Peyton Madison yesterday by Judge Charles A. Wilson on the charge of neglecting his wife and three young children. Madison charged that his wife was mentally unbalanced, but an examination made by physicians at Judge Wilson's instance proved this allegation groundless. Alleged misconduct of the wife caused Judge Wilson to give her thirty days in the Workhouse, but he ordered sentence suspended so long as she conducts herself properly. This she promised to do and was released. Judge Wilson warned her that if she failed to live up to her pledge, execution of the judgment would go against her immediately and that he would have her children placed in one of the local institutions. Madison was denounced by Judge Wilson for his misbehavior. It was the Judge's view that actual want more than anything else had brought about the woman's state.

Turner, Day & Woolworth common stock was in some demand this afternoon at 113 and 113¼ ex-dividend. This is a big advance, as a 6 per cent. dividend is just off. The quickening demand is said to be the result of recent big earnings.

Most traders "who missed their market" are waiting for a reaction upon which to buy stocks, and some of the larger commission houses report an increasing inquiry on the part of their clients for stocks "just under the market," so that in the event of a "healthy setback" it is expected that the buying power would be comparatively large. This, however, has not always proven the case, reactions frequently being the cause of reducing buying orders to still lower figures. A declining market presents an altogether different aspect from one which is rising. The speculative fraternity is now playing for a reaction just as it was waiting for a rally which failed to come throughout the decline in prices which culminated about seven days ago. Declines and advances alike are all the more violent for having been delayed.—(New York Commercial.

Pittsburg.—"There is not a single drop of water in United States Steel stocks at current prices," was the statement made by an official of the Carnegie Steel Co. "I mean by this," he continued, "that the organization has been so perfected, the efficiency of the several plants is so high, that the earning power is greater than ever in the history of the corporation. Now I do not mean to say that because of its position in the trade it can command abnormal prices for products and thereby at certain times earn so much as to justify its present market capitalization. You can take the sum represented by the market value of its securities and duplicate the mills, furnaces, railroads, etc., but you could not in a score of years duplicate the organization which accomplishes present results. I do not believe that there will be a dividend on Steel common this year, but nevertheless, I believe that it is the cheapest industrial stock in the market."

In reply to the question: "When do you think there will be a reaction in the iron trade?" he said, "That is a most difficult question to answer. It is my opinion, however, that there is less danger of any serious reaction now than there formerly was. It used to be that if a manufacturer made $100,000 profit in the business one year, he would borrow $200,000 next year to increase the capacity of his plant. If business continued good for two years, why all his neighbors learned of his profits and they would start in to duplicate the plant. Then it was not long until we had over-production, followed by a slashing of prices and a struggle for the survival of the fittest." He also added that on account of the wise policy of the Steel Corporation to hold prices steady, and to avoid as much as possible violent fluctuations in business and prices, the situation has changed, and as a result, periods of depression, while inevitable under the best of conditions, are now wider apart and less violent than in the old days.—(New York News Bureau.

THE IRON MARKET.

New York, Aug. 1.—The Iron Age will say to-morrow:

"Simultaneously with reports of a further access of strength in all the pig iron markets in the country comes the statement of the United States Steel Corporation, showing the largest quarter's earnings in its history. Leaders in the trade now speak with less reserve concerning early 1907, after having for some time limited their predictions of good times to 1906. The volume of orders on the Steel Corporation's books on June 30, 6,809,589 tons, is the largest midyear total it has been able to report.

Pig iron has been the feature of the week's market. In the East the buying movement in basic iron that was well under way a week ago carried the total purchases of the fortnight above 125,000 tons, some estimates reaching 150,000 tons. The remarkable fact about it is that consumers provided for their needs for the balance of the year with an advance between the first and the last buying of but 25 cents.

"The Western situation in steel-making iron is indicated by the resumption of shipments of Bessemer iron by the Steel Corporation from the valleys to Chicago. Conservatism prevails, however, and it is said, that the corporation's purchases of Bessemer for the last quarter will be made at about 50 cents above the $17.25 valley basis of the last contract.

"Foundry iron markets are advancing with here and there a buoyant tendency, which may need restraining. Southern irons are 25 cents to 30 cents higher with $13.75 and $14 Birmingham, commonly asked. In the Buffalo district a further advance of 50 cents was made and Eastern Pennsylvania makers have marked up their figures.

"Foreign low phosporous iron is now offered on the seaboard at a parity with domestic iron. In foundry irons imports are not likely, but it is intimated that $1.50 more on the domestic price might open the gates.

"Finished material markets show unusual midsummer activity, distributed all along the line. At Chicago, railroads have entered large orders for track supplies. Steel buying for the week has been light, but some export business was done with Mexico and Porto Rico. Car buying goes on steadily.

"A large order for 12-inch line iron pipe for Western Pennsylvania adds to the already phenomenal tonnage of pipe and tube mills."

SOUTHERN TREND MORE PRONOUNCED.

"What is apparently the inevitable in outward-bound commerce of the United States is indicated by the increasing trend toward Southern ports of breadstuffs for exports," says the Manufacturers' Record of Baltimore. "For a number of years, that tendency has been marked, and in the main has been increasing, notwithstanding occasional lagging due rather to a slackness in the whole export movement of breadstuffs than to anything else. It is strikingly demonstrated in the increase by values of breadstuffs exports at Southern ports during the fiscal year just closed over the preceding year, the comparison being presented in the following table:

Districts.	1905.	1906.
Baltimore	$9,628,508	24,746,089
Newport News	4,298,675	9,949,147
Norfolk and Portsmouth	783,287	2,227,614
Galveston	2,928,986	11,331,583
Mobile	2,520,810	2,911,510
New Orleans	10,689,916	17,535,540
Totals	$30,850,182	$68,701,522
All districts	101,107,417	177,350,476

"The increase at the six Southern ports named was from $30,850,182 to $68,701,322, or $37,851,340, a little more than 122 per cent. In the seventeen other customs districts considered the increase from $70,257,235 to $108,648,954, or $38,391,719, or less than 55 per cent. The increase at the six Southern ports was nearly 50 per cent. of the increase for the whole country, and more than $27,000,000 of the $38,000,000 increase at other ports was at New York and Philadelphia. The increase in the value of all exports of domestic merchandise was from $1,491,744,641 to $1,717,859,395, or $226,114,754. Toward the total increase breadstuffs contributed $76,243,059.

"Another big water-power development for electrical purposes in the South is involved in the announcement that plans have been completed for the development of 12,000 horsepower immediately and 28,800 horsepower ultimately at a point on the Yadkin river, eight miles from Rockingham, N. C., and that the construction of the necessary means will be carried forward as rapidly as possible.

"The developing dam, to be located on the Yadkin, will be 1,650 feet long and 45 feet high, built of concrete, and the first installation of machinery will be for the delivery of 12,000 horsepower unless contracts shall have been made for the delivery of more than that before the dam is completed, it being estimated that a total of $28,800 horsepower can be obtained and distributed by electricity within a radius of 50 miles of the plant.

"Contracts for the construction of this dam for the electrical equipment and for the water-wheels have been awarded. The site of the enterprise is in a district where probably 700,000 are engaged in growing cotton or in manufacturing it, and within the 50-mile radius there are at least 50 cotton factories using about 25,000 horsepower developed by steam, besides other industries.

"Illustrative of the scope of timber operations in the South is the announcement of the incorporation of a $500,000 company in Texas to develop 40,000 acres of hardwood timber land in two counties of that State, the operations contemplating the erection of at least two mills at a cost of $250,000 and the building of twenty miles of railway."

LOUISVILLE BROKERS ON MONTH'S RESULTS.

J. M. Sharp & Co. make the following monthly report of conditions locally:

"The local market for securities during the month of July was extremely dull and without noteworthy feature. About the best that can be said of it is that it showed remarkable resistance to adverse market conditions at large. Only a small number of securities showed recessions, while most issues ruled firm. As to the future a great deal depends on the course of the New York market. If the New York market has found bottom and the upward movement which has been in evidence for several days continues it will not be a great while before the local market bestirs itself, as it has shown sufficient inherent strength to justify expectations for decided betterment.

"During the month the Louisville Gas Company increased its dividend to a 7 per cent. basis, and the Turner, Day & Woolworth Handle Company declared a semi-annual dividend of 6 per cent. on its common, practically placing it on a 12 per cent. basis. The action of these companies, together with Avery & Sons and others, in increasing their dividends, reflects the prosperity being enjoyed by local corporations.

"Very little trading was done in Louisville Traction common. It is quoted a shade under quotations ruling a month ago. In view of the splendid earnings of this property, with the probability of the retirement of the preferred stock in April next under a plan which will give the common valuable rights, it looks attractive around present prices and should soon sell appreciably higher. Springfield dropped down to 82, but soon reacted to 84. This stock is slated to do better. It is practically sure of a dividend in October. St. Louis United Railways common receded to 44 and is now in the neighborhood of 49. The preferred and bonds are quotably lower than they were a month ago. Louisville Home Telephone sold as high as 57. Present quotations are 57 to 60. Central Home Telephone was fairly active, with sales from 18 up to 20¼. International Traction, East St. Louis and Suburban and St. Joseph issues were dull and inclined to be heavy.

"We believe that the present is a propitious time to buy and that purchases made now will in a few months show handsome profits."

W. L. Lyons & Co. summarize the month's results as follows:

"The local market during the past month has been marked with dullness and inactivity. Although the market was barren of buying orders, selling orders were perhaps equally as scarce and holders seem to be merely in a waiting attitude. Should the recent advances in New York continue we believe holders of local stocks will be rewarded for their patience. Springfield Railway and Light and West Penn common were the most active issues in tractions, while Central Home Telephone and Turner, Day & Woolworth common were easily the features of the industrials. Louisville Tobacco Warehouse preferred was likewise in good request at prices ruling around 120. The common was firm and unchanged. L. and N. collateral trust and unified 4 per cent. bonds had a fair call during the month, the former at a range of from 97¼ to 98 and the latter around 100½. Other railroad and traction bonds were dull and unchanged. Governments are in good demand and a shade higher."

Marvin H. Lewis & Co. make the following review of last month's business:

"The market for local securities in July was dull and uninteresting. West Penn Railways common was about the only traction issue to show sustained strength, an advance of several points being recorded. The earnings of the West Penn Railways Company are good and the outlook for the future seems to be bright. St. Louis United Railways common sold off sharply the first part of the month, probably due to a misapprehension in regard to the effect on earnings of the purchase of the St. Louis and Suburban Company. The stock has since recovered a good portion of this loss in market value, and should have a further advance, provided the taxation question is settled on a reasonable basis. A decision will be reached by the State Board of Equalization of Missouri the second week in August. Springfield Railway and Light has been absorbed in small lots at prices ranging from 82 to 84½. The earnings of this company are good and a further advance in the stock is expected before a great while. Steady absorption of Portland Railway, Light Power common and preferred stocks has been going on, and we regard both issues with favor. The new certificates are now being delivered. No section of the country is growing faster than the Pacific Northwest. The population of Portland, Ore., more than doubled from 1880 to 1890, and the same was true of 1890 to 1900, while the directory figures of that city show a gain of 77 per cent. since 1900. Though no authorized statement of earnings can be made public, there is reason to believe that for the first year of operation 6 per cent. will be shown for the common stock. It seems to us that both the common and preferred stocks of this company are good to have and to hold. Seattle common is in excellent demand at this writing, and has advanced several points in bid price without bringing out offerings. East St. Louis and Suburban securities have been quiet. The first dividend on the preferred stock is payable at this date.

"The industrial list proved featureless. The increase in the dividend rate on Louisville Gas failed to stimulate that stock, nor did the declaration of an extra 2 per cent. dividend on Turner, Day & Woolworth common stock excite demand. Louisville Tobacco Warehouse preferred was in demand and the common held steady. With the outlook for a large tobacco crop the latter should do better. The common is now selling ex-dividend.

"The general tone of the market of late has shown improvement, and with good crops and the prospects for better monetary conditions this fall than anticipated a while back, the improvement in tractions and in some of the local industrial issues should be marked."

Almstedt Bros. have the following to say in regard to the local market for the month just closed:

"Dullness was the prevailing feature throughout the month of July. Any change in quotations was at the expense of values, especially in street railway stocks. General conditions remain the same and with continued increased earnings, which are being steadily reported, we are inclined to believe that purchases made at this level will show profits later on. Louisville Traction common has been steady at unchanged quotations. The preferred, however, is in strong request, with sales as high as 127. The decline in St. Louis United Railways common and Kansas City Railway and Light common we regard as but temporary. When the tax assessment is adjusted, which will probably come within the next fortnight, both properties should do better. Seattle Electric common is showing signs of absorption. It is in strong request with but little offering. Considering the earnings of this company compared with its small capitalization, it appears to be very promising. West Penn Railways Company continues to show steady growth in receipts. The common stock has advanced 3 points during the month, and should do better. There have been but few changes in the local industrial list. The large increase in earnings of the Turner, Day & Woolworth Company has attracted attention. An extra semi-annual dividend of 2 per cent. has been declared on the common stock. Louisville Tobacco Warehouse common is being held at unchanged figures. The outlook for a big crop of tobacco is promising, which means another year of prosperity. Bank and Trust Company stocks remain firm, with but few changes. The bond market is quite dull."

Hunt, Bridgeford & Co. make the following monthly review:

"The only thing worthy of comment in the local securities' market was the absolute apathy in speculation and investment demand. The liquidation in New York stocks the first part of the month was as severe and persistent as any decline we have seen for years and the local market for days at a time was without a bid. There has been material improvement, however, in the past two weeks, and there seems less apprehension of tight money than heretofore, and sentiment is generally much improved. The Traction issues which have shown sympathetic strength in the past week are New Orleans Railway and Light advancing to 34¼ bid; Seattle Electric common to 78½ bid, and Portland common to 71½ bid, while St. Louis reacted to prices near 50. The activity in the International Traction issues subsided entirely, but the action of this stock is very much like the trading in Rochester prior to the time the property was absorbed. The common stock is nominally around 55, the preferred 79 to 80 with not enough trading to establish quotations. We get very encouraging reports on Seattle Electric and think this property has a great future before it. The general list of local stocks remain dull without demand. Some demand is noticeable in Springfield, and we feel the stock should seek higher prices in the near future. We advise the purchase of International Traction issues, Portland, Seattle and Springfield, offering considerable possibilities of profit."

MARKET LETTERS.

New York.—The Steel dividend, as every one expected gave us a big market to-day, the trading being on a big scale and showing a big increase in outside interest. Steel, after opening up 1¼ per cent., practically did not change price throughout the session, although the trading was very heavy. The demand seemed to come in and be big enough to take care of the enormous volume of liquidation which took place on the good news. The big rise to-day was in St. Paul, with Union Pacific a good second. St. Paul was tipped for 190 to-morrow with rights given as the reason. Gates was a big buyer. Southern Pacific was a laggard, profit-taking being in evidence there all day. The stock was well taken by the same people as heretofore. We still advise its purchase. The market will be big and active to-morrow with possibly a sharp reaction through catching of stop orders, of which there are a good many.—(Bayard Dominick, Jr., to Halsey & Halsey.

New York.—Further bullish operation was conducted in the stock market to-day. The broadening resulted from the concerted action of the powers on the long side. The Steel dividend action increased commission house business, and it is reported that further dividend surprises are in store. The outstanding shortage was further reduced by a heavy covering movement and dislodging of bear stops, but the buying outside of this was considered very good and the public absorption to some extent offset the short elimination. The outlook favors the conservative bull still, and we recommend purchases of good stocks, remembering that frequent recessions of moderate extent are likely, and that buying on bulges is bad policy for the daily operator, who should at such times take profits. Both railroads and industrial departments are in good technical shape.—(Ware & Leland.

New York.—The market has shown great strength and activity to-day. The unexpected resumption of dividends on Steel common gave renewed snap to the market, and, although no special change occurred in the price of the common stock during the day, the trading was on a large scale. No doubt a further advance in the price will occur when the profit-taking sales have been absorbed. St. Paul, Southern Pacific and Union Pacific have all been notably active, and have scored good gains. The buying of all three has been excellent. Atchison has also advanced a couple of points, which is not surprising in view of the June earnings which show a net increase of over $900,000. The Rock Island statement for the year shows very satisfactory gains in net earnings. It is certainly not to be wondered at that the market should show decided strength in the face of good dividend increases and the remarkable earnings which the railroads are reporting. It also seems highly probable that further dividend increases will occur shortly in such stocks as Atchison, Union Pacific and Southern Pacific. Another favorable development in the situation has been the decision of Mr. Hearst to run on an independent ticket this autumn for the governorship of New York, which decidedly lessens his chances of securing that distinguished office. The only unsatisfactory news of the day was contained in reports of further mutinies and disturbances in Russia, which has had some effect on the foreign markets. This is getting to be such an old story, however, that a real cataclysm has got to take place before much attention will be paid to it on this side of the water. It looks as if the advance in the market would continue further.—(Post & Flagg to John W. & D. S. Green.

New York.—The market closed strong with every tendency to broaden and the general opinion is that we will have a substantial rise soon.—(Kelley, Miller & Co. to Almstedt Bros.

New York.—The action of the market to-day seemed to clearly indicate complete control by the bull party. Prices were advanced more uniformly throughout the list than on any previous day during the present upturn, and while there was considerable profit-taking, the supply of stocks was not at any time sufficient to even check the demand. It was the first day in a long while that there was not a moment of dullness. The United States Steel quarterly report was expected to show record-breaking earnings, thereby furnishing proof of exceptionally prosperous conditions up to the present time, but the resumption of dividends on the common stock is construed as an assurance that the powerful interests dominating the corporation have full faith that prosperity will continue unabated. It has been unanimous belief that the dividend would not be resumed until their permanent continuance was assured beyond question. The effect therefore will be to greatly encourage outside buying. While the situation in Russia is more serious it is now the general opinion that values of American securities will not be disturbed by conditions there. The present outlook is for a broader and higher market.—(A. O. Brown & Co to Hunt, Bridgeford & Co.

New York.—Stocks closed strong, with the Grangers near top, but a few others at recessions from the best figures. The market has a decidedly strong tone, and, although the traders are talking setback, it does not come. The big people apparently see that things are going along so well, that they do not want to encourage a reduction of any dimensions for fear of disturbing sentiment. The outside public was unquestionably coming into the market to-day in a fairly large way, and will buy more if the market continues to rise. United States Steel closed surprisingly firm and the absorption of it was called pretty good. If the market is to go further present prices for Steels would seem to be warranted by the promising reports of the Steel trade issued by a leading authority. The street was filled today with a number of bull stories, among them being one that Union Pacific will be put on a 7 per cent. basis before the end of this month. A dividend on Southern Pacific is now generally conceded by the street. The St. Paul plan is supposed to be near at hand.—(C. I. Hudson & Co. to S. C. Henning & Co.

New York.—There can be no mistaking the character of our stock market. It has every appearance of a genuine bull affair. All departments have been strong with the rails and the high-priced ones at that, the leaders. The action of Steel directors yesterday in putting common stock back on dividend basis was followed by an enthusiastic buying of all stocks and seems to us to sound the deathknell of the bears' hopes at this time. This action merely reflects the wonderful prosperity existing in all lines of business and makes, as we have pointed out, an excellent foundation for high prices for stocks. We still feel like buying stocks on moderate setbacks.—(W. L. Lyons & Co.

New York.—Declaration of a dividend on Steel common yesterday was a complete surprise to the street. The news was received with much satisfaction. In view of the phenomenal record of earnings it is only justice that the common stockholders should receive some benefit in the form of a small dividend. The London market responded quickly to the favorable news and our market opened up sharply all around with the greatest activity in Steel Corporation issues. Business was on a most extended scale, and more interest was manifested by the public than at any time since the recent advance was inaugurated. The buying of Union Pacific, Southern Pacific and St. Paul was of the same character as of the past few days, and these stocks advanced considerably during the session. Although there was some profit-taking still these offerings were soon absorbed and prices forged ahead unresistingly. Opinions differ as to the continuance of the present upward movement. Still we think there are many arguments in favor of a further advance, among them being the splendid condition of the [illegible] and also the fact that short time money is [illegible] ning to show evidence of working easier.—(J. S. Bache & Co. to Washington Flexner & Co.

STOCK MARKET REVIEW.

New York, Aug. 1.—Money on call easy at 2@2½ per cent.; ruling rate 2¼; closing bid 2; offered at 2¼; time loans steady; 60 days 3½@4 per cent.; 90 days 4½; six months 5½; prime mercantile paper 5½@5¾. Sterling exchange firmer at $4.8510@4.8515 for demand and at $4.8220@4.8225 for 60-day bills; posted rates $4.82½ and $4.85½; commercial bills $4.81¾. Bar silver 65c. Mexican dollars 50½c. Government bonds steady. Railroad bonds irregular.

The rise in stocks which has shown a somewhat halting tendency this week, was resumed with aggressive force to-day. Prices were swept to a higher level throughout by well-distributed buying orders and the market broadened materially from the recent extreme congestion in a few of the market leaders. Dealings rose to well over a million shares and to the largest total of daily sales on the present upward movement. The favorite speculative stocks, however, continued well in the forefront of the movement, especially the Pacifics, including in that time the whole of the Transcontinental group. It was in that group almost alone that the advance has carried prices to above the level touched in June at the height of the first recovery after the shock of the San Francisco disaster. It was pointed out as remarkable that while United States Steel preferred sold to-day above the June level, the common stock, now on a dividend basis, failed to reach the June high price to-day.

The Steel dividend was the leading subject of interest in the day's market. There can be no doubt that the declaration came as a genuine surprise to the majority of operators in the market in spite of the speculative tips in circulation previously alleging the certainty of a dividend. The assignment of the ½ per cent. dividends to two quarterly periods preceding was looked upon as indicating, in some respects, a reconsideration or policy formerly determined upon, and this new departure was attributed to the influence of directors previously absent, especially J. P. Morgan, to whose financial leadership and opinions the mass of habitual stock market operators attach more importance than any other single guiding force. The decision of the case was looked on as a broad determination on more liberal distribution of earnings to stockholders as contrasted with the building up of indefinite surplus reserves, which has become a marked feature of financial policy of some of the great corporations. Dissatisfaction of stockholders with this policy has been expressed publicly in more than one recent instance and resort has been had to the courts in some cases. It has been urged in the same connection that enlarged dividend distributions must be allowed in order to make a market for securities at the present price level and with interest rates disproportionately high. The speculative sentiment was disposed to accept the United States Steel dividend action as a proclamation of a policy of enlarged distribution to stockholders, as a means of deriving active demand for securities for the purpose of effecting an absorption of the plethora now in the market.

The St. Paul movement had as a special incentive a persistent rumor that the Union Pacific control has projects in view looking to the larger control of St. Paul. An explicit disclaimer of these rumors by the president of the Union Pacific was met by the suggestion that the end might be attained by making Southern Pacific the nominal center in the supposed arrangement. Little attention was paid to any other matters in the day's dealings. The renewed unsettlement in foreign markets, on account of the new outbreak of violence in Russia was of no apparent effect here. There was enormous profit-taking during the first hour attracted by the sudden opening advance, but the selling was confidently absorbed throughout and the closing was firm near the best.

FOREIGN FINANCIAL.

London, Aug. 1.—Rates for money were easier to-day and the demand increased, owing to the consol settlement and a call for $18,750,-000 of the new Russian loan, which were partly offset by heavy disbursements. Discounts were easier. Trading on the Stock Exchange was quiet and uninteresting. In the Kaffir market the proposed Transvaal Constitution was regarded on the whole as unfavorable, and the price fluctuated early and weakened later on Paris selling. Consols sagged early in the absence of support, but closed firmer. Some home rails improved in anticipation of good holiday traffic returns, but foreigners eased, owing to the dullness in Paris. Russians relapsed to 11⅜ per cent. discount. Dealings in Americans were restricted. The tone was firm and prices were well over parity in the forenoon under the lead of United States Steel, which was supported by the dividend announcement. Later Wall-street advices infused life into the market, and prices hardened and closed firm. Japanese Imperial 6s of 1904 closed at 102¼. Closing quotations: Consols for money 87 9-16; do for the account 87¾; Anaconda 13; Atchison 96⅝; do preferred 103¾; Baltimore and Ohio 124⅞; Canadian Pacific 171¼; Chesapeake and Ohio 61; Chicago Great Western 18⅞; Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul 187; De Beers 17⅛; Denver and Rio Grande 45½; do preferred 88; Erie 44⅝; do first preferred 81½; do second preferred 72½; Illinois Central 180¼; Louisville and Nashville 148; Missouri, Kansas and Texas 35⅝; New York Central 141½; Norfolk and Western 93⅝; do preferred 95; Ontario and Western 49½; Pennsylvania 67¾; Rand Mines 6⅝; Reading 67⅝; do first preferred 46; do second preferred 45; Southern Railway 38; do preferred 102; Southern Pacific 76⅞; Union Pacific 158⅝; do preferred 98; United States Steel 42⅝; do preferred 111; Wabash 20½; do preferred 49; Spanish fours 92. Bar silver steady at 30 1-16d per ounce. Money 2¼@3 per cent. The rate of discount in the open market for short bills is 3@3 1-16 per cent.; do three months' bills 3 1-16@3⅛ per cent.

Paris, Aug. 1.—Trading on the Bourse today was irregular, Russians fluctuating upon forced sales and the news of the mutiny at Sveaborg and Skatudden. Later business became inactive, and then there was a further decline of Russians, particularly of the new loan, which closed at 78.50. The general close was heavy and indecisive. Russian Imperial 4s closed at 79.10 and Russian bonds of 1904 at 461.00. Three per cent. rentes 97f. 20c for the account. Exchange on London 25f. 15c for checks.

Berlin, Aug. 1.—Prices on the Boerse to-day were firm, especially German industrial. Exchange on London 20 marks 47⅜ pfennigs for checks. Discount rates: Short bills 4 per cent.; three-months' bills 3⅛ per cent.

LEAF TOBACCO

Wednesday Evening, Aug. 1.—The sales on the local auction breaks to-day were very large and of fairly good quality. For Burley the market showed strength compared with that of yesterday and all grades met with good competition at former prices. There were no special features to be noted in the dark market. The quality and condition of the offerings was as good as could be expected at this time of the year and all grades, both of the fired and unfired types, met with a good demand.

The following is the report of offerings today on the Louisville market, including all the warehouses:

Cincinnati Market.

Cincinnati, Aug. 1.—A smaller percentage of rejections gave Wednesday's market a better tone and reflected a little improvement over prices paid on Tuesday. One lot of 7 hhds from Trimble county, Ky., was a feature of the sales, averaging $15.42 per 100 lbs. Fine tobaccos were scarce. Medium and common goods showed a steady tone and good demand. Total sales 306 hhds: 4 at $4.50@5.50; 133 at $6@7.95; 100 at $8@9.95; 81 at $10@11.75; 43 at $12@14.75; 4 at $15@18.75; 1 at $21.

LIVE STOCK MARKETS.

Louisville.

(Reported by the Louisville Live Stock Exchange, Bourbon Stock Yards.)

Louisville, Aug. 1.—Cattle—The receipts of cattle to-day were 105 head; for the three days this week 1,877. No change of any consequence developed in the cattle trade to-day and the general feeling continued about normal. The demand for choice, desirable butcher cattle was sufficient to absorb the supply early, and no trouble experienced in realizing steady prices, but the depression in the trade in the common kinds was, if anything, more marked than on Monday and the movement extremely slow. Feeders and stockers unchanged; fair request for choice grades; others slow. Bulls about steady; canners slow. Milch cows unchanged. Feeling nominally steady on heavy cattle. Pens well cleared, but the market closed quiet.

Calves—Receipts of calves to-day 134 head; for the three days 429. The market was practically unchanged; bulk of best $5.25@5.75; common calves extremely dull.

Hogs—Receipts of hogs to-day 1,119 head; for the week thus far 3,528. The market was slow in developing to-day, and prices about 5c lower for 120 pounds and up. We quote best, 200 pounds and up, $6.65@6.70; 120 to 200 pounds $6.70; pigs a shade better, best, 90 to 120 pounds, $6.65@6.70; light pigs $5; roughs $6 down. The market closed slow and lower, especially on the heavy end. Pens well cleared.

Sheep and Lambs—Receipts of sheep and lambs 1,934 head; for the week so far 8,674. The market continued steady; bulk of best lambs selling at $7.25@7.40; seconds $5@5.25; butcher lambs and culls rather slow at quotations. Fat sheep trade regarded as steady as to values, but movement rather slow; bulk of best around $4; common kinds exceedingly dull. Stock ewe trade practically unchanged; bulk of best native ewes $5@5.50; Western ewes $5.75@6.25; common, light, trashy ewes slow sale.

COTTON MARKETS.

New York, Aug. 1.—The cotton market was quiet to-day with fluctuations narrow and closed steady at a net advance of 1 to 3 points. Sales were estimated at 50,000 bales. The market opened quiet at a decline of 1 point to an advance of 1 point, and during the morning sold off to a net decline of about 2 to 4 points under a little local bear pressure and scattering liquidation, which may have been inspired by further evidence that the August bureau report next Friday would show very little deterioration, which was offset by the report of a leading trade paper, showing a deterioration for the month of only 1 per cent. and by the report of another private authority showing a deterioration of ½ per cent. These names three private condition reports in percentage each of which has shown a deterioration in condition for the month of 1 per cent., or a little over, and are considered by the local trade to point to an August bureau of about 81 to 82 per cent. At the decline there was a little scattered covering, and in the afternoon some of the room traders started buying with the idea probably of running in the scattering shorts. Prices rallied on this demand to a net advance of about 1 to 4 points and closed at practically the top. There was nothing of importance in the weather news. Large English spot sales attracted some attention, but the Southwestern movement is showing a larger percentage of the new crop.

Estimated receipts at the ports to-day 6,800 bales, against 3,831 last week and 10,982 last year; for the week 35,000 bales, against 29,492 last week and 73,620 last year; to-day's receipts at New Orleans 241 bales, against 4,064 last year, and at Houston 416 bales, against 5,189 last year.

Spot cotton opened quiet; middling uplands 10.90c; do gulf 11.15c. Closed quiet and unchanged; sales 5,500 bales.

The following is the range of futures on the Cotton Exchange:

New Orleans, Aug. 1.—Cotton spots closed steady and unchanged; sales were 1,850 bales on the spot and 100 to arrive. Quotations: Low ordinary 7⅛c nominal; ordinary 7⅝c nominal; good ordinary 8 15-16c; low middling 9⅝c; middling 10⅝c; good middling 11⅛c; middling fair 11½c nominal; fair 12⅛c. Receipts 141; stock 31,348. Futures opened quiet 1 to 3 points higher. The market continued the waiting and almost stagnant attitude it has manifested for several days, dealings being confined to the manipulations of professional operators and the range of prices being very narrow. Crop news was considered good. A slight rise was induced by the covering of shorts in anticipation of the coming Government corn report. The close was steady with prices near the highest and 3 to 6 points above yesterday's close. The range was as follows:

MONTH.	Opening.	High.	Low.	Closing Bid.

CHICAGO GRAIN.

Chicago, Aug. 1.—An improvement in export demand to-day offset bearish crop advices and caused a steady tone at the close in the local wheat market. Final quotations on the September option, however, showed a loss of ⅛c. Corn was down ⅝c. Oats were off ⅛@⅝c. Provisions were 7½@22½c lower.

The wheat market manifested considerable firmness early in the day because of a lively demand by shorts who were driven to cover by reports of revolutionary outbreaks in Russia. The market was also influenced at the start by a decrease in local receipts. Toward the end of the first hour, however, sentiment became bearish and prices quickly declined. The change in sentiment was due chiefly to a report from Kansas City which claimed that the latest estimates on the wheat crop of Kansas placed the yield at 90,000,000 bushels, an amount greatly in excess of any previous crop.

A minor factor in the decline was a forecast of increased local receipts to-morrow. On the decline prices reached a new low record mark for the season. Late in the session the market rallied and almost all of the loss was regained. The advance was due to reports from New York which claimed that liberal sales for export had been made. The late demand came largely from shorts. The market closed steady. September opened ⅛@⅝c to ½@⅝c higher at 74½@74⅝c, sold at 74⅝c and then declined to 73¼@73⅜c. The close was at 73⅝@74c. Clearance of wheat and flour were equal to 479,200 bushels. Primary receipts were 1,491,000 bushels, compared with 1,347,000 bushels for the corresponding day one year ago. Minneapolis, Duluth and Chicago reported receipts of 439 cars, against 635 cars last week and 432 cars one year ago.

The corn market was firm early in the day as a result of buying brought out by continued absence of rain in sections of the corn belt where moisture is greatly needed. Commission houses and shorts were active bidders during the first hour. Later, however, the market weakened on selling induced by reports of larger acceptances from the country. There was also free profit-taking. The market closed weak. September opened ⅛c to ⅝@⅝c higher at 49⅝c to 50⅜@50½c, sold off to 48⅝c and closed at 49⅛c. Local receipts were 121 cars with 46 of contract grade.

Liquidation by local holders caused weakness in the oats market. Sentiment was influenced by additional reports telling of favorable returns from threshing. September opened ⅛@⅛c to ¼c higher at 31¼c to 31⅜@31⅝c, sold at 31⅝c and then declined to 30⅝c. The close was at 30⅝c. Local receipts were 167 cars.

Provisions were weak, because of a decline of 5@10c in the price of live hogs. A feature of trading was profit-taking in pork. At the close September pork was off 22½c at $16.52½. Lard was down 12½c at $8.60. Ribs were 7½c lower at $8.90.

Estimated receipts for to-morrow are: Wheat 568 cars, corn 117, oats 248, hogs 29,000 head.

Metals—There was an advance of 10s in the London tin market, which closed at £171 2s 6d for spot and at £171 7s 6d for futures. Locally the market was quiet and about unchanged on the average, with spot quoted at $37@37.50. Copper was a little lower in the English market, with spot closing at £81 17s 6d and futures at £81 7s 6d. Locally the market was firm in tone, with bid prices a shade higher. Lake is quoted at $18.62½@18.75, electrolytic at $18.37½@18.50 and casting at $18@18.25. Lead was unchanged at $5.75 locally. In London it was 1s 3d lower at £16 12s 6d. Spelter was unchanged at £26 10s in London, but was firm and a little higher locally at $6@6.10. Iron was higher in the English market, with standard foundry quoted at 50s 11d and Cleveland warrants at 51s 3d. Locally no change was reported. No. 1 foundry Northern is quoted at $18.50@19.25, No. 2 foundry Northern at $18.25@18.75, No. 1 foundry Southern at $18@18.50 and No. 2 foundry Southern at $17.50@18. Exports of copper for the month were 17,500 tons, making the total for the season 119,274 tons, against 148,279 last year.

COFFEE MARKET.

New York, Aug. 1.—Spot, Rio strong; No. 7 invoice 8⅝c; mild firm. The market for futures opened irregular at a decline of 5 points to an advance of 5 points, which was considered better than due on the cables. Trading was very active again and during the middle session the market ruled generally firm, with prices at one time 5@10 points net higher on buying by trade interests and investors, who may have been influenced by private cables from Brazil stating that there would be no delay of consequence in the signing of the Valorization Bill. Toward the close, however, prices eased off under heavy realizing, and the market was finally steady at net unchanged prices to a decline of 5 points. Brazilian receipts were large, the prospects for the world's visible supply is said to be for an increase about double that for the same month last year and a heavy estimate for August receipts is expected. The weather in Brazil continued cold, but temperatures were not believed to be low enough to do actual damage. Sales for the day were about 97,000 bags, including August at 7c, September at 6.95@7.15c, December at 7.20@7.35c, March at 7.50@7.60c, April at 7.60c, May at 7.65@7.75c, June at 7.70@7.75c and July at 7.85c.

ORGANIZATION NOT EFFECTED

FIFTEEN DIRECTORS OF MUSICAL FESTIVAL SIGN PAPERS.

HEAR FAMOUS ARTISTS' WORK ON PHONOGRAPH.

FIVE MEMBERS WERE ABSENT.

Nine of the fifteen who are directly concerned signed the articles of incorporation of the Louisville May Music Festival Society yesterday afternoon at the meeting of the incorporators in the Board of Trade offices. Five of the others are out of the city, but will sign when they return. C. M. Robertson, representative of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association, asked for more time for consideration before going into the project as a representative of his association. For the reason that all were not present at the meeting the election of officers and the election of the Board of Directors could not be held.

Andrew Broaddus, an incorporator for the Musical Club, supplied phonographic reproductions of the voices of some of the great singers of the country. Those who were present, many of them being familiar with the best music, said that they never had heard records of equal excellence.

As soon as the other six members of the society sign their names to the articles of incorporation they will be filed with the County Clerk, after which it is expected that the charter, immediately will be granted. The organization of the society will follow and the election of officers. It is provided that they shall consist of a president, a secretary and treasurer and five vice presidents. Additional vice presidents may be appointed in case there is work for them to do. The Board of Directors will be made up of twenty-five members of the society.

Nothing as to the nature of the attractions which will constitute the festival was taken up yesterday except as mentioned informally. As soon as the organization is perfected committees will be appointed and steps will be taken for active work. The first festival is planned for next spring.

COUNTY DEMOCRATIC CLUB TO MEET.

The Jefferson County Democratic Club will hold a called meeting at McNutt's Hall, on Fifth street, between Market and Jefferson streets, at 11 o'clock Saturday morning, by order of William H. Able, president of the club. At the meeting arrangements for the reception of William J. Bryan will be discussed.

BY FULL BOARD

Hospital Investigation May Be Made Next Week.

CHAIRMAN AWAITS RETURN OF JOHN M. SETTLE.

DR. MENEFEE DEMANDS PUBLIC HEARING IN CASE.

WANTS ONLY "SQUARE DEAL."

Not until the return of John M. Settle will the matter of investigating the management of the City Hospital be taken up by the Board of Public Safety. James B. Smith, chairman of the board, said yesterday afternoon that Mr. Settle would return to Louisville the middle of next week.

"This is too serious a matter to be acted upon by only two members of the board," he said. "When Mr. Settle returns the advisability of an investigation will be discussed by the entire board. If it is decided that an investigation is necessary, we will agree on a time, and the method of conducting it."

Dr. Jouett Menefee, who, with Dr. A. O. Taylor and Dr. A. B. Acree, made the charge against the City Hospital management, said yesterday afternoon that he would be satisfied with nothing short of a public investigation.

"I am not willing to go behind closed doors, and submit evidence to judges who already have publicly announced that they have decided this matter without hearing a single witness," he said. "The City Hospital is a public institution, and the public is entitled to know the evidence. An open trial is obviously the only method through which justice can be secured. I would like to submit my evidence to any committee of physicians in Louisville, or to a committee from the General Council."

Demands One of Two Things.

Dr. Menefee said that in his opinion the city administration is duty bound to do one of two things, either, after a full and open investigation, to find the charges unfounded and declare the management of the City Hospital worthy of confidence, or after an investigation to declare the charges sustained and pass new regulations for the City Hospital and to discharge certain attaches.

During his conversation yesterday afternoon, Dr. Menefee said he realized that unless he is able to prove the charges preferred they will recoil on him.

"I realized this fact before I made my charges," he said. "If I succeed in bringing about a reform in the management of the City Hospital, I feel that I will have gained much for the poorer class of people of Louisville. If, after a fair hearing of all the evidence in the case, I fail to prove my charges, the management of the City Hospital is entitled to a complete vindication. All I want is a square deal. I am responsible for the charges that have been brought."

Best Food Purchased.

James B. Smith, chairman of the Board of Public Safety, referring to the charge that inferior medicines and food are furnished the patients at the City Hospital, said yesterday afternoon that the board purchases the best drugs on the market. He said that the meats and other foods are equal to those served in the best homes. The nurses and others of the hospital staff are served with the same food that the patients receive, he said, and care is exercised in cooking.

When asked yesterday afternoon whether he would take any further action, provided the Board of Public Safety refuses to investigate the charges made Dr. Menefee replied that he would. He was asked what steps he would take, and replied that he had not as yet outlined a plan.

SCOTT REMANDED

ON CHARGE OF DISCRIMINATING AGAINST UNION MEN.

Salaries of Postal Employes Increased—Postmaster Woods Selects Secretary.

J. M. Scott, chief train dispatcher for the Louisville and Nashville railroad, was remanded yesterday by Henry Cassin, United States Commissioner, to answer to the Federal grand jury in October to the charge of discriminating against members of the Order of Railroad Telegraphers. He gave bail in $300, with Attilia Cox as surety.

Names Private Secretary.

Postmaster Woods yesterday appointed as his private secretary, Miss Myra L. Hanks, who formerly was stenographer in his law office. The salary is $1,400 per annum. Miss Mary Ewing, who had been private secretary to the Louisville postmaster for nine years, has been transferred to another department. She is considered one of the most efficient employes at the Customhouse.

May Remove Alarms.

Inspector John Sutherland, who is an attache of the Treasury Department at Washington, was a visitor at the Customhouse yesterday. He inspected the safe in which stamps are kept in the basement and announced that he might recommend the withdrawal of the electrical burglar alarms attached to the safes. The service costs the Government $1 per day, and if watchmen are assigned to guard the safes the mechanical device will not be necessary.

C. W. Moss Expected.

C. W. Moss, District Civil Service Secretary, whose headquarters are in Cincinnati, O., is expected at the Customhouse to-day to call on Postmaster Woods, J. A. Craft, Collector of Internal Revenue, and Judge W. G. Dearing, Collector of Customs. Yesterday Mr. Moss was in Jeffersonville, Ind., conferring with officials at the Government Depot.

No Arrests Made.

George W. Long, United States Marshal, stated yesterday that no arrests of miners had been made at Sturgis for riddling two colored miners with bullets despite morning press dispatches to the effect that a Deputy United States Marshal had made the arrests. He received a message from Deputy Marshal Bennett, of Owensboro, saying that he had taken no part in the affair.

Customhouse Notes.

Cicero M. Barnett, former Collector of Customs and ex-chairman of the Republican State Central Committee, was a visitor at the Customhouse yesterday. Mr. Barnett resides at Hartford, Ohio county, where he is the proprietor of a prosperous newspaper.

Miss Hortense Horton, stenographer and assistant bookkeeper in the office of the United States Marshal, left yesterday for Pineville to spend a three weeks' vacation.

William Blades, Deputy United States Marshal, has gone to Penrod to remain a month.

FROM BLUEGRASS

HORSEMEN WRITE LETTERS TO STATE FAIR SECRETARY.

Pledge Support To Exhibition and Will Send Their Best Animals.

Joshua B. Bowles, secretary of the board of control of the State Fair, is in receipt of several letters from some of the prominent horse breeders in the Bluegrass part of the State. Without exception, these letters show it to be the intention of their writers to support the State Fair at the expense of any other rival attraction. The writers deplore sectional jealousy, and express it as their opinion that the State Fair should be supported by all loyal Kentuckians, irrespective of where they live.

Daily trotting races will have a place on the programme of the Fair. The contests which are being planned by the secretary will be of a high order.

SUBURBAN PIPE LINE COMPANY INCORPORATES.

The Glenview Water-pipe Line Company filed a charter yesterday with a capitalization of $25,000, divided into shares of $100 each. Its object is to supply to Anchorage, Glenview and other outlying suburbs water from the filtration plant of the Louisville Water Works in Crescent Hill. This is made possible by the increased pressure which the water tower recently erected affords. The main office of the company will be at Anchorage. The incorporators and their respective holdings are: P. P. Huston, twenty shares; G. R. Hunt, Jr., ten shares; Thomas F. Smith, ten shares, and R. W. Price, ten shares. The maximum debt is $25,000.

CHILD'S AWFUL SKIN HUMOR

Screamed with Pain—Suffering Nearly Broke Parent's Heart—Twelve Years of Misery—Doctor Called Case Incurable—Helped from First, and

SPEEDILY CURED BY CUTICURA REMEDIES

"I wish to inform you that your wonderful Cuticura has put a stop to twelve years of misery I passed with my son. As an infant I noticed on his body a red spot and treated same with different remedies for about five years, but when the spot began to get larger I put him under the care of doctors. Under their treatment the disease spread to four different parts of his body. The longer the doctors treated him the worse it grew. During the day it would get rough and form like scales. At night it would be cracked, inflamed and badly swollen, with terrible burning and itching. When I think of his suffering it nearly breaks my heart. His screams could be heard down stairs. The suffering of my son made me full of misery. I had no ambition to work, to eat, nor could I sleep.

"One doctor told me that my son's eczema was incurable and gave it up for a bad job. One evening I saw an article in the paper about the wonderful Cuticura and decided to give it a trial.

"I tell you that Cuticura Ointment is worth its weight in gold; and when I had used the first box of Ointment there was a great improvement, and by the time I had used the second set of Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Resolvent my child was cured. He is now twelve years old, and his skin is as fine and smooth as silk. (Signed) Michael Steinman, 7 Summer Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y., April 16, 1905."

Complete External and Internal Treatment for every Humor, from Pimples to Scrofula, from Infancy to Age, consisting of Cuticura Soap, 25c., Ointment, 50c., Resolvent, 50c. (in form of Chocolate Coated Pills, 25c., per vial of 60), may be had of all druggists. A single set often cures. Potter Drug and Chem. Corp., Sole Props., Boston.

MARKET PLACE

Desired by Residents of the West End.

ORDINANCE PROVIDING FOR ONE TO BE INTRODUCED.

MAYOR TYLER MAY MAKE HIS REPORT TO-NIGHT.

RIGHT-OF-WAY IS DISCUSSED.

Daniel E. O'Sullivan, assistant City Attorney, is preparing an ordinance for Councilman Herman Christen, providing for the use of both sides of Market street, between Sixteenth and Seventeenth streets, as a market place. The ordinance will be introduced by Councilman Christen in the lower board at the meeting of the General Council to be held to-night.

When the ordinance is introduced it will be accompanied by a long list of petitioners who are anxious that Market street between Sixteenth and Seventeenth streets be declared a public market. Many years ago there was a market house on Market street between Sixteenth and Seventeenth streets. It was an old frame structure and occupied the center of the street. There were street car tracks on either side of it. Since the old market house was torn down, citizens in the western section of Louisville have missed it.

Market street, where it is desired to establish a public market, is about eighty-four feet wide. The ordinance to be introduced will provide that the marketmen be required to keep the street clean, and at night to place a lighted lantern on their wagons when they are backed against the sidewalk.

SPECIAL APPROPRIATION

Only Means of Raising Funds For Park Purchase.

Despite the fact, according to Owen Tyler, acting Mayor, that nothing can be done by the city toward purchasing the Caldwell property for park purposes until the time arrives for making appropriations in the next fiscal year, it is likely that he will make a report of some kind at the meeting of the General Council to-night, touching on the feasibility of the plan. Mayor Tyler said yesterday that he believed the best way to raise the necessary money was by increasing the tax levy for park purposes from six cents, the present rate, to eight cents. This would not only provide a sufficient sum of money for maintaining the present park system, but would leave a balance sufficient for the purchase of the Caldwell property.

According to Mayor Tyler, the city is unable to bind itself in advance to make appropriations, and for that reason the extent of the obligation to those who have asked that the park be bought is purely a moral one. It is likely that an effort will be made to arrange some way by which the option granted the city on the Caldwell property may be extended indefinitely, or until after appropriations for the next fiscal year are made.

RIGHT-OF-WAY

Ordinance To Be Considered To-day At Committee Meeting.

Julius E. Bierach, chairman of the Railroad Committee of the lower board of the General Council, likely will call a meeting of that committee for to-day, in order that the ordinance granting to the Kentucky Traction Company a right of way from Thirteenth and Magazine streets to the right of way of the Kentucky and Indiana bridge, may be considered. A number of amendments to the ordinance have been suggested, and it is likely that the Railroad Committee may accept some of them.

Mr. Bierach was not present at the meeting of the Railroad Committee Tuesday, when arguments for and against the ordinance were made. The other members of the committee took the arguments under submission, pending the return of Mr. Bierach to the city. He arrived home Tuesday night, and it will be necessary for the Railroad Committee to meet to-day in order that a report on the ordinance can be made at the meeting of the General Council to-night.

The main objection to the ordinance on the part of persons who have property abutting the streets over which a right of way is desired, is that the ordinance does not specify whether there shall be double or single tracks, or whether the traction company shall have the right to occupy with its tracks the entire street. In many instances the streets are narrow, it is said. Another objection is that it is said that the proposed ordinance disregards the law providing that a railroad shall not be laid or constructed upon any public street or alley until compensation shall be made by the company to the owners of abutting property, either by agreement or by condemnation proceedings.

Appropriation Ordinance.

Samuel M. Wilhite, City Controller, has completed the final appropriation ordinance providing for funds sufficient for the city government during the remainder of the fiscal year, and it will be introduced at the meeting of the General Council to be held to-night. Owen Tyler, Acting Mayor, has called a meeting of the Joint Finance Committee, to be held at the City Hall this morning at 10:30 o'clock, at which time the ordinance, as prepared by Mr. Wilhite, will be considered.

* * *

Elected Vice President.

Samuel P. Jones, a member of the Board of Waterworks, has been elected vice president of the board. Heretofore there has not been a vice president of the Board of Waterworks. The election of Mr. Jones to the office is considered a compliment to him. It was found necessary by the members of the board to elect a vice president in order that he may serve as president in the absence of John R. Long at any time.

Season of Good Sport.

Judge A. E. Richards, City Attorney, who is spending his vacation in Wisconsin, has written to friends at the City Hall, stating that he is enjoying a splendid season of sport. He likely will return to Louisville August 10.

SMALL BABY GIRL LEFT ON DOORSTEP.

A girl baby about a week old was found on the doorstep of the residence of Simon Lazarus, at 107 West Hill street, shortly after midnight Tuesday. Mrs. Lazarus was attracted by the cries of the infant, but was afraid to open the door on account of her husband's absence from home. The baby had cried fully an hour before Mrs. Lazarus summoned enough courage to open the door and take the child in. She called the police and turned the baby over to them, who took it to the Home of the Innocents.

Mrs. Lazarus said that the waif was dressed in clothing of excellent material, but there was no note or mark on the clothing by which it could be identified.

According to Mrs. Lazarus, a carriage drove up to the corner of First and Hill streets about midnight, some one alighted and walked to the residence of Mr. Lazarus. After a short time this person returned to the vehicle and drove away.

Marriage Licenses.

Marriage licenses were issued yesterday to the following: John Willis and Martha Elizabeth Landers, William LeRoy Shannon and Alma Ethel Waller, Thomas E. Rawlings and Ella Lowe, John J. Middendorf and Mattie B. Berry.

Open for ENGAGEMENT

BY reason of a change of policy in their business, The Hayner Distilling Company, whose Advertising Manager I have been for nearly five years, have discontinued their advertising, and naturally, where there is no advertising no manager is needed. Hence, as soon as I can close the affairs in my department, which will be about August 15th next, I will be open for engagement.

Can YOU use the services of one who has had 18 years of varied experience in all that the Science of Advertising implies?

MY RECORD

After five years of newspaper work, I became Advertising Manager of the Monarch Cycle Mfg. Co., back in the early nineties, bringing the "Monarch" from obscurity and small sales up to one of the best known and largest selling bicycles in the world.

From bicycles I went to soap and, for the next five years, was Advertising Manager of The N. K. Fairbank Company, advertising such well-known products as Gold Dust Washing Powder, Fairy Soap and Cottolene, generally conceded to be among the best exploited proprietary articles on the market. The present Fairbank advertising is practically a continuation of my work.

My next engagement was my present one. If you would know how well I have served The Hayner Distilling Company, nearly doubling their business in my second year, write them, for I would prefer to have them tell the whole story. It's a record that I am proud of.

Just in the prime of life and backed by 18 years of experience in all phases of Advertising, I am qualified to do better work than ever before. If YOU would like to have my conscientious and result-bringing efforts put behind YOUR business, write me.
